CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDA

NOTES BY THE WAY

BY BISHOP ALEXANDER WALTERS. VARICK, PHILA. PA.

I resumed my tour of the spring conferences Sunday March 28th, at great Variok Church, Philadelphia, Pa., where Dr. S. L. Cororthers is Several days prior to my visit, there, I had noticed in the daily press of Philadelphia, and other ciwties, reports of a great revival that was being conducted in Variok church, by Rev. Alexander Wilt-banks, the great evangelist, known as the black Billy Sunday, of Washington, D. C. ilis sermons and sayings were reported daily in leading papers. Indeed, columns after columns were given to him, and the church was unable to accommodate the thouasnds that assembled night after hight to hear this wonderful evangelist. Rev. Wiltbanks is cer-tainly a unique character, and knows how to handle colored people he sways them by his colquent and forcible appeals. His pleasing personality and ready flow of lantuage make him easily one of the oremost evangelists of the day, he sses a far greater intelligence than the ministers are wont to give him credit for.

Never since we have occupied Varick Church has there been such a crowd to gather there, as since with snow, and delayed us two and flev. Wilthanks has been preaching a half hours. When I awoke Sunthere. It is marvelous how he handles the crowds. "Striking the pike," is Rev. Wiltganks' equivalent to Billy Sunday's "Hitting the trail,"

Palm Sunday, the day of my visit, I preached at 11 a. m., to a eter of hope for a glorious Easter full house, while he (Rev. Wiltham) was preaching the funeral a. m., it commenced to creep up; af one of his officials at Washington, D. C. He arrived in time to the church was filled, and my, what at the night service, at which e le delivered a sermon, entitled (niel in the lion's den," which was one of the foremost muscial conctors in this country, and his exptional ability is evidenced by the high standard to which he has developed this organization of skilled musicians.

On my way to Philadelphia, Palm Sunday, and while sitting reading my Bible, as is my custom, a young white gentleman stopped beside my seat and said, "I see you are read-ing a very good book," I replied "Yes," and he asked me where I was going, "To Philadelphia," I replied. And during our conversation, I told him of the great revival being carried on at Varick, and that face of the chorister, and hear the since he was going to Philadelphia, music of the great choir again as I would like him to visit the church Wiltibanks not particularly expect him, and gerat was my surprise when I saw him come in the church before the morning sermon. Upon seeing him enter the church I directed one of the ushers to conduct him forward. When the collection was called for at the close of the sermon, he gave $50.00 and informed us that for every $5.00 the congregation gave, he would give an equal amount, or in other words, dollar for dollar. This he continued to do, until he had given $150.00. He returned to the evening services and made the same proposition, and became so enthused that he said he would give $20,000 to the church, if the cohgregation would raise a similar amount within a year. I await with great anxiety the outcome of the affair.

Twas a great day in Zion. Dr. Corrothers shed tears of joy, and he deserves great credit for securing the services of Rev. Wiltbanks, and making such a success of the revival, which demonstrates his ability to handle things on a lagre scale.

UNION WESLEY, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Thursday night April 1st, I was persent at the great organ recital at Union Wesley Church, Washington, D. C. Besides the new organ which cost $3000, Mr. Andrew Carnegie giving $1250 of that amount, the church has been remodeled from top to bottom, and from front to rear. It is now one of the most beautiful auditoriums of our connection. The church was packed from pit to dome, and, I was told, hundreds were turned way, notwithstarding the price of dmission was 25 cents. A most excellent program was rendered. A youpng white man whose name I do not now remember, soloist, and Prof. Robbin the cele-brated organist of Baltimore presided at the organ. Rev. Oliver has achieved a great work at this point. He is a splendid man and line preacher.

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

r'riday April 2nd was spent at New Haven, Conn., Rev. T. E. Roach is pastor. The subject of our lec-ture for the evening was, "The re-sult of Emancipation." We had a splendid audience, a fine supper, and a very enjoyable time. Rev. Roach is a perfect fit at New Haven and is sweeping everything before him. He possesses a magnetic personality, is a fine preacher, and a very capable young man. He has built up a splendid congregation, the largest the church has had in years. His first rally resulted in raising $500.00, and he is now planning to raise $1,000.00 to pay on the mortgage. If he continues his good work and remains cheerful, he will do wonders in New Haven for our Zion.

BOSTON, MASS.

Boston, the intellectual hub of the nation, was reached Saturday April 3rd 6 p. m. All was fair when I left New Haven early Saturday morning, but ere I reached Boston in the evening, the blizzard had blocked the wheels of our train day morning and peeped out of the window, it looked more like Christmas than Easter morning. We and hundreds have been converted, didn't have much to say to each or in other words, have struck the pike.

were all down in the say to each other. We arrived at the church at 10:30 a. m. and found but few presented. were all down in the mouth, and ent and the mercury in our baromthe church was filled, and my, what a change came over the face of pas-for Swain. The music for the hour was excellent. All seemed to > the Sunday School, at 2:30 p. The program was an excellent one; songs and recitations by the children were most beautiful; and the anthems by the whole school, were certainly inspiring.

The evening services were conaucted by Dr. Taylor, the Chorister of the great Columbus Avenue Choir. He was at his best, and they astonished Boston with their Easter music. My, but it was great! I cannot remember of ever hearing anything like it. First came "The Arisen Savior; this was followed by "The Victorious Christ;" and finally the "Shouts of Angels" was rendered. I can see the lighted I write. What a day, what a day.

Rec. Swain, the able eloquent and enthusiastic pastor, returned home in a far different frame of mind, than wnat he had when he entered the church in the morning. He was happy to the tips of his fingers. Collection $100.00.

The reception given in our honor on Monday night, by the pastor, trustees, and stewardeless of the church, was a beautiful affair. I have never, since I have been in charge of the district, had a more delightful time than on this occasion. The fellowship was beautiful, and the sympathy was all that any one could wish. Miss Swain, the loving sister of Rev. Swain, and the toys, made my stay in their home exceedingly pleasant. Rev. Swain is monarch of all he surveys and no minister in Boston is more highly esteemed than he; indeed; he has made an enviable record in Boston of which any man might well be proud.

ATTLESBOPO, MASS.

Attlesboro, Mass., Rev. D. R. Overton, Pastor, was visited Tuesday night April 6th. I was surprised to find the church remodeled new windows—painted within and without. It is a beauty. The improve-ments were made under the auspics of the Citizens' Club, an organization outside of the church. Rev. Overton is very proud of this achievement. We had an interesting service at night, seven came forward for prayer, four professed religion and three joined the church. In reporting my last visit to Attleboro, I stated that sister Overton was not at home, and that I missed

Continued or page five

SEARCH-LIGHT SCE

TESTIMONIALS TO THE SE LIGHT SCENES CORRES -WHAT THE A. M. MINISTERS SAY.-WHA PERIODIOALS PUBLISH.

BY REV. J. HARVEY ANDERSON

Dr. Anderson, I want to close your ministerial care the honor of being editor STAR. Your chances are m ter than otherwise.

Dr. J. Francis Lee. Wilmington,

REV.J. HARVEY ANDERS

With regards to the S church, nad disseminating much valuable information. W. E. Shaw, Middlesboro, Ky.

I write to you for this information for I believe if there is any man in the Zion Church that is able to give me the desired information it is J. Harvey Anderson, for what he does not know about Zion Church is not worth knowing.

J. B. Colbert, Louisville, Ky.

You put your men in the limelight by your powerful Searchlight, machine and they all should appreciate it, for no set of men in the wohle Church are given so splendid portrayal of their of their work as yours.

Waterbury, Cont.

As to your candidacy, you can depend upon your friends can wield the pen as few race can.

Dr. J. S. Jackson Birmingham, Ala.

I write you my appreciation of the Searchlight Scenes, in the current issues of the STAR. I suppose you will stand for the STAR editorship in 1916, if so count on me for any encouragement I can give you. B. W. Swain, D. D., Boston Mass.

1916. You should be elected in editor of the STAR OF ZION. Your friends will stand by you. son can edit the STAR as good as reference made concerning the men of our Pacific slope, in last two issues of the Star in Searchilght Scenes, are highly appreciated by us all. Rev. W. W. Matthews, San Francisco, Cal.

> J. W. Wood, D. D., Indianapolis, Ind.

same interest, because they are expected to come from the same dauntess and painstaking defender of the truth, J. Harvey Anderson, D. D., R. Alexander Carroll, D. D. Washington, D. C.

Dr. Anderson:—I have taken the liberty to speak a word for you in the STAR in connection with the tent detailed report made by J. 1916 and will not tour days.

Harvey Anderson of the Harris. Now Dear Brethren:—In accordomitted nothing essential; every man was given credit for his sucwould expe t nothing less than this from Dr. Anderson; for he is in some respects one of the best prepared and efficient men of the lent presiding elder; he is always kind and considerate; painstaking and faithful; and he will go a long distance out of his own path to help his men and to develop his work. He knows how to dissipate the which he scatters in every direction; therefore he is always welcome to the homes of the pastors and people of the district.

Dr. J. Francis Lee, (STAR OF ZION.) The Search light? Who in all Zion has felt the fascinating effects of its mellow rays? What corner in all the church has it not searched? What subject pertaining to the interest of Zion; to the uplift of the lay Ander- and ministerial work; the delicate relations that exist between Zion and the sister churches have the rays of his searchlight not been turned on to the lasting benefit of Dear Dr. Anderson:—The kindly most unpretentious circuit, digging with might and main unknown to honor and regardless of fame, doing a man's part faithfully, and loyally thinking no one is giving him any consideration in his struggle, is sought out and the lens of the Searchlight are flashed on him I read the Searchlight Scenes with and he is astonished to find his no little interest, and will read the asiduous labors have been discovereditorials, D. V. after 1916, with the ed and published throughout the asiduous labors have been discovered and published throughout the Church.

The years of experience only "ripen" his well balanced powers; his broad and varied reading his broad and varied reading coupled with his native ability gives him a weapon which makes him formidable in defense of any cause he champions; his deep grasp of secular and ecclesiastical subjects gives him the power to throw light

Continued on Fifth Page.

Harvey Anderson, of the Harris-ance with the action of last annual Harvey Anderson, of the district burg District. His was one of the most accurate reports it has been most accurate reports it has been Missionary Convection," of our Missionary Convection," of our Missionary Convocation," of our Church will assemble at Maryville, man was given credit for his suc-ces and for his faithfulness. We 1915 and will held four days. it is needless for s to urge upon you the wisdom of putting forth your best efforts to be present and likewise to urge others of your church; he is somewhat of a connecting link between the fathers and the men of today; with the exto reach the place we are fighting ception of our own Bishop Hood whom God has spared to guide the ship of state, I know of no man who is more familiar with the history of our Zion Methodism as is Dr. Anderson. He makes an excelexcel- place in raising means to help our schools and local missionary work.

Then in the name of the interest which is dearer to us than life let us marshal out our forces and be present at the meeting with all the means we can possibly raise. Othgloom by his outbursts of sunshine er Methodist Churches are raising which he scatters in every direction; thousands of dollars through this medium let us likewise do some-thing that will place us in front and thereby help our cause geenral-

Yours truly,

Dr. W. H. Tucker, Chairman, Dr. B. J. Jones, Solicitor Gen. Dr. J. L. Black, Treasurer, Rev. W. H. Mitchell, Rev. Wm. R. Riley, Rev. J. H. Branner, Rev. C. L. Byers, Rev A. S. Monroe, Dr. C. C. Steward, Sec. A. J. Warner, Bishop.

NOTICE!

New Song Books.

We have "Soul Echoes," the charming song book of Bishops Caldwell, Coppin, Blackwell, Dr. Tindley and others for sale. A choice collection of songs for only 10 cents each or $1.00 per dozen by mail prepaid. Order now.

We are prepared to send you Fields Hand Book on Theology for $1.00; Hints to Self-Educated Ministers for $1.25, and Outlines of Church History and Outlines of Bible History 60 cents each. Send order at once.