CONGRESS ALMOST IN ECLIPSE.

Few Meetings May Endanger the Annual Appropriation Bills. Washington, June 16.—Congress will be in almost a total eclipse during the next fortnight. The Senate, perfunctorily meeting a few minutes every third day, will transact no business. The House may pass the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill tomorrow.

The delay of enactment of a dozen annual appropriation bills, which provide for the operation of the government, will make it necessary for both houses to pass a concurent resolution about July 1st, continuing the present supply bills into the next fiscal year for a brief period, with probable later extensions of the period. The last similar embarrassing situation was in the 53rd Congress, almost 20 years

-forfarfarfarfarfa ofarfarfarfa afarfarfarfarfarfarfarfarfarfar WHO IS L. B. HALE?

When Mr. A. D. Watts left Washington and came North Carolina to enter politics he resigned his clerkship to Senator Simmons' committee and ceased to draw a salary from the government.

To know how little importance may be attached to Mr. L. B. Hale's letter in The Star Sunday it is only necessary to know who he is. and the following card published in Fayetteville explains this:

'Mr. Godwin's friends are using the argument that the nomination of Mr. Sinclair would cause Mr. L. B. Hale to lose a little clerkship in Washington.

"Is Cumberland to give up the tremendous advantage of having a Congressman to keep a Fayetteville man in a little sinecure clerkship? Have Mr. Godwin's managers found him such a weak candidate in Cumberland that they have decided to drop him and run Louis Hale against Sinclair? With Sinclair in Congress every one knows that he would make good there as he has done as Solicitor and the county and city would reap the benefit. What benefit does the county derive by having Hale in the clerkship? Mr. Godwin is chairman of the Committee on Reform in the Civil Service, and Mr. Hale is clerk to that committee. That committee has not made one single report to Congress since Mr. Godwin has been its chairman, and probably will not, as Mr. Hale has not rendered any service since March. For three months he has been away from his post of duty, with Mr. Godwin's consent, working politics for Mr. Godwin in North Carolina, and all that time drawing pay from the peoples' money in the Treasury at the rate of $6 per day, including Sundays.
"That is reforming the Civil Service with a vengeance! Which will be worth more to Hale, clerk of a committee that has nothing to report and that does not even require his services or presence, drawing $6 per day of the peoples' money, or Sinclair in Congress where he will make good as he has everywhere else, and will see that our people get what they want, and the Taft bureau. As he entered the hotel lobby, el bowing his way through the crowd some one shouted: "Hurrah for Bry an!" and the Nebraskan was given a uemonstrative welcome.

He was cheered for several minutes and continuous cries of "Speech! speech!" came from all parts of the lobby. Mr. Bryan waved his hand to the crowd and remarked to those near
