the first notice that Castle Heights was on the market was given. At the same time we began to finish the work needed in several places. Carts for hauling sand, scoops for cutting down hills and a large number of laborers began work. Since March 13th -our lucky day-a great improvement has been made, and today the entire property is in better shape than ever before. The work continues. Before days ago. What he said then was unsatisfactory, and the district attorney and the district attorney told him that when he was ready to tell the truth, to come back. The grand jury yesterday, in its presentment, said Stewart was the man who move in the direction of really permastreets, the loss on which amounted to $150,000; Haney-White, manufacturers all necessary carpentering work done; in fact, cottage in good order; has five rooms, and on the car line being No. 511 South Sixth street. The fire started in a pile of rubbish and the property will be remarked all the time. Ask Wright's the new houses steadily goes on, slowly but surely, and a number of the recent purchasers are deciding what kind of houses to build. In the next few weeks Castle Heights will be one of the busiest places in busy Wilmington. The sale of the lots has proven their value. Each purchaser has seen the property before buying. Each one has had time to consider carefully the question and in two weeks over 60 lots have been bought. Proof conclusive that the value is true. It's there in the property. A great many have paid cash, the others took advantage of the $25 down and the remainder in easy monthly or weekly payments. warm friends, and also my kind friends of Brunswick county, I have decided to stand for nomination at the coming primary. Brunswick county has always been identified with New Hanover county, and I shall, if elected, consider their interests as one. I am a farmer and not a professional man, but I claim to be a business man, and if elected, I shall stand for and earnestly advocate those measures, that make for the common good of all people; not only of my native county and of my WANTED—Buyers for nice new 40 pound adopted county, but of my district; feather beds at $10.00.
