Chicago, Sept. 15.-The nomination and-neck race that Congressman Geo. sive opponents, as indicated in early returns, were features of today's primaries in Illinois.

The vote cast in the Congressional districts in Cook county (Chicago) was remarkably light, not more than a quarter of the vote on the registra tion books being polled. The down State vote; was much heavier.

Early returns indicated the nomination of Lee O'Neil Browne for reelection to the State House of Repre sentatives and also that of E. G. Shurt leff, Republican Speaker of the House, against whom a determined factional of wealth and political bosses. He fight was waged. Browne was recently acquitted of a charge of having bribed a State Representative to vote for William Lorimer for United States
