It seems probable, however, that Turkey was prompted chiefly by a desire to gain time in view of the superiority of the Greek fleet in the Aegean Sea. Turkey also, at the last moment, offered to send a new minister to Athens-one more acceptable than Mukhtar Bey-but this effort likewise proved futile.

Turkey Gets Some Concessions Ouchy, Switzerland, Oct. 18 .- The final draft of the treaty of peace between Turkey and Italy was signed at half past three o'clock this afternoon. Not only have Turkish susceptibilities carefully been safeguarded in the text, but the Ottoman plenipotentiaries have succeeded in obtaining from Italy concessions regarding capitulations (judicial jurisdiction over Moslems) and customs duties, as well as a disguised indemnity.

Upon these concessions Turkey de-Tripoli and Cyrenaica, without even to assume sovereignty over them.
