

path that leads towards the land of perfect day. She loved her home and family, and her loved ones worshipped her. But better than that she also loved her neighbors too, with an ardent love.

She was cultured and refined according to the thought of a former day, when the real in life was at a premium. But that noble heart has quietly, calmly, and peacefully laid its burden down to take up the song of triumph.

Mrs. Lambe leaves to mourn her departure, her devoted husband, John F. Lambe and three children, Mr. Ernest M. Lambe, of Florida, Mr. Ben H. Lambe, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Cara Lambe Siler, of Siler City, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. C. W. Womble, of Goldston; Mrs. W. F. Womble, of Lincolnton; Prof. W. S. Snipes, of Fayetteville Graded Schools, and Rev. F. M. Snipes, P. E., of Warrenton District.

May the benediction of Heaven rest richly upon the sorrowing ones. -C. W. Robinson.

AN APPRECIATION.

The hearts of all who knew Miss Lillian Williams are saddened to learn of her seemingly untimely death. To know her was to love her. Miss Williams was pre-eminently a nurse. She accepted her profession as a divinely appointed task, and asked for no higher duties than to minister to suffering humanity, thereby exemplifying the life work of her Lord. In the sick room she was an angel of mercy, her cheerful, sunny nature and genial smile helped one forget their pain, and her tender touch on the fevered brow was like heaven's dew on the withered rose. I speak of her out of a heart of gratitude and love. Language is inadequate to express my appreciation. She nursed me through lingering weeks, when life hung by a slender thread. I think of her as the medium through which I was brought back to health and strength. Like Christ, it can be said of her, "She saved others, herself she could not save." What a sacrifice was hers. How noble, unselfish and true! Shielding others, she bared her own bosom to the shaft. "Greater love hath no man than this, that he will give his life for a friend."

Sweet soul, thou hast winged thy way back to God and thy rich reward. I know thou wast not afraid to die, for thou hadst anchored thy faith in Him who doeth all things well.

"Faith sees the bright eternal doors unfold,

To make His children way!
They shall be clothed with endless life,

And shine in everlasting day."

Here on earth human ties must be severed, the thought of the separation gives us pain, but it is not for long. Soon we'll meet in our Father's house, and our souls forever be at home, hence we look up through our tears and say, "Thy will be done and rejoice that

"Death is no more the king of dread,
Since our dear Saviour rose

He took the tyrant's sting away,
And conquered all our foes."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, George Galloway, an ex-member of the Methodist Sunday-school of Smithfield, N. C., and a member of General Pershing's Expeditionary Force in France, has lost his life in service in the United States Army in the War against Germany, and whereas, he is the first of our Sunday-school members to have his name placed on our honor roll of the dead in the Great War; therefore be it resolved, That the officers, teachers and students of this Sunday-school extend their heartiest sympathies to the mother and relatives of the deceased.

Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Sunday-school by the secretary, a copy sent to Mrs. Ida Galloway, the mother of deceased, and a copy furnished the Smithfield Herald for publication.

Fascinating Reading for Sunday or Quiet Hours

Of recent years various expeditions, American and foreign, have been at work in Bible lands, unearthing all sorts of astonishing facts regarding the life of the early Christians. The result of their labors is now reported in an intensely interesting volume,

The New Archeological Discoveries

by Prof. Camden M. Cohern, who is not only an expert at unearthing buried treasure, but a master of fascinating narrative. His pages are as thrilling as romance and as readable as a novel and they bring you facts of the most surprising kind regarding the life and times of the primitive Church.

Astonishing Parallels Between Ancient and Modern Life

First and second century manuscripts found in Egypt, personal and business notes, love letters, contracts, mortgages, ect., reveal to us that

Preparedness Was a Slogan in Pharaoh's Day and conscription was advocated by many as being a better safeguard than reliance on a volunteer army.

Excess Profits and War Taxes Worried the Ancient Jews

Trusts flourished and made huge sums while taxation to carry on the imperial government was levied even on necessities.

Nero's Palace Had Elevators and Hot Air Heating to say nothing of a revolving dining-room, a mechanical water-pump, and an elaborate organ with pipes, stops, etc.

Woman's Rights a Two-Thousand-Year-Old Problem

A newly discovered play of Euripides tells us how suffragettes of his day revolted against man, seized the government, and of the result.

The High Cost of Living Was Enormous in Biblical Times

Three days' earnings went for a bushel of beans, and a month's wages of a laborer would not purchase a small chicken.

Millionaires Dodged Their Taxes in Rome and Alexandria

by making false returns and got out of paying their inheritance duties by employing shrewd lawyers to prepare their wills.

The Servant Question a Burning One When Cleopatra Reigned.

They demanded days off and other privileges or refused to work, and were quite as independent as the help of today.

Graft and Corruption Ran Riot Under Caesars and Ptolemies

Politics was a recognized road to wealth, and frauds of all kinds were constantly worked on the toiling masses.

Advertisement for Freckles. There is just one way to remove freckles and make the skin clear and beautiful. It is in this way that Kintho Cream gets rid of the old, freckled skin, gradually and harmlessly, and gives a soft, clear, white, youthful and beautiful skin, which of course should have no freckles. Just get a box of Kintho Beauty Cream at any drug store and apply it night and morning as directed, and your freckles should begin to disappear in a day or two. It is well to get a cake of Kintho Soap also, as this helps to keep the freckles away, once Kintho has removed them.
