

DON'T GIVE THE BOYS A CHEAP TESTAMENT

Much effort is misdirected in giving Testaments to our Boys in the Service by the use of cheap looking, small type, hard to read books.

The INTERNATIONAL CLEARNUTYPE TESTAMENT

is a Testament that will be prized by anyone receiving it. It is printed from remarkably large, clear, easily read type and is exceedingly small in size, only 2½ x 4 inches.

Active Service Binding

Testaments bound in the ordinary way will soon have the leaves crumpled. The binding, with flap covering the front edges and with a snap fastener to hold it down, affords protection and makes a compact, durable, and at the same time, handsome binding.

Exact Size, 2½ x 4 inches
THE SMALLEST, LARGE TYPE TESTAMENT MADE

SPECIMEN OF TYPE

ST. LUKE. The fruitless fig tree. ; officer cast thee into prison. and sought for thereon, and for I tell thee, thou none.

PRICES ARE LOW

No. 405 Khaki Cloth, limp, round corners, with button flap. $0.65
No. 426 Pig Grain Brown Leather, limp, round corners, with button flap. $1.20

SEND YOUR ORDERS TO

RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE - Raleigh, N. C.

Marriages

Jackson-Aman.—At the home of Mr. E. W. Summersill in Jacksonville, N. C., Lieutenant John J. Jackson, of Kinston, N. C., to Miss Alice Gray Aman of Richlands, N. C., August 29, 1918, Rev. E. W. Glass officiating.

Obituaries

We print an obituary of 150 words free of charge. For all words in excess of 150 we charge one cent a word. Please count the words and enclose with the obituary the amount necessary to cover the cost of publication under this rule. We do not publish original poetry about the dead.

Wintz.—Mrs. Nancy Adeline Wintz wife of Rev. A. E. Wintz, departed this life August 2, 1918. She was sixty-four years old. Brother and Sister Wintz were married about thirty years ago. To this union two sons were born. Both preceded her to the better world. Sister Wintz was a good woman joined the Methodist Church when a child and was a faithful member until God called her home. She leaves a husband and two sisters and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

We laid her mortal remains to rest in the family burying-ground near Roper. Funeral services held by this scribe.

May God's comforting grace be supplied in great measure to the bereaved ones.—N. L. Seabolt.

McDaniel.—Nancy F. McDaniel, wife of Charles A. McDaniel, died at Pollocksville, N. C., March 13th, age 52 years. Sister McDaniel has been a consistent member of the Methodist Church for a number of years, having joined at Lee's Chapel in 1906. She was in bad health for a long time, but through it all seemed to fully realize that God knew best, and waited patiently for His will to be done. A devoted wife and one who loved home. She leaves to mourn her departure a devoted husband, one sister, five brothers, and many friends. May the great God in His wisdom, comfort and bless the bereaved ones, helping them to remember, when one of God's children dies, though our lost it is their gain.—C. T. Rogers, pastor.

Meekins.—Henrietta H. Meekins was born in Avon, N. C., April 19, 1872, and died June 8, 1918. She was the daughter of Rev. Henderson S. Scarborough, a local preacher in the M. E. Church, South. She was converted and joined the Church when but twelve years old. She was married to Mr. I. T. Meekins. She leaves a grief-stricken husband and four children, Mr. George H. and Miss Ida and Thomas Meekins and Mrs. Rosa Gray. She lived a consecrated Christian life and died in the triumphs of faith. She was a sister to the writer's wife. May our dear Heavenly Father comfort the bereaved and may we all, by the grace of God meet our loved one in heaven.—A. W. Price.

Dixon.—We laid to rest the body of Brother Haywood Dixon on May 25, 1918, in the family cemetery. In the passing of Brother Dixon we lose one of our oldest and best citizens. He was born January 30, 1836. He spent a long and useful life. He was a friend to the preacher and for many years one of the leading members of Elevation Church. He leaves to mourn his departure a wife and eight children.

He was married first on April 7, 1859, to Mary Stephenson. To this union were born three children.

On December 21, 1865, he was married to Lucinda Barbour. To this union were born six children. Sister Dixon and her family have the sympathy of the whole community. Brother Dixon has gone home to rest. We will meet him in the beyond.—J. T. Standford, P. C.

Newell.—Brother Geo. L. Newell was born February 13, 1887, and passed to his blessed reward August 2, 1918. He joined the Edgar Long Memorial M. E. Church, South, about ten years ago during the pastorate of Brother Hornaday.

He married eight years ago, Miss Merritt Crews. His dear wife with two children, his precious mother, Mrs. W. H. B. Newell, three brothers, and two sisters are left behind to mourn over their great loss. Almost half of the family have crossed over the river.

He was prepared for the passing. During his last days his thoughts were often in the home of the soul. His words about his Jesus were beautiful.

Our hearts of love and sympathy go out to all the family. Our loved ones are just waiting for us over there.—O. W. Dowd.

Jones.—Mrs. Leonora Jones was born July 12, 1852, and died August 5, 1918. Her husband died September 16, 1902.

There are left of her family three brothers and one sister: S. P. Williams, Roxboro, N. C., Green Williams, Danville, Va., P. H. Williams, Farmville, N. C., and Mrs. Laura Pointer, Roxboro, N. C.

Mrs. Jones had been a consistent, faithful member of the Methodist Church many years. She was a true friend, a most excellent neighbor, a devoted sister, a fine Christian character, after the type of the old school. Her passing is a personal loss not only to her family and relatives, but to her many friends.

In her great suffering her faith did not fail her, for she feared no evil. She was waiting for her Lord's summons. A dear woman of many fine qualities has gone from us. Her Church, Edgar Long Memorial M. E. Church, South, will miss her, and extends loving sympathy to her sorrowing ones.—O. W. Dowd, P. C.

IN LOVING MEMORY.

After living among earthly friends seventy-four years Brother Thomas L. Mullinix of Zoar was visited and called on the 19th day of August, 1918, by the death angel to his eternal home. Since boyhood he has been a consecrated member of the Methodist Church, South, and from young manhood has been a Sunday-school superintendent and a steward in our Church. He has ever been a faithful worker, a great lover of God. The large crowd at his funeral was an expression of the high esteem in which he was held by the whole community.

We deeply sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. Mullinix and commend them to the love and tender care of Him who doeth all things well. We shall miss his sweet smiles and splendid work in the Church, but weep not, for parents and friends, be submissive to God's righteous will.

The bereft wife and several children and friends have our love and tender sympathy and our prayers shall be that they may join him again in that house not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens.

Schools and Colleges.

LITTLETON COLLEGE

FOR GIRLS AND YOUNG WOMEN.

Located immediately on the Seaboard Air Line road in Warren County, N. C., one of the old aristocratic counties of the State, which for a hundred years has been famed for its culture and hospitality.

WE HAVE HOT WATER HEAT, ELECTRIC LIGHTS AND OTHER MODERN IMPROVEMENTS.

Miss Elizabeth Gordan, sister of Miss Anna Gordan, Frances Willard's private secretary, says: "Littleton College reminds me of our own schooling place, Mt. Holyoke. It gives the students thorough mental training and furnishes the same high ideals with which Mary Lyon and her successors inspired girls." The 37th Annual Session begins September 15, 1918. Write for catalogue, also for particulars concerning our special offer to girls who cannot pay our catalogue rate to

J. M. RHODES, Littleton, N. C.

OAK RIDGE INSTITUTE

OAK RIDGE, N. C.

T. E. WHITAKER, PRESIDENT.

An old-fashioned Southern school dating from 1852. In its long history it has enrolled thousands from the Carolinas and adjoining states. Preparation that opens the way to bigger accomplishments in college, business, and life. 350 acres in campus, athletic grounds, orchards and farms. Modern school buildings. Steam heat and showers. Library. Military training. Healthful, accessible location near Greensboro. More than a thousand feet above sea level. Sane, moral influences.

Courses thoroughly covering literature, science, teaching bookkeeping and shorthand and music. Athletics encouraged. All male teachers. Discipline mild but firm. Costs reasonable, $320 for the year. Fall session opens September 3, 1918. Write for illustrated catalogue. Address

Oak Ridge Institute, Oak Ridge, N. C.

FASSIFERN

A HOME SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.

Situated on a plateau over two thousand feet above sea level and completely surrounded by the majestic Appalachian mountains, in the city of Hendersonville, N. C., far-famed for its year-around delightful and health-giving climate. Fassifern offers thorough preparatory courses both for entrance to colleges of highest rank and professional work.

Accredited by the Association of Southern Colleges, the University of North Carolina and by Smith and Wellesly colleges of Massachusetts. Next session opens September 25th, 1918. For catalog, book of views and special information, address

Miss Kate C. Shipp, Hendersonville, N. C.

