AN UNUSUAL MAGAZINE.

We are in receipt of a copy of The Rescue Magazine, a quarterly which is being published in Atlanta, Ga.

This unusual publication is devoted to the rescue of the fallen as well as to prevention from this awful life. The Editor (who has had many years' experience in rescue work), paints in vivid colors the tragic life of girls of the underworld—their complete blight—their utter ruin and destruction.

This Magazine is absolutely free to the fallen, but to others the price is 25 cents per copy, or $1.00 per year.

The publisher wishes to create more wide-spread interest in the restoring of the fallen, and request all who are interested to please write, sending 25 cents for sample copy. Free distribution cannot be made except as stated, to the fallen.

This publication contains 96 pages, neatly gotten up and illustrated, and interesting reading throughout.

Copies can be had by addressing The Rescue Magazine, 1019 Fourth National Bank Building, Atlanta, Ga., and remitting price mentioned above.

Woman's Home Companion.

The fiction in May Woman's Home Companion includes the first part of the serial story by Zona Gale entitled "When Dreams Begin," delightfully illustrated by Alice Barber Stephens. The principal theme of the story is the struggle for adaptation between two young people, a situation which has its parallel in the experience of most newly-married husbands and wives. Marie Corelli has contributed a delightful love story to the May Woman's Home Companion — humorous, ingenious, and thoroughly readable. Among other fiction are "The Circuit Lady," by Hulbert Footner, an exciting tale; "The Indifference of Molly," a lively love story by Mary Hastings; another part of "The Flight of the Magic Carpet," a story of love and adventure by C. N. and A. M. Williamson; stories by May Heaton Vorse and Annie Hamilton Donnell.

Woman's Home Companion has come to be famed for its special departments and articles which cover every phase of housekeeping and deal with all manner of household problems. That much-agitated question, "How is it possible for us to live within our incomes, with the price of food-stuffs soaring?" is most satisfactorily answered in an article in the May issue entitled, "The High Cost of Living Versus the Cost of High Living."

The drink that it took ten years of careful, studious effort to perfect—but it's here! The best and most satisfying drink at the fountain. IF YOU HAVE NOT USED

Park & Pollard Gritless-Chick and Growing Feed

Money back if results are not better than we claim

Dover, Del., March 7, 1911.
Park & Pollard Co.
Gentlemen: I put 24 chicks in one of your Lullaby Brooders three and a half weeks ago. Have fed them on your Gritless-Chick and Growing Feeds and they are all doing fine. I cannot recommend the combination too highly.
Sincerely,
W. L. Simmons
