Nothing Apparently Will be Done to Hinder Them-Will Not Attempt to Fix Anything Definite-Hearings.

Beverly, Mass., July 1.-President Taft had a long talks today with Chair: man Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission, regarding the administration of the new pailroad rate law. At the conclusion of the interview it was made plain that the added authority given to the Commission by the new statute is not to be used ar- Nation. bitrarily or for the purpose of hindering the railroads in the conduct of their legitimate business. The power to suspend new rates probably the most direct weapon placed in the hands of the Commission is to be used only in exceptional cases.

Chairman Knapp told the President fused an application under the new law for a suspension of increased. rates on horse vehicles and automobiles. He said that there was nothing paign of the Fall. on the face of things to show that the new rates were unjust or unreasona-

It can be authoritatively stated that it was never intended that the new law should be a club or that it should be the means of profit taking by bears" in the market. The commission will not "run amuck" and will do nothing to jeopardize the interests of investors. There has been talk of a to interfere in any way with legislators and the embarrassing results that might come from throwing over stocks at crop moving time. But the President sees nothing in the situation to warrant any such views.

The new law is being "tried out." The President feels that it is in the hands of a conservative body of men. It was at his request that Chairman Knapp came to Beverly today. Mr. Knapp left for Washington tonight. Mr. Taft was pleased to find that the Commission already had its plans

Ring-Side Officers All Named Yesterday-Train Loads of Fight Followers Arriving-Jeffries Appears Good to Fighters.

Reno, Nev., July 1.-With the appointment today of the time-keeper, sisting of the Postmaster General, the the list of the ring-side officers was completed for the Fourth of July fight torney General, which is to have between James J. Jeffries and John A. Johnson, on which rests the heavyweight championship of the world, The officers are:

Referee, Tex Rickard, of Nevada: alternate referee, Charles White, of New York; time-keeper, George F. Harting, of San Franisco; announcer, Billy Jordan, of San Francisco; stakeholder, "Tim" Sullivan, of New York; betting commissioner, Tom Corbett, of San Francisco.

Despite the persistence of rumors that Rickard does not intend actually to referee the contest, no tangible ground for the report could be discov ered today. Rickard himself denied emphatically that he had any intention of stepping down at the last minute in favor of the New Yorker. "I am the referee," he reiterated, and I am going to do the refereeing. Here Rickard reached into his pocket and produced a roll of bills. "Here eree the fight. That's how I feel about all except Jordan are on the ground.

Harting and Sullivan arrived today. "I have $50,000 of the purse money now in my hands," said Sullivan, "and the rest will be turned over to me tomorrow."

Rickard was at the station to meet Sullivan. After a brief conference the pair went to Jeffries' camp.

When the machine draw up in from of Jeffries' cottage the fighter came "Hello Tim," Jeffries said, extending his hand. "Hello," replied Sullivan. "I wish ou all kinds of luck, boy."

After a few moments of talk with Jeffries, Rickard and Sullivan whirled to Johnson's quarters. The greeting between Sullivan and Johnson was cordial. After an interchange of remarks Rickard and Sullivan hastened back to Reno.

look very big after all.

Jeffries' Training Camp, Moans Springs, Nev., July 1.-Jeffries held a levee today. He shook hands with some 200 men and nearly every one of the lot bears a name known to the sporting world from one end of the country to the other. The thronging adherents of the white champion passed before him as he stood in front of the moving picture machine. Among them John L. Sullivan, George Harting, Tommy Burns, Abe Attell, Sam Langford, Battling Nelson, Bill Lange and Hugh McIntosh were prominent. To each Jeffries extended his hand and to each he accorded a smile.

After the photographing was over Jeffries strolled apart with Abe Attell. The two were in conference for nearly an hour.

Abe Attell was in Jack O'Brien's corner when the latter met Jack Johnson in Philadelphia less than a year ago. The bamtam weight told the undefeated heavyweight today that O'Brien made Johnson "look foolish" on many occasions during that fight. He said that Jeffries should use the same method that O'Brien employed against the black fighter. He illustrated the blows he would have Jeffries deliver, and Jeffries watched with concentrated attention. After the talk, Abe declared that he was utterly taken by surprise at Jeffries' appearance. He said that he had been misled bp pictures of the former champion and before seeing Jeffrie in the flesh had thought Johnson a 2 to 1 favorite.

"Now," Abe declared, "I think there is nothing to it except Jeffries." Tommy Burns, from whom Johnson (Continued on Page Eight.)
