Raleigh at Wilson.
Wilmington at Goldboro.
Rocky Mount at Fayetteville.

With two men down in the ninth, Wilmington put two men across the rubber, and won the first game with the Railroaders yesterday, and the side was retired with the third still alive. Two singles and an error were the cause of the tables being turned so suddenly, the visitors having succeeded in getting a score in their half of the ninth which looked like clinching the victory.

Hanks held the opposition forces to five hits, while the Sailors plucked ten clean ones off Big Chief Thorpe. But for a couple of errors in the third inning, which resulted in two scores for the Railroaders, the score would have been one to four. The game was full of pepper from the beginning and was exciting to a nerve racking degree. There was nothing doing in the first with the exception of free transportation handed to Cooper, who died on second, but in the second chapter, Creagan led off with a single to center, while Schuman, who bunted, was safe on first. Gastmeyer and Phelan next up, retired the side by fanning, and skying respectively. In Wilmington's half Burke singled to left, Brooks flew to center and while Klutz was up Burke made second on wild pitch, Klutz expiring on first, second to first, while Burke made third. While Kite was at the bat, Burke scored on another wild pitch, and Kite flew to left. Rocky Mount went one better in the third, when Dussault, the first man up, went to second base on wild throw of Dubs to left, and scored when Big Chief hit to first for one station and stretched it another on error of Tydeman. Gillespie sacrificed, advancing Thorpe to third, Fergie singled to infield scoring Thorpe, and went to second on Stein's sacrifice, but Creagan was out third to first.

Wilmington was out in order in this inning as was Rocky Mount in the fourth. Brooks got a single in the last half, but did not get any farther. In the first half of the fifth Gillespie hit one to short, and stole second, but Fergie retired the side, pitcher to first.

Klutz started off with an infield hit to third, Mills running for him, Kite sacrificed him to second, and then short fumbled. Hanks being safe on first. Mills took first in place of Hanks, but was chased down between second and third when Dubs placed a single in right field. Cooper singled to left advancing Dubs to second, but Tydeman was out on foul fly to catcher. Three up, the side down, was Rocky Mount's fate in the sixth, while for the locals Burke was given first when he was hit by pitched ball, after Mills had ethered, but Brooks flew out to second and Burke was caught off first, second to first. Only nine pitched balls were required to retire the visitors in the seventh, when Fergie then sent one to left center for three cushions, and Stein took first on four balls, but Creagan dampened their spirits when he flew out to Klutz. In the other half, after Dubs had died at first, Cooper singled to center, and stole second, but Tydeman fanned for the third time, and Mills went out to second.

The Railroaders again got in the lead when Schuman was given a free conveyance to first, and was sacrificed to second by Gastmeyer. Phelan was out on first, but Dussault followed with a single to second, scoring Schuman. Thorpe then forced Dussault at second.

Then came the Mathewsonian finish in the locals' half. Burke couldn't find 'em, Brooks' dying gasp was on first, but Kandy Kid Klutz landed one safe in right garden, Mills taking his place to run; Kite hit safe to the infield and went to third when Gillespie couldn't put it to first, while Mills ambled home. Hanks next came up with a single to center and when Kite scored, the side was retired by the manager.

NO DISRUPTION OF LEAGUE

Change of Management for Raleigh Team and Schedule Will be Continued—Wilmington on a Firm Basis.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Raleigh, N. C., July 23.—Raleigh fans in mass meeting tonight determined to continue in the Eastern Carolina Baseball League, $900 being raised towards the $1,200 deficit of the old management, with assurances that the remainder will be forthcoming readily early in the week. An entirely new management takes over the team with W. H. Williamson, A. I. Cox, W. H. Bagley, J. V. Simms and Mr. R. G. Sherrill as directors. This action assures the continuance of the league for the remainder of the season.

The above telegram last night from the Star's Raleigh correspondent was received with enthusiasm by local fans. Like Raleigh, Wilmington has also experienced some troubles in financing her team, but several days ago five or six of the most devoted followers of the sport met and arranged to continue the team in the league, regardless of consequences. It was after receipt of the telegram above last night that these gentlemen would continue the Wilmington team on a firm basis and that the season would be completed. The Wilmington team leaves Monday to take up the schedule of games and will be strengthened as fast as the new management is able to connect with the proper material.

Kite got another hit in this inning, but it did not accomplish anything, and both sides were out in one, two, three order in the sixth. Phelan and Burke each got another hit in the seventh, but no one backed them up, and with this the game was over.
