TEDDY AND MAYOR UNABLE TO AGREE

Continued From Page One. usually called socialism, they will find them set out in such fashion that it is impossible to misinterpret or misunderstand them in the articles to which the mayor in his letter refers and I advise them to read the articles themselves and not what the mayor says of them.

The colonel said the fact that the city administration was not represented in the ceremonies did not trouble him. The Press Club's special publication "The Big Stick" especially disapproved the mayor's utterance, saying that "Mr. Roosevelt will understand that Milwaukee's welcome is none the less whole-hearted—hardly the less unanimous—because the mayor has seen fit to voice a socialistic dislike for the former head of the nation."

The original programme for the day included six speeches and visits to a dozen places. Col. Roosevelt looked it over, cast the programme aside and made out one for himself.

At the Boys' Trade School the colonel spent nearly an hour questioning the instructors and students about their work. He went through the place questioning boys who were learning plumbing, carpentering and engine making.

"It is important that each man should do a little more than pull his own weight in the world," he said, as the boys gathered around him.

"And it is of vital consequence to him to have him trained so that he can begin early instead of leaving him to be trained in a haphazard way. That is what this school is doing."

Then the colonel went to the girl's school. Around the walls of the sewing room were exhibits of the work done from simple aprons to thin and filmy lace covered, hand-embroidered things to manufacture which, the colonel was told, it takes a long course of training.

"I don't think a girl has really been educated unless she can do this work," said the colonel as he gazed on the samples held up for his inspection.

"Is it your view," he asked of the members of the school board who were with him, "that the public should provide education so that every boy and girl may be trained to be a self-sustaining unit of the body politic?"

He was told that that was the school board's idea. He replied: "By George, I think it is the only plan by which our democracy can grow."

Then Col. Roosevelt said he wanted to go to the Deutscher Club. As he mounted the steps of the club house the Germans sang "Lied Soll Er Leben."

From the club the colonel went to another luncheon at his hotel, after which he held a reception there. Then he was driven to White Fish Bay and met the Germans. The dinner was served at the Press Club.

Then the colonel went out to make his speech. He was scheduled originally to speak in the auditorium, but the building would hold only a part of the crowd which waited to hear him, and so another was engaged for an overflow meeting. Col. Roosevelt spoke at the overflow meeting first and then went to the auditorium.

SEARCH FOR NEGRO BRUTE.

Alleged to Have Attempted Assault Upon White Girl.

Whistler, Ala., Sept. 7.—Two hundred men are scouring the woods in the vicinity of Whistler tonight in search of a negro, who is alleged to have attempted to commit a criminal assault upon Miss Frances Williams, the 17-year-old daughter of Jack Williams, at her father's home.

The girl was alone in the house at 7:30 o'clock tonight when a negro appeared at the back door and asked for something to eat. When she turned to get food for the negro she was seized from behind and a pistol was pointed at her head. The girl's cries for assistance attracted neighbors to the house and the negro fled. News of the attempted assault spread rapidly and reached a maximum of 102 degrees. None of the prostrations proved fatal.

THE LOUISIANA PRIMARIES.

Congressmen Are Renominated Over Their Opponents.

New Orleans, Sept. 7.—Reports received up to 11 o'clock this morning practically remove all doubt concerning the return to Congress of Representatives John T. Watkins, of the Fourth district; Joseph E. Ransdell, of the Fifth, and A. P. Pajo, of the Seventh. These were the only representatives from Louisiana who had opposition in yesterday's Democratic primary.

Washington, Sept. 7.—No relief from the heat yesterday is promised for today. There were ten heat prostrations here yesterday, the thermometer having reached a maximum of 102 degrees. None of the prostrations proved fatal.

Brother Martin grew in earnestness and effectiveness till Friday night when he preached his last sermon, assisted the pastor in the ordination of 4 deacons and received, the farewell grasp of the audience that filled while the choir sang "God Be With You." Up to this time 33 had joined, 15 for baptism, 13 under the watch care and six by letter. Three others joined under the watch care Saturday night. By their fruits ye shall know them.

Brother Smith remained over until Sunday morning when he baptized the candidates and closed the meeting. Truly it was a great meeting, not only for the church but for the community.

PEACH, APPLE AND TOMATO.

These Crops Are Largest in History of Niagara Peninsula.

Washington, Sept. 7.—The peach, apple and tomato crops will be the largest in the history of Niagara Peninsula, according to Consul Webster at Niagara Falls, Canada.

Because of the failure of the apple crop in Great Britain, that country will be one of the biggest buyers of the Canadian product and commission houses abroad already are arranging for shipments to Liverpool, London and Glasgow.
