..Theatrical..

Mrs. J. J. Parrish and Amber Moors, of Chabocot, were among the guests at The Orton yesterday.

Miss Mary Lilly Fisher and Miss May Phelps, of Southport, were arrivals in the city yesterday, stopping at The Orton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Little are visiting at the home of Mrs. Little's mother at Asheville, who is reported to be quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Barney, of Fitchburg, Mass., are among the visitors in Wilmington and will be here for a few weeks.

Many friends will be delighted to know that Mrs. Cecil F. Angell has returned to Wilmington after a pleasant trip of two months in New York City and Long Island visiting relatives and friends. She will live at the Cape Fear Apartments the coming winter.

A lawn party will be given this afternoon under the auspices of the Philaetha Class of Grace M. E. Church, on the lawn of the residence of Mrs. C. W. Yates, No. 110 North Fourth street, for the children. The hours for the pleasant gathering will be from 4 to 6 o'clock and the public is invited. A number of pleasing features for the younger set have been arranged for the event. The proceeds will be for a charitable cause.

The last of the mission study class meetings, which have been in progress this week at St. James' Parish House, conducted by Miss Grace Lindley, will be held this morning at 11 o'clock. The classes under the able direction of Miss Lindley, who is here from New York city, have been well attended and have proven interesting and instructive. The ladies of the church are invited to attend the last study class today.

Friends have received handsomely engraved invitations bearing the following announcement: "The Rev. Luther Cromartie invites you to be present at the marriage of his daughter Hattie Custis to Mr. Daniel James Campbell, Jr., on Wednesday evening, November the first at half after eight o'clock Presbyterian Church, Clarkton, North Carolina."

Many Wilmington friends of the bride-elect, will be interested in the announcement of the approaching marriage of Miss Minnie Ottinger, of Quincy, Fla., and Mr. Morris A. Hartz, of Macon, Ga. Miss Ottinger has a host of friends here, having visited at the homes of Mrs. J. W. Solomon and Mrs. Adolph E. Holt, and for several months past has been a charming guest at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville Beach, where she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. A. Ottinger. Acquaintances will learn of the approaching marriage with much pleasure.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT MAXTON, N. C.
Maxton, N. C., Oct. 11.—A wedding of much interest and of unusual beauty occurred in the Presbyterian church tonight when Miss Mabel Wooten and Mr. Davis Houser were united in matrimony. Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., officiating. The church was beautiful in the elegant simplicity of its decorations of green ferns on white background with myriads of white candles in handsome candelabra. Before the ceremony Mrs. R. M. Williams and Miss Emma Belle MacRae sang in perfect voice, "Oh, Thy Dear Eyes," and "I Love These Truly." Then to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, beautifully rendered by Mrs. DeWitt McIver, came the little gate openers, McKoy McKinnon and John S. McRae, followed by little May Virginia McLean and Elizabeth Croom. Then the ushers, Dr. A. B. Croom, Dr. J. D. Croom, Sr., Dr. M. Gibson and Dr. Harris. These were followed by Miss Elizabeth McNair and Mr. Ernest Wooten; Mr. Ernest Wooten; Miss Lillian McNair and Dr. Roscoe McMillan and Miss Clarkie Bolle McNair and Mr. Lucy Williams, the bridesmaids all wearing gowns of white messaline and carrying pink chrysanthemums. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Branche Fore, of Richmond, elegantly gowned in Marquisette over pink messaline. She carried white chrysanthemums. Following her came the flower girls, little Frances Gibson and Laura Well everet with baskets of beautiful pink roses. Then the groom entered with his brother and the bride with her father. The ceremony as performed by Dr. Hill was unusually beautiful and impressive.

Miss Wooten is the youngest daughter of Maj. and Mrs. J. W. Wooten and belongs to one of the oldest and most prominent families of this section. She is quite popular in all circles here. The groom is a member of the firm of the Robeson Drug Co., has lived in Maxton for several years and has a high place in the esteem of all who know him. Mr. and Mrs. Houser left on the Seaboard train for points North. It is a great pleasure to their many friends here to know that they will make their home in Maxton.

MEET IN RICHMOND.
Annual Convention of Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways Association.
Several Wilmingtonians expect to attend the fourth annual convention of the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways Association, which will be held in Richmond, Va., October 17th to 20th, inclusive. Delegates from this State and States further south will meet the delegates from Philadelphia and other points north in Norfolk, Va., on October 16th, and the day will be spent in that bustling city as the guests of the people of Norfolk who are interested in waterways development. A fine programme has been arranged. The Philadelphia delegation will make the trip to Norfolk on a special steamer. After spending the day in Norfolk the delegates will go on to Richmond for the convention.

Any Wilmingtonians desiring to attend the convention as representatives of this city may obtain the proper credentials by applying to Mr. Jas. H. Chadbourne, or Mr. Meares Harris, president and secretary, respectively, of the North Carolina Waterways Association.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Sewerage Commission will be held this morning at 11 o'clock. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected and other business will be transacted. It is expected that the proposition of the city to purchase the existing sewerage system will be acted upon at this meeting.

Mr. P. E. Hoggard, foreman of the Wynnwood Lumber Co., underwent a very successful operation for appendicitis at the Wilmington Sanitarium yesterday. His friends will be glad to learn that he is doing very well indeed and will be out again in a short time.

Mexico City, Oct. 11.—Determined to know just why the Mexican government paid Gustavo Madero, a brother of the President-elect, $42,195 pesos, and what it has cost to muster out the Revolutionary forces, the Chamber of Deputies tonight called upon President De La Barra for an accounting.

Makes a Bad Cough Vanish Quickly--or Money Back
The Quickest, Surest Cough Remedy You Ever Used. Family Supply for 50c. Saves You $2.

You have never used anything which takes hold of a bad cough and conquers it so quickly as Pinex Cough Syrup. Gives almost instant relief and usually stops the most obstinate, deep-seated cough in 24 hours. Guaranteed to give prompt and positive results even in croup and whooping cough.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of Norway White Pine extract, rich in gualacol and other healing pine elements. A 50 cent bottle makes a pint—a family supply—of the best cough remedy that money can buy. At only 50c. Simply mix with home-made sugar syrup or strained honey, in a pint bottle, and it is ready for use. Easily prepared in 5 minutes—directions in package.

Children like Pinex Cough Syrup—it tastes good, and is a prompt, safe remedy for old or young. Stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative—both features. A handy household medicine for hoarseness, asthma, bronchitis, etc., and unusually effective for incipient lung troubles. Used in more homes in the U. S. and Canada than any other cough remedy.

Pinex has often been imitated, but never successfully, for nothing else will produce the same results. The genuine is guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. Certificate of guarantee is wrapped in each package. Your druggist has Pinex or will gladly get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

"The Girl in the Taxi" Tonight.
"The Girl in the Taxi," a hilarious melange of music, merriment and mountains of mirth, is announced for tonight at the Academy.

"The Girl in the Taxi" comes with an enviable record in this country and abroad. It scored a sensation in Paris and eclipsed all runs where long careers are common. In New York it was greeted as the funniest play Broadway had ever witnessed. In Chicago it played to capacity business for upwards of 250 nights. In Boston it broke all records for attendance and box office receipts and carried off high honors for length of engagement.

The story concerns the escapades of pretty Mignon, wife of a perfume manufacturer, and the efforts of Bertie Stewart to keep an appointment with her for a midnight supper at the Cafe Churchill. Papa Stewart, Bertie's father, while posing as the possessor of all the domestic virtues, goes away to the same restaurant to meet a couple of chorus girls. Bertie's cousin from Philadelphia, Percy by name, who has come to New York for throat treatment by a physician who practices chiefly among girls at the stage, turns up at the same dining room to keep an appointment with a vaudeville artist. Father, son and nephew meet under rather embarrassing and laughable conditions and confusion runs rampant. The third act unearls the mix-ups in a way least expected and all the guilty parties swear, with hands upraised, that it will never occur again.

A cast of unexcelled comedians present "The Girl in the Taxi," which contains just enough dancing, singing and music to relieve the rapid-fire pace maintained by the numberless complications which crowd the play from curtain to curtain. Seats are now selling.

Matinee and Night Saturday.
George Barr McCutcheon's popular romance, "Graustark," in play form, will be presented at the Academy Saturday matinee and night.

This attraction comes with the stamp of approval of New York, Chicago, Pittsburg and other cities. It is a romantic drama of the latest pattern, embracing love episodes, thrilling situations and startling climaxes, with a pure vein of delightful humor interwoven in its marvelous plot. Mr. McCutcheon's style is somewhat different from that of other authors; he is distinctly original using methods and phraseology that are all his own, therefore, his stories are always interesting and refreshing. "Graustark" is the book that made him famous and is considered his master piece and it is safe to assert that it is the most widely read of any of our latter-day popular books.

Seats will go on sale tomorrow. The prices will range to $1.50 for night, but this highest price will only apply to box seats. The matinee has a popular price one—25 and 50 cents.

"The Winning Widow."
"The Winning Widow," the musical comedy hit, comes to the Academy next Tuesday night. It has more song hits in its score than any musical play now before the public. At least this is the testimony given by all the large music dealers throughout the United States. A few of the hits are: "The Winning Widow Am I," "The Light that Lies in Woman's Eyes," "Don't Get Peevish Pet," "Why Don't You Come in for a Splash," "There's Something Awfully Cute About a Soldier," "Never Get Cross With a Girl," "I Love You," "What Would We Do Without the Moon." Max Spiegel has engaged a company of 40 people, which includes a chorus of the most beautiful women ever seen in a musical entertainment.

At the Grand
The Grand will have an unusually attractive bill today and one that attracts the crowds. The wonderful Biograph, "Italian Blood" will be a leading film and will illustrate most graphically what might have been the result of indifference. A Vitagraph, "The Mate of the John M.," will tell a story of the sea, of a shipwreck and a love that was separated for the once and brought together again. Both are high class and expensive offerings and are sure to please all patrons. Nat Hill will sing "Down in Sunny, Honey Town." This will be illustrated and will be a scream from start to finish.

The new Lyric.
There will be an entire change of programme at the Market street playhouse today, the entire list of vaudeville people putting on a new stunt with all new pictures and new songs. The LaCelles will introduce their original farce comedy "The Human Incubator," that is one continuous scream from start to finish, being constructed and composed for laughing purposes only. They will be followed by Junius and Farleigh in a new comedy skit and this is their best number. The feature film will be "The Code of Honor," a thrilling drama, followed by a big Essanay. The admission remains 5c and 10c.

NEW JAP. AMBASSADOR.
Viscount Chinda Coming to Washington From Berlin.
Berlin, Oct. 11.—It is reported that the Japanese ambassador to Germany, Viscount Chinda, will be transferred in February to Washington, to succeed Viscount Uchida, who has returned to Tokyo to assume the post of minister of foreign affairs.

Enjuro Yamana, counsellor of the Japanese Embassy at London, will, it is said, succeed Chinda here. Viscount Chinda was educated in the United States.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 11.—With President Tait Butler, of Mississippi, presiding, the thirteenth annual convention of the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers began here today. Eleven Southern States, the District of Columbia and England are represented by commissioners of agriculture and other workers. The visitors were welcomed by Governor B. W. Hooper, Commissioner H. E. Blakeslee, of Mississippi, replying.

Coffee Goodness Proven by a Century of Use

There is something wonderfully satisfying and fascinating about this coffee blend that has been in daily use for over a century. Something far different from ordinary coffees. This is the coffee that was served in the quaint French Market, New Orleans, to society belles and beaux of the olden time. And that was so liked by Andrew Jackson, Henry Clay and other famous men. It is today the same identical, deliciously aromatic blend that was famous over a hundred years ago.

Then you could get this coffee with a history—the real
