TELLS THE REBELS OF FUTURE PLANS

General Madero Bade Farewell to Troops Who Took Juarez Victory.

WILL "BUILD A NEW MEXICO"

Re-Distribution of the "Insurrecto Army of the North"—Troops Move to the Interior—End of the Revolt.

Juarez, Mexico, May 20.—Standing on the pedestal of a monument near which arose the smoky ruins of the recent battle, Francisco I. Madero, Jr., today bade farewell to his soldiers and told them of his plans, when he goes to Mexico City to modernize the government of the country and "build a new Mexico."

The occasion was the re-distribution of the "insurrecto army of the North," comprising the forces largely enlisted from Chihuahua State, which began the revolution and lived to enjoy the fruits of victory.

Fifteen hundred insurrectos tomorrow at daylight will leave for Casas Grandes, under command of General Pascual Orozco and Colonel Villar. More troops will leave for other parts of the interior and with the departure of the provisional government in a few days only 500 men under Colonel Jose Blanco will stand guard in Juarez.

Giuseppe Garibaldi, a grand son of the Italian liberator, also will leave soon after having been an active participant in the campaign which led to the fall at Juarez. At Casas Grandes the main body of the insurrecto will still remain under arms, possibly marching to Chihuahua City after President Diaz has resigned.

The movement of the insurrectos southward also is significant because it will remove from the United States border the main fighting strength of the revolutionists.

Indecision marked the status of peace parleys between the Federal government and the revolutionists to night, and though peace practically is accomplished fact, there were kaleidoscopic changes today in the plans for carrying out the principal demands of the rebels.

Late this afternoon Francisco I. Madero, Jr., received a telegram from President Diaz suggesting that some person in whom the former had confidence be sent to Mexico City to treat with Senor de LaBarra concerning the terms of peace. Senor Madero decided to appoint Alfredo Rodriguez Dominguez, who left here several days ago and is expected in the capital tomorrow.

COL. R. M. STALEY DEAD.

Passed Away From Apoplexy at Charlotte Yesterday.

Charlotte, N. C., May 20.—Colonel R. M. Staley, sergeant-at-arms of the State Senate for many years, and one of the State's best known citizens, died of apoplexy on the street here tonight, en route from a late train to his hotel. He was a resident of Wilkesboro and a man of some means acquired in the furniture manufacturing business. Colonel Staley served the Confederacy in the Civil War and won his title by courage on the battlefield. He was a man of unusual physical stature and strength. Col. Staley is survived by a widow, two daughters and a son. The daughters, Misses Frankie and Mabel, reside in Richmond, Va. He was 65 years old and never required the services of a physician in his long and active life.

EX-GOVERNOR AYCOCK ENTERS

Four Now Race for United States Senatorship—Letter to Col. Whitfield, of London, Setting Out His Position.

Asheville, N. C., May 20.—Making the fourth entry in the race for the senior Senatorship for North Carolina, ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock today announced his candidacy to succeed Senator Simmons. The ex-Governor's announcement is made in a letter to Col. Nathan Whitfield, of Kinston, this State. The other avowed candidates for the Senatorial nomination which will probably be made in State-wide primaries, are Senator Simmons, Governor Kitchin and Chief Justice Clark.

The Aycock Letter. Raleigh, N. C., May 20.—In entering the Senatorial race ex-Governor Aycock stipulates that he will not get into anything like a campaign for the primary nomination. He says his finances will not admit of it and that there is imperative necessity for him to pursue his profession as a lawyer with unabating energy. He merely expects next year to get into the campaign for the whole Democratic ticket and then at the polls if the people will do so they can give him their dominating vote for the senatorship and with the election by the Legislature, he will give his very best efforts for the whole people in the Senate.

Raleigh, N. C., May 20.—In entering the Senatorial race ex-Governor Aycock stipulates that he will not get into anything like a campaign for the primary nomination. He says his finances will not admit of it and that there is imperative necessity for him to pursue his profession as a lawyer with unabating energy. He merely expects next year to get into the campaign for the whole Democratic ticket and then at the polls if the people will do so they can give him their dominating vote for the senatorship and with the election by the Legislature, he will give his very best efforts for the whole people in the Senate.

Gov. Aycock's letter, which outlines his position as a candidate for a candidate for the Senate, is a candid and candidly stated. "Dear Sir,—I have given much consideration not only to your letter, but to the numerous letters which I have received along the same line. I have been greatly gratified to find that, without solicitation of expectation on my part, and in despite of my previous statement that I would not be a candidate for the Senate, great numbers of people from all callings in the State, have urged me by letter, by message and in person to reconsider the question and become a candidate. One who has been in public life and who has enjoyed the support and confidence of the people can never free himself from the obligation of giving due consideration to any call which the people make upon him. The requests from all parts of the State, and from people in all stations of life, have been so numerous and impressive as to lead me to the conclusion that it is my duty to say to the people, that if chosen by the Democratic party and elected by the Legislature, I shall be glad to serve North Carolina in the United States Senate.

"It is unnecessary for me to enunciate a personal platform, it being well known throughout the State that I have always stood on the National and State Democratic platforms without question, believing as I do that the assembled wisdom of the Democracy of the Nation and State is far greater than my own. I shall make no campaign looking to my selection for the Senatorship. My financial condition is such that it is absolutely essential that I pursue my profession as a lawyer with unabated energy until such time as the people shall lay other duties upon me. I have no money to spend perfecting an organization and if I had it I am convinced that the greatest evil of this day politically is the use of money in securing nominations and elections and I, therefore, would not use it if I were able to command a fund requisite for such purposes. In addition to this reason for refusing to attempt an organization in behalf of my candidacy I have a feeling that the Senatorship is worthless to me if secured by any such methods. If I shall go to the Senate I must go free from special obligation to any set of men, and, therefore, under equal obligation to every man. Going to the Senate in this way would put me in a position to give the people the highest service of which I am capable. I shall, therefore, entrust my candidacy without reservation to the people of the State, and shall not seek to shape their selection by organization or by personal appeals to them. I cannot under any circumstances enter into a canvass with a view to presenting to North Carolinians my own deserts. If I have any, they are known to the people of this State, and they know best whether whatever talent I have is likely to be useful to them. When the time comes for the opening of the political campaign I shall next year, as in all previous years heretofore, tender my services to the party organization to do battle in behalf of Democratic principles. The speeches which I shall then make will be made in the service of the Democratic party and without regard to their possible effect upon my personal interests. If at the end of the campaign, the people select and other candidate for the United States Senate, I shall cheerfully acquiesce in the result. Public service, when honestly rendered is the most difficult and painful of all service, and the satisfaction to be derived therefrom becomes manifest to one only after the service has been rendered in fidelity to the trusts of the people, and when in private life he can receive the just praise of his fellow citizens for faithfulness to their interests. I have served the people of this State once in high office and I have enjoyed since then the constant and increasing confidence of the people of North Carolina in the integrity of my purpose when Governor and

INTEREST CENTERS IN LAYMEN'S WORK

Interesting Talks Featured the Sessions of Presbyterian Assembly.

ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY NIGHT

Commemorates King James' Version of the Bible—Committee on Sabbath Observance Makes Report—Features.

Louisville, Ky., May 20.—Tonight's session of the General Assembly, of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, Southern, was given over to talks in the interest of the Laymen's Missionary Movement. The chief speaker was Rev. Charles H. Pratt, of Athens, Ga., secretary of the organization. No sessions will be held tomorrow. All the Presbyterian pulpits and many pulpits of other denominations of Louisville and New Albany, and Jeffersonville, Ind., across the river, will be filled tomorrow morning and night by commissioners of the General Assembly.

Sunday night a popular meeting will be held to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the King James' version of the Bible. This is an addition to the programme. A novel feature of the meeting will be that there will be only one speech, which will be delivered by four of the most prominent members of the General Assembly, each being allotted ten minutes, and taking up the subject in succession where his predecessor left off.

The question of the next place of meeting was apparently narrowed down to Bristol, Tenn., and Richmond, Va. If the latter is chosen it will be doubly honored by the 51st Assembly, setting the 52nd General Assembly, and the moderator, in the person of Dr. Russell Cecil.

In the later afternoon the Rev. E. E. Morris, D. D., of Atlanta, made a report of the work of the Western section of the Pan-Presbyterian Alliance, and Rev. J. R. Howerton, D. D., of Washington and Lee University, president of the council of reformed churches in the United States, made a report in which uniformity of work among negroes and co-operation of home missions were urged. He suggested a new series of text books be compiled and printed.

Disappointment was expressed that the Committee on Divorce and Marriage did not make a report as wide interest was centered in this matter. The report will be made at the next General Assembly.

The report of the permanent Committee on Sabbath Observance and Family Religion made today stated that the loss in Sabbath observance was given as Sunday papers, Sunday mails, Sunday theatres, excursions, influx of continental ideas, advent of automobiles, worldly pleasure, incessant work through the week and commercialism.

BIG MORTGAGE FILED.

Covers All Property of Southern Power Co., To Secure Bonds.

Durham, N. C., May 20.—What was in all probability the largest mortgage ever recorded in the history of Durham county, was filed this afternoon. It is a mortgage by the American Trust Company, of New York, on the property of the Southern Power Company, to secure that amount of five per cent. twenty-year gold bonds that the Southern Power Company has issued. The mortgage is on all the property owned by this big corporation and the law requires that the mortgage be recorded in every county in which any of the property is located. The Southern Power Company has recently completed a line of towers to this city and as soon as the wires are strung they will begin to distribute over the city.

AFTER TWELVE YEARS.

Durham County Man Arrested for Embezzlement in Wake County.

Durham, N. C., May 20.—Henry Ross, a white man, of Durham county, was brought here today and placed in jail after twelve years of freedom. Ross is charged with embezzlement. Twelve years ago he brought to town two bales of cotton for Dr. L. P. Sorrell, and sold them for $96.98. He no longer got the money into his possession than he took the first train and skipped for the West. Nothing had been heard of him until he was brought here by an officer from Wake county after spending that time in wandering around over the country, and spending part of the time with a circus. He will be given a hearing here Monday.

Cambridge, Mass., May 20.—A new world's inter-scholastic record for the one-mile run was established today at the Harvard inter-scholastic track meet by J. D. MacKenzie of 4:26 4-5. The former world's record was 4:28 2-5.

BOB COX FINALLY FREED

Perjury Indictment Against Political Leader—Came After Fight Before Fifteen Judges—Features.

Cincinnati, May 20.—George B. Cox, political boss and banker, indicted February 21, on the charge of perjury in connection with his testimony regarding the payment of county treasurer "gratuities," is, for the time being at least, a free man. After a fight in technicalities before 15 judges, including those of the Supreme Court of the State of Ohio, also involving swearing off the bench several judges because of bias for or against Cox, Judge Dickson today quashed the indictments against Cox because "nothing said by the accused at that time before the grand jury can be the predicate of any criminal charge against him by any indictment."

The several indictments on which Cox was before the courts charge that Cox, in testifying before a grand jury in 1906 declared that he had received none of the money paid by various banks to county treasurers as "gratuities" for the deposit of county funds in the institutions, the existence of these gratuities having been brought out before the Drake Investigating Committee of the State Legislature. Cox's nemesis in the form of Prosecutor Hunt declares he will appeal from the ruling Judge Dickson.

In an official statement which will be published tomorrow morning Geo. B. Cox announces his retirement from politics.

The Enquirer tomorrow will say: "Affirming his unalterable faith in Republican principle and leaders, Geo. B. Cox yesterday laid down the reins of leadership of the Republican party in Hamilton county, and possibly in the State of Ohio, required his resignation a commanding place in the councils of that party in the State of Ohio.

"Mr. Cox spurred by the conviction that the supremacy of the Republican party in Hamilton county, and possibly in the State of Ohio, required his resignation a commanding place in the councils of that party in the State of Ohio.

ARRAIGN NATION'S CAPITAL.

Presbyterian Committee Says Washington Has No Sunday Law.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 20.—The city of Washington received a severe arraignment at today's session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church. The report of the Sabbath Observance Committee said: "The capital of our country has no Sunday law and because of the city's prominence in our National life, should receive our first attention. On Sunday retail stores are open in many parts of the city, building operations and street repairs go on according to the will of the contractor, newspapers are published both morning and afternoon, and are cried out through the streets as on other days. Theatres and five and ten cent shows and saloons are in full blast.

"Social Sunday desecration has also very much increased in Washington within the past eight years. Dinners, receptions, teas, musicals and golf, abound, are elaborately announced in the papers and among the guests mentioned are constantly seen the names of people active and even prominent in church circles.

Sunday is a popular dinner and luncheon day on Washington society. Some Washingtonians place the blame for it on the diplomatic corps whose 'continental Sunday' is gaining ground with the smart set of Washington. Nearly every Sunday sees half a dozen smart breakfasts at the Chevy Chase Club, and an equal number of big dinner parties also match golf games under the supervision of the club."

RELIEF PROMISED FROM HEAT WAVE

The Weather Bureau Predicts Rain Throughout Southern States Today.

EXTREME HOT DISPELLED

Death Resulted From Warm Weather at Norfolk Yesterday—Rain Welcomed at Chicago—Prosperations—Details.

Washington, May 20.—Relief from the hot wave was promised by the Weather Bureau today throughout the country east of the Mississippi. It will come tonight in the Lake Region and in the Ohio and Mississippi valleys and on Sunday afternoon and night in the Middle Atlantic States, the interior South Atlantic and East Gulf States. Eastern New England, however, was promised warmer weather.

The extreme heat will be dispelled by unsettled weather with showers and thunder storms during the next 36 hours in the far eastern part of the country. This kind of weather was being experienced along the Great Lakes and the Mississippi and Missouri valleys today and the depression causing it was moving eastward toward the Atlantic coast.

Frosts were reported this morning in Wyoming and Western Colorado. One Death at Norfolk. Norfolk, Va., May 20.—The first death from the heat that has held this section in its grasp for the past week occurred today. Adams Ross, 52 years old, a carpenter, was prostrated while at work on a street in Queen street, and died at a hospital several hours later. He leaves a family.

Hugh Farrell, 16 years old, is in a critical condition following heat prostration. There were several other prostrations during the day. The thermometer registered 92 degrees, the highest in 30 years for May.

Relief in Chicago. Chicago, May 20.—Light showers during the afternoon and a heavy electrical storm just before sundown brought to end today the week of burning hot weather that has mowed down citizens in numbers previously unheard of at this time of the year. In addition the electrical storm, sweeping down from the Northwest, wrought havoc in telephone and telegraph wires.

First trouble to electrical wires was reported not many miles from Chicago, North and West, but later wires to the east began to give way, indicating that the electrical disturbance was moving across the North Central States toward the Atlantic seaboard.

DR. HILL ARRIVES HOME.

Resigned Ambassador to Germany—Gives No Reasons.

Berlin, May 20.—David Jayne Hill, the American ambassador, arrived here this evening. He was accompanied by his daughter and was met at the station by members of the embassy.

Dr. Hill had nothing to add to the reasons for his resignation given out in the United States. He expects to close his tenure of office with a visit to Kiel, while the American squadron is there after which his plans are indefinite.

The ambassador stated that, contrary to intimations from the German foreign office, he was not the bearer of the name of his successor where he was ignorant.

STUDEN FOUND DEAD.

Young Cadet at A. & M. College Dies of Heart Failure.

West Raleigh, N. C., May 20.—Adlai Holt Dixon, 18 years old, a member of the Work Course in Agriculture at the college, was found dead in bed this morning by his room-mate. Several days ago he was heard to complain of a pain in his side and this is believed to have been the cause of his death. This was his first year at the college but he had made many friends who held him in high esteem. He was a son of Mr. H. A. Dixon, of Haw River, Alamance county, N. C. His body will be sent home for burial this afternoon, a military escort going as far as the train.

Charles Noyes Tynall, rector. Delegates began coming on Friday and they continued to arrive in large numbers today. Over 200 are expected to be in attendance early in the week.

Several committee meetings were held during today in preparation for the business sessions on Monday. The Council organized tonight at 9 o'clock, Rt. Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., bishop of the Diocese, presiding. Quite a few clergy and a large number of delegates, with a large general congregation, were in attendance. Rev. TO END POTASH DISPUTE.

Contracts Between Americans and Germans Agreed Upon.

Hamburg, May 20.—The first stage in the settlement of the potash question has been concluded and the contracts between the American firms and the German syndicate, agreed upon at the conference here May 18th, were signed tonight.

The second and for the Americans, the more difficult stage, will begin on Monday, when negotiations will be opened at Berlin with the independent German mines whose contracts with Americans are responsible for the present German potash law. The super-contingent tax problem was not in the Hamburg negotiations because this tax affects only contracts concluded outside of the syndicate. It applies to these independent contracts which have several years to run.

The German contractors insist that the American firms are responsible for the tax and efforts will probably be made by the government and German syndicates to bring about a cancellation or modification of these contracts.

If it is found impossible there will likely be a legal battle to test the validity of the law.

An official statement given to the press says the contracts will run to the end of 1916. The price of concentrated salts will correspond with that provided by the potash law, but higher prices will be demanded on lower grades.

The contracts recognize the right of the syndicate to advance prices by a maximum of three per cent., in January, 1914, and another three per cent., in January, 1916. The American companies bind themselves to buy exclusively from the syndicate, the latter to use its good offices to secure a settlement between the Americans and the Aschersleben and Solitend mines regarding the payment of the super-contingent tax.

ATTACK ON PRESIDENT.

Made by President of Free Trade League at Annual Dinner.

Boston, Mass., May 20.—Addressing the members of the Free Trade League at their annual meeting and dinner tonight, Louis R. Ericks, of New York, president of the league, declared that a turning point had been reached in the annals of the American people when a President elected by the party which has stubbornly defended a policy of "commercial blockade," had negotiated a liberal trade agreement with Canada and "had the boldness to proclaim the fact that he had proposed to Canadian commissioners absolute freedom of trade."

New Orleans, May 20.—Grover Hayes, of Chicago, was given the decision over Freddie E. Galt, of Philadelphia, tonight in their ten round bout before the New Orleans Athletic Club. The referee stopped the fight at the beginning of the tenth round, giving the fight to the Chicago man, who had the better of the argument from the start.

FIRE CHIEF KILLS SELF.

Was Head of New Orleans Fire Department for Forty Years.

New Orleans, May 20.—Following an illness which had seized him several months ago, Thomas O'Connor, for the first forty years chief of the New Orleans fire department, fired a bullet into his brain at his home late today, dying a few minutes later. He was 72 years old. There were no witnesses to the shooting.

Although he had been under the constant care of a physician since an affliction of the heart overcame him a month ago, Chief O'Connor had sufficiently recovered to resume his duties at the head of the department after a short confinement to his home.

The dead chief was the oldest fire chief in the United States, both in point of service and of age. He became head of the New Orleans fire department in the Spring of 1869 and had served in that capacity ever since.

LEAPED FROM STEAMER.

Norfolk Man Committed Suicide While on Voyage.

Norfolk, Va., May 20.—George B. Todd, aged 42 years, president of the Todd Implement Company, of Norfolk, is supposed to have committed suicide by leaping from his state room window on the steamer Florida, while en route last night from Norfolk to Baltimore. He had just recovered from an eight-week's illness and was going to Jamestown, N. Y., for a brief rest. He is survived by a wife and three children.

Upon the arrival of the steamer Florida at Baltimore today, the chambermaid on starting to clean the room, which had been occupied by Mr. Todd, found it looked from the inside. When it was forced open the top clothing and a number of valuables belonging to Mr. Todd were found but the occupant was missing. The window was open.
