BAPTISTS CALL PASTOR.

Rev. J. fl. Harte, of Hickory, Given Unanimous Call Here—S. S.

Rev. J. D. Harte, of Hickory, wasextended a ununimous and hearty call by the First Baptist church of Lexington, in conference Sunday morning. The church has been without a pas-tor since the first of December when resignation of Rev. J. M. Hamrick took place. The pulpit committee had been diligently looking over field in the state to try and select a suitable man to whom a call might given. The mention of the name of Rev. Mr. Harte and the possibility of his acceptance met with a most hearty response on the part of the church and the call was made most urgent. the First Baptist church of Hickory for eight years and during his pastorate there has assisted in the formation of three mission churches and has seen the membership rise from 250 to about 800. He is a public spirited man and has the confidence and esteem of the whole people of the city. He is counted as one of the strong men in the Baptist State Convention, and the Baptist congregation here and Lexington in general will be fortunate

After the call was extended Rev. Mr. Harte, Mr. T. I. Warfford, who has been financial secretary of the church, Conrad Hill—1st week, Jno. T. asked to be relieved of that position, asked to be relieved of that position, owing to the pressure of business affairs that prevented him giving a proper amount of time to the work.

Mr. Ed F. Smith was elected.

The Sunday School also elected new officers for the ensuing year. Mr. Roy T. Brown was unanimously chosen superintendent, Mr. John A. Sink, assistant superintendent and Mr. E. E. Witherspoon, second assistant superintendent; Mr. A. E. Sheets, secretary and treasurer and Mrs. J. Wright organist, with Miss Esther Yarbrough assistant. All teachers were re-elected for another year, with the exception of the Baraca class, which appointed a committee to nominate a teacher for election next Sun-
