

THE PAPER OF THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE AND WITH THE PEOPLE

ESTABLISHED 1852

LEXINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1911.

VOL. XXX-NO. 15

SUPERIOR COURT AT WORK.

Judge Daniels Delivers Strong Charge to Grand Jury—But One Important Case.

The August term of superior court convened Monday with Judge F. A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, presiding and Solicitor Hammer, of Newboro, prosecuting.

The August term of superior court convened Monday with Judge F. A. Daniels, of Goldsboro, presiding and Solicitor Hammer, of Newboro, prosecuting.

Judge Daniels said that many a man was lost because of a mistaken idea of kindness. It is always best to catch up the man who is starting wrong and put him in the right way at the start, and the grand jury should not be slow to deal with all sorts of law breakers.

Judge Daniels said that many a man was lost because of a mistaken idea of kindness. It is always best to catch up the man who is starting wrong and put him in the right way at the start, and the grand jury should not be slow to deal with all sorts of law breakers.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

PROGRESS IN OLD DAVIE.

Mr. W. E. Craig Makes an Unusual Proposition—Jerusalem Township is at Work.

Mr. H. B. Varner, who addressed a meeting of citizens of Jerusalem township, Davie county, Saturday afternoon August 12th, returned home delighted with the result of the meeting, which was a great success from the standpoint of education as well as better highways.

Recently Mr. William R. Craig, a big hearted, broad minded gentleman, a native of Vicksburg, Mississippi, who now lives in New York, and is connected with the Cotton Exchange, is looking around for a good place to rest, leave the home place of the late S. J. Tatum and is repairing and painting the house, building dog kennels, etc.

He also proposed to these people if they would build and complete this road by December 1st, before bad weather set in, that he would make an appropriation sufficient to increase the school term in every school district in Jerusalem township to eight months in the year.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

NO MORE ENTRIES ACCEPTED.

Agricultural Association Declares the Corn Contest Closed—A Fine Speech.

The Davidson County Agricultural Association met Saturday at 1 o'clock on the court house and held a very interesting session.

The meeting was called to order by President Wilson and the first subject taken up was the matter of allowing certain applicants to enter the corn contest. President Wilson stated that he had received a number of applications since last meeting from men who wanted to enter the corn contest and Secretary Conrad reported several applicants.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

MR. CONRAD CONFIRMED.

He at Last Lands Postmasterhood—Bond Sent in to Department Last Week.

Of interest to the many who have watched the fight over the Lexington postoffice will be the announcement that Mr. D. F. Conrad has at last landed the job.

It is good to know that peace will now descend on the republican camp in Davidson county. Postmaster Walser has made a fine officer. There have been but few flaws picked in his administration and the only thing against him seems to be that he has held the job for ten years.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

WORK OF THE JUNIORS.

State Secretary Vance Completes Annual Statement, Showing Fine Record for Year.

The annual meeting of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will be held this year in Asheville, beginning August 22. State Secretary Sam F. Vance, of Winston-Salem, has completed his report, showing, among other things, a net gain of 36 councils in the state during the year.

The membership last year was 25,553, while the various reports submitted this year show the membership to be 26,854, or an increase in membership of 1,301. This gain is about one-half of what the average gain has been for the past several years, and the small gain this year is attributed to the new rituals which have come into vogue this year.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

SCHOOL TEXT BOOKS ADOPTED.

Full List of Books That Will Be Used in Public Schools for Next Five Years.

Of especial interest to teachers and to the parents of city public schools will be the following dispatch sent out from Raleigh Saturday, naming the text books that will be used in our public schools for the next five years.

While the bookmen were gathered in the senate chamber singing "There is a Hole in the Bottom of the Sea" and exchanging flashes of wit and humor to keep up their courage this evening about 7 o'clock, the state textbook commission threw open the doors of representatives' hall and invited them in to hear the report of adoption just completed.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

IN AND ABOUT LEXINGTON.

Personal Mention—Movements of the People—Small Items of Interest.

Dr. J. E. Cathell, of Tyro, was here Monday attending court. Miss Ola Horney spent Sunday in High Point with her parents.

Mr. Arthur Michael has returned from a vacation spent at Shelby, N. C. Miss Rosa Butt, of Charlotte, is here on a visit to Mrs. A. E. Sheets. Mr. Fred C. Sink went to Troy Sunday, returning to the city Monday.

He said that the ideal of the law was to make the country safe, to protect the weak and the unfortunate and care for the children.

A check has been put on lewd men. Today it is a crime to debauch the helpless womanhood of the state.

For the erring youth there is the reformatory, where he is taught all that is good and bad impulses are corrected and the boy set on the high road to honor and honesty.

He traced a number of other improvements that are being made, all going to show that our race is growing better and stronger as the days go by.

In matters of public health we are making great progress. Diphtheria has been robbed of its terrors, typhoid has been conquered and smallpox has been tamed.

He then touched on progress in road building, local taxation for schools and a number of other movements that make for the upbuilding of the community and he told how all these good things might be retarded by a few bad men.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

In conclusion Judge Daniels said the grand jury should not attempt to catalogue the various crimes that men commit, for it is unnecessary. The law against all of these things is written in the hearts of the people.

(Continued on Page Four.)

(Continued on Page Four.)

(Continued on Page Four.)

(Continued on Page Four.)

(Continued on Page Four.)