THE DARLINGTON CROSSING. Will be No Trouble Between A. C. L. and S. C. Western.

Editor "Morning Star," Wilmington, N. C. Dear Sir:-You published in your aper this morning what appears to te a telegraphic item from Darlington, South Carolina, in which you state that the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company has refused to permit the South Carolina Western Railroad Company to cross the track of the Atlantic Coast Line at Darlington, unless the South Carolina Western would pay the Coast Line $10,000.00 for the privilege. This statement is without foundation of fact, and I beg
