Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at which the bride and groom received the felicitations and best wishes of many friends. Refreshments were served. The home was most attractively decorated for the event. Mr. and Mrs. Walton will live at No. 312 South Fourth street. Mr. Walton is engaged in the grocery business at Seventh and Orange streets.

MR. CROWNSTREAM WRITES.

Northeast River Bridge Discussed Some More—The Locations. Mr. Editor:—I have read about the New Hanover County Commissioners' "rag-chewing" yesterday and I for one am not surprised. I have had an idea all along that something would turn up to either delay the building of the Northeast river bridge or to cause it to be built at Blossom's Ferry, therefore, I have delayed writing a card thanking the honorable men who stood up for the rights of the farmers who will have to use the bridge.

About the ferry rights of Sam Blossom, I think both counties ought to pay him for his rights, ferry flats and all other appurtenances thereunto belonging to him, whatever is just and fair. I do not think it is just right to cause thousands of people to risk their lives crossing railroad tracks and travel out of their way for the sake of gratifying the whims of one or two persons, who as a matter of fact obtained these so-called rights from the people. Does New Hanover county belong to one or two men? Who owns Northeast river?

I noticed that Mr. McEachern states that he voted for what he considered the best interests of the county. That is his duty, but is he not mistaken in his idea of what would serve the interests of the people? Is it for the best interests of New Hanover county to force farmers to haul produce by the longest route whenever they wish to bring it here, and furthermore, give them the opportunity to risk their lives on their return home? I refer to those two railroad crossings that they would have to cross in case the bridge is built to Blossom's Ferry, while if it is built where the people want it, then it will be a straight road and no railroad crossings until they reach 10th street, which they would have to cross anyway.

The three commissioners of Pender county voted for the Hungry Bluff location and they expressed the will of the people of Pender county. I have been, and am yet, blaming Mr. Armstrong for failing to properly attend to his official duties, but I am willing to give the devil his dues, to use a common expression. Mr. Armstrong, together with those other good men, expressed the will of the people of Pender.

What kind of people are we anyhow? When we have a man to work for us we never fail to see that he does his work in a satisfactory way, otherwise we give him the chance to get a new boss, but when we have a few cheap politicians we doff our hats to them and call them "Honorable" when the word dishonorable would fit much better.

The President of the United States cannot, according to an unwritten law, be elected more than twice. I have been told that the keeper of the New Hanover county poorhouse is not allowed to keep his office more than two years. If that is a fact, why do we keep some people here in this county office for such a length of time that the county seemingly belongs to them? Why don't we give some of these old-timers a resting spell and give some new man an opportunity to show what he can do? I think there is room for improvement.

We have some able county officials. Take our sheriff, for instance, Mr. Cowan is a fearless, conscientious gentleman, and he is an honor to New Hanover county. Then there is our old friend, John Haar. He is as accommodating as it is possible for him to be. He is not forgetful to mention Woodus Kellum, Esq., our able representative in the last Legislature. He is a gentleman, every inch of him, rose from an humble condition, studied law while earning his living and is a self-made man, the friend of the poor and humble.

We have certainly too few Cowans, Haars and Kellums in office in North Carolina, until we learn to put such men in office and keep out the refined vagrants, we will do as we are now doing—standing still.

For the benefit of those who live in Wilmington and visit lady friends at Castle Haynes I wish to state that regarding the bridge the plan to put the bridge the distance from Wilmington to Castle Haynes will remain the same. I hope that the County Commissioners of Pender county will stand firm and determined in their choice of location, and that they will not even submit to the expenditure of one penny to build it at the other place. Of course, the bridge should be built as cheaply as possible, but take everything into consideration.

Thanking you for your kindness in publishing this, I remain, as usual, yours, WM. CROWNSTREAM, Wilmington, N. C., Jan. 3, 1912. (Pender Chronicle please copy.)

THREE GAMES LAST NIGHT.

Brigade Boys Defeated the High School—Fine Contest. Members of Company C, Boys' Brigade, played the first two games of the second series yesterday afternoon at the armory and both contests were fast and well-played, showing a marked improvement in the play of the youngsters which promises well for a strong team to represent the Brigade in its games later in the year with teams of other institutions.

The first game was between the teams of Captains Grant Dickerson and Arthur Bell, the former winning by the score of 21 to 10. The features of the contest were the all-round playing of the Dickerson followers, the good throwing of Munroe and Dickerson and the guard work of Register, Sauter and Costin. Capt. Bell's aggression took the second game from Capt. Palmgren's quintette by a score of 26 to 10, the good throwing of Fergus and Snakenburg and the guard work of Futtrell and Huband featuring. The next games will be played Friday afternoon when Bell will meet Dickerson and Palmgren will play Beach.

Despite the inclemency of the weather a large crowd witnessed the game at the armory last night when the High School team went down in defeat before the Company B team to the score of 48 to 24 in their annual game. While the score was rather one-sided, the game was replete with brilliant plays by both teams and was interesting from start to finish. C. Burnett, C. Shepard, Morrison and Sholar scored the points for the High School lads and H. Register, Cameron, Dixon and Branch for the Brigade. Fouls were rather numerous in the first half, but both teams settled down in the second period and the work was better.

It is probable that the Kingston High School team will come to Wilmington next week, when it will play the local High School team on Friday night at the Y. M. C. A., and the Brigade boys Saturday night at the armory. The regular Friday night schedule will be resumed at the Brigade tomorrow night when the Athletics will play the Pirates and the Tigers face the Giants.

Another Meet Probable.

Mr. R. A. Fancullini, representative of Mr. Walter R. Brookins, the aviator, who gave an exhibition in his airplane here Tuesday, left yesterday afternoon for Jacksonville, Fla., where he will complete arrangements for a contest to be made there Saturday by Mr. Brookins. From Jacksonville Mr. Fancullini and Mr. Brookins will go to Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend the winter. Mr. Fancullini said that possibly he would return to Wilmington some time later and put on another meet here.

LOCAL DOTS.

Sheriff S. P. Cowan asks that storekeepers, public ferrymen and license tax is now due and must be paid.

By deed filed for record yesterday J. W. Yates, trustee, transfers to Thos. Merrick and wife, for $10 and other considerations, lot on southwest corner of 11th and Orange streets, 33x 84 feet in size.

"Coon" Brown, colored, who is already well, if not favorably, known in police circles, was arrested yesterday morning on a charge of larceny. His case was continued in the Recorder's court yesterday.

Dancy Lewis, colored, is being held at the police station under suspicion. The negro was arrested yesterday morning charged with an attempt to break into a house on 11th street, but the police believe that he can work up a case of house-breaking against him.

In Justice Harris' court Tuesday afternoon the case against Mr. J. D. Sidbury, of East Wilmington, charging him with false pretense, was dismissed. B. G. Empe, Esq., appeared for the defendant R. F. Brooks, Esq., was the prosecutor and he claimed false pretense in connection with the failure of Sidbury to pay him a $25 fee for legal services.

THE PLUMBING SITUATION.

Only One Development in Strike Yesterday—Both Sides Firm. Aside from the fact that 12 of the striking plumbers issued a notice that they would accept work from the public, there was no other development in the local plumbers strike yesterday. Both sides are standing firm and declare that they will hold out for what they believe is right.

Twelve plumbers are out and about the same number of helpers and the plumbers issued a notice yesterday that they stand ready to answer any call when their services may be needed. They are prepared to handle all classes of work and will appreciate any work that the public may see fit to give them. They stated that they would establish permanent headquarters within the next few days, unless an agreement is reached with the Master Plumbers in the meantime. The Master Plumbers viewed the move of the men with some skepticism yesterday, professing to believe that it was only an effort to force them to accede to the demands of the strikers. One of them stated last night that they are in position to fill all orders and that they have applications from a number of outside men who are ready to come to work here at a moment's notice. He stated that unless a settlement was reached within a few days the Master Plumbers would likely call in outside help to fill the places of the striking men and that they would go on with their business as heretofore. The Master Plumbers, he said, are still determined not to grant the demand of the striking men for higher pay and shorter hours.

FUNERAL OF MRS. COLLINS.

Services Held Yesterday Afternoon From Family Residence. Attended by a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives the funeral of Mrs. C. E. Collins, whose death occurred Tuesday morning at the family home, No. 314 Queen street, was held from the residence yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Collins was a devoted member for many years, conducted the services, following which the remains were borne to Bellevue cemetery, where the interment was made in the family plot. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. C. Fergus, E. P. H. Strunk, J. W. H. Fuchs, M. O. Alexander, B. T. Hopkins and Dr. C. P. Bolles. A number of handsome floral designs bore silent testimony of the love and esteem in which the deceased had been held by all who knew her.

Theatrical.

Comedy most delightful, of that type that is fast and furious and yet wholesome and dainty, was furnished by the Four Picketers and their excellent company last night, and scored another big triumph for them in the hearts of the people. The comedy, "The French Ball," was something new to the Academy stage as in fact season—and it caused those present to have a huge evening for fun. The presentation was well made. Between acts another new line of specialties was introduced, headed by still another new and elaborate dancing act by the Picketers themselves.

Tonight the company will present one of its biggest successes in "The Boss of L'Anch," which is a Western drama of heart interest, and not of melodramatic luridness. It is on the order of "The Girl of the Golden West" and it's a big success. The company will give a fine presentation of the bill, and a big and grand programme of vaudeville will be offered.

Tomorrow night (Friday) the company will be seen in "The Silent Witness," while its last matinee of its present engagement will take place Saturday afternoon, when the prices will be 10 and 20 cents.

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," a play which may be said to be a fit example of the simple life, lived humorously, comes to the Academy next Saturday night, and will be presented by practically the same cast as last season. It needs no introduction or recommendation to local amusement lovers, and like the book of which it is an excellent dramatization, the play may well be set down as a tonic for the low-spirited and despondent, a new inspiration to the strong and a positive delight to all. It has been said that "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" as a play has sufficiently of heart interest and a sufficient number of distinct types to supply half a dozen monthly auditions, and the fame and fortune of each Lieber & Co., have certainly done their part in giving it an elaborate and realistic production, and have provided a cast of exceptional merit, including such pronounced favorites as Blanche Chapman for the title role, Minnie Miller for Miss Hazy, and Thomas Aiken for Hiram Stubbins. These three characters are reckoned the most prominent, but they are by no means the only interesting and entertaining personalities of the play, which from the first act to the last is humorous in incidents, sentimental episodes and side-splitting situations.

Seats for "The Cabbage Patch" will go on sale at Plummer's Saturday.

At The Grand. The Grand Theatre today will offer two big theatricals, the first of which is bound to interest and please the large audiences that are now coming to be quite the fashion at this popular playhouse. One of these films will be a Pathé Western drama, "Poisoned Arrows," while on the same reel will be "French Curiousities, Maneyars," an interesting film of army life. While both these pictures will be features, there will be one other big offering in a Lubin of "My Brother Agostino," a story full of startling and unusual features. GOES WITH A. C. L.

Mr. W. R. Appleybury May Give Up Position on Police Force. Mr. W. R. Appleybury, who has been a member of the police department for a number of years and regarded as one of the best officers on the force as well as "the handsomest," has practically given up his position in order to accept the position of officer in charge of the Atlantic Coast Line pay train, which position has just been created. Mr. Appleybury was granted a leave of absence by Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, and will give his new position a trial before handing in his resignation. Members of the force learned with regret of the intention of Mr. Appleybury, who has a splendid record as an officer.

Mr. Appleybury was an aspirant for the position of sergeant to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Chas. S. Burnett some weeks ago and his resignation would eliminate him from that contest, leaving only two avowed aspirants, Mr. W. C. Moore, who is next man in order for the position in point of seniority of service, and Mr. Joe S. Lane, who is at present Hall Officer, where he has been of great service to Chief Fowler. Both have strong friends who have been presenting their claims to promote Mr. Appleybury, but it is possible that the vacancy will be filled some time within the next week or ten days.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN. Mass Meeting at Boy's Brigade Sunday—Rev. Dr. Snyder Speaker. Much interest is being shown in the preparations for the mass meeting for boys and women to be held at the Boy's Brigade next Sunday afternoon, and it is expected that the attendance will be large. A really helpful and interesting speaker has been secured for this occasion in the person of Rev. Dr. W. A. Snyder, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Mr. Snyder is considered one of the most earnest preachers of the Gospel in the city and his remarks will be heard with much interest.

The musical programme will be furnished by the excellent choir from St. Paul's Church, under the leadership of Mr. J. H. Rehder. Mrs. H. Schalk will preside at the piano. A splendid meeting will no doubt result from the efforts of the speaker and the musicians.
