

THE WEATHER.

Cloudy, warmer today; rain tonight and Friday.

THE MORNING STAR

WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY MORNING, JANUARY 23, 1913.

ADVERTISING PAYS.

The new Parcel Post opens up a wonderful territory to Wilmington merchants in all this section of the Carolina. We cover this territory like the morning dew.

VOL. XXI—NO. 102.

WHOLE NUMBER 13,228.

TURKEY BOWS TO WILL OF POWERS

Grand Council Accepts Bitter Fate That Ends Empire in Europe

ONE CRUCIAL POINT REMAINS

Question of Indemnity is Expected to Delay Peace for Few Weeks—Balkan Allies Will Ask for $200,000,000.

London, Jan. 22.—Plenipotentiaries of the Balkan kingdoms are immensely pleased over the decision of the grand council at Constantinople to accept the advice of the powers. While it had become increasingly certain in the past 48 hours that the Turkish elder statesmen were prepared to face the bitter fate that ends the empire's history as an European nation, it was hardly expected they would register their decision so quickly and so definitely.

This is so unlike the customary Turkish way that it is thought Turkey might still have cards up her sleeve. The Porte's reply to the joint note of the powers will be handed to the ambassadors tomorrow, however, and the remainder of the negotiations leading to the signing of the peace treaty, are expected to be an anti-climax.

One crucial point of difference remains to be settled in the question of indemnity. The allies propose to levy a heavy payment upon the defeated Nation. They speak of $200,000,000 as an adequate sum. Their minimum is an amount equal to the Turkish debts attached to the territories which they will annex under the treaty.

The Turks are likely to contest the indemnity strongly, and the bankrupt condition of their country furnishes them with a potent argument for an appeal to the powers. Negotiations over the settlement of minor questions and for the taking over of the considerable time and it will be some weeks before the treaty is signed. M. Novakovich, the ex-premier of Serbia, said tonight: "The Turks seem finally to have recognized the faculty of reason, but why today instead of six weeks ago, as they must pay that our four armies have been costing all this time? We have not yet set down figures for indemnity, but we have practically decided on what basis it is to be calculated and how it is to be divided among the allies."

N. C. TEXTILE MEN ATTEND HEARINGS

Stuart W. Cramer and R. M. Miller, Jr., Suggest Cotton Rates

TARIFF WILL LIKELY BE CUT

Democratic Members of Ways and Means Committee Believe Rates in Last Year's Bill More Fairly Competitive

Washington, January 22.—The tariff on cotton manufactures may be cut to a minimum ad valorem as low as 5 per cent, the minimum under the Underwood bill that was pressed by the Democrats in the House in 1911 and 1912, and that so far stands as the tentative basis of the Democratic cotton revision programme.

This was the development today after the Ways and Means Committee had heard witnesses representing both the Southern and Northern cotton industry. The committee room was crowded all day with manufacturers, importers and other interested in the revision which the Democratic leaders contend the burden resting upon the people because of the cost of cotton clothing, will be reduced by more than $80,000,000.

The American Association of Cotton Manufacturers, dominated by the Southern mill owners, went on record for a compromise reduction. In a schedule, presented by its former president, Lewis W. Parker, of Greenville, S. C., who was accompanied by a committee of the association, rates were proposed that dropped the minimum ad valorem to 10 per cent.

Members of the committee favor cutting the cotton manufactures rates by as low as these lower figures suggested and some of the committee are insistent upon as low as 5 per cent on common cotton cloth such as calico, sheeting and plain weaves. The Northern manufacturers took issue with the suggested reduction, though conceding that they might be able to stand on their profits.

REPUBLICANS WILL VISIT GOV. WILSON

Congressman Kent Will Be First to Confer With President-Elect.

MANY CABINET SUGGESTIONS

Numerous Persons Are Urged for Various Portfolios—Governor Makes Second Move Towards Corporation Reform.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 22.—The first progressive Republican to confer with President-elect Wilson will be Representative Kent, of California, who has an engagement with the Governor here.

Mr. Kent is the first man outside of the ranks of the Democratic party to call on the Governor since the latter made his speech announcing that he intended to surround himself with "Progressives" and only "Progressives" in his administration. It is believed that in view of the friendly expressions that have been coming to the President-elect from progressive Republican members of Congress of late, that more visits are likely hereafter from individuals from the latter class.

Major John S. Cohen, vice president of the Atlanta Journal Company, (Continued on Page Eight.)

HELEN GOULD WEDS FINLEY J. SHEPARD

Less Than 100 Persons See Beautiful Ceremony at Lyndhurst.

GIFTS FROM ALL THE WORLD

Bride Receives Robe of Pearls Which Once Adorned the Empress Josephine—Marion a Bowler of Flowers.

Tarrytown, N. Y., January 22.—Miss Helen Miller Gould was married at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon at Lyndhurst, her country estate, to Finley Johnson Shepard, an American railroad man, who has risen from the ranks. The bride went to an altar half hidden by roses, asparagus ferns and palms, on the arm of her brother, George J. Gould, who gave her in marriage. An orchestra, screened by masses of flowers in the music room, played the Lohengrin wedding march, while Rev. Daniel D. Russell, pastor of the Irvington Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

The couple stood during the ceremony beneath a bower of American Beauty roses, with festoons of gray-white asparagus ferns reaching almost to the ground.

The bride carried a modest bouquet of lilies of the valley, her favorite flower. A rope of exquisite pearls, said once to have adorned the Empress Josephine, and a pear-shaped diamond pendant, the latter the bridegroom's gift, were the only jewelry worn by the bride. The pearls were a bequest from Miss Gould's mother.

Less than 100 persons were invited to the ceremony. They included close relatives of the bride and bridegroom and friends of long standing. Among the relatives were Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Kingdon Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, Jr., George Jay Gould, Jr., the Misses Edith and Gloria Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould, and their sons, Edwin and Frank; Duke and Duchess De Lyndhurst and their son, the little Prince de Sagan; Howard Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jay (Continued on Page Two.)

TITLED GUESTS AT GOULD WEDDING.

(Copyright by International News Service.)

Duc de Sagan, second and present husband of Anna Gould, and their three and one-half year-old son, Prince Helle de Sagan, who attended the wedding yesterday of their relative, Miss Helen Gould, sister of the duchess, to Finley J. Shepard, the St. Louis railroad man.

WILL EXAMINE ROCKEFELLER

Money Trust Committee Goes Against Pujo's Wishes and Refuses to Alter Decision to Get Millionaire's Testimony.

Washington, Jan. 22.—An attempt to alter the Money Trust Committee's decision to insist upon an examination of William Rockefeller, despite his physical condition, was defeated today in a rather stormy session of the committee. Against the wishes of Chairman Pujo, the committee reiterated its decision directing him and Samuel Untermyer, counsel, to make arrangements for Mr. Rockefeller's examination.

Chairman Pujo announced after the executive session that he would arrange with the counsel for Mr. Rockefeller and endeavor to make the examination as soon as the committee concludes its oral hearings. He said he would probably visit Mr. Rockefeller with Mr. Untermyer next week. Mr. Rockefeller is now at Palm Beach, Fla.

The incident was re-opened by the appearance of Dr. Walter F. Chappell, personal physician to Mr. Rockefeller, who verified his affidavit setting forth that an examination of his patient might cause serious physical results. He described at length Mr. Rockefeller's ailments. Dr. Chappell's appearance came as a surprise to members of the committee and his testimony was interrupted by a vigorous whispered conference which ended in Chairman Pujo offering to allow any member of the committee to question the witness and in the calling of an executive session at the close of the hearing. After the executive meeting, counsel for Mr. Rockefeller were notified of the committee's decision.

WAS IN A STEEL RAIL POOL

Government Secures First Evidence in Support of Allegation That U. S. Steel Corporation Was a Participant

New York, January 22.—William Ellis Corey, former president of the United States Steel Corporation, a witness today in the Federal suit to dissolve the corporation, furnished the government with the first testimony it has been able to obtain in support of its allegation that the corporation participated in an international steel rail pool.

Mr. Corey followed Theodore Roosevelt on the stand, after the latter had repeated his testimony given before the Stanley Steel Investigating Committee concerning acquisition of the Tennessee Coal & Iron Company by the corporation during the panic of 1907.

Mr. Corey testified in a room in a downtown office building. He said that as late as 1910 an understanding had existed with foreign rail manufacturers under which the Steel Corporation agreed not to compete with them in their countries and foreign manufacturers in turn agreed not to seek business in the United States.

LEVER CAR AND AUTO CRASH.

Col. J. J. Crosswell Seriously Injured; Roadmaster Beasley Hurt.

Fayetteville, N. C., January 22.—Col. J. J. Crosswell, of this city, route agent of the Southern Express Co., was seriously hurt, suffering a broken arm, a broken leg and other injuries, and A. C. L. Roadmaster S. M. Beasley, of the Fayetteville district, was more or less injured when a lever car upon which they were riding was in collision with an automobile at a grade crossing between Parkton and Hope Mills, this afternoon. A negro on the car was also injured. Col. Crosswell and Capt. Beasley were rushed to a hospital here, where they are doing as well as could be expected. It was not learned to whom the automobile belonged, other than that it was from Hope Mills. It was also not learned as to whether anyone in the automobile was injured. Both Col. Crosswell and Mr. Beasley are highly esteemed in this section of the State, and much regret is expressed.

Raleigh, N. C., January 23.—Rushed from the scene of a collision on a special train, J. J. Crosswell, of Fayetteville, route agent of the Southern Express Company, his right leg broken between the ankle and knee, is in a hospital at Fayetteville. Crosswell was with S. M. Beasley, roadmaster on the Atlantic Coast Line, in the latter's motor inspection car which collided with an automobile driven by a Mr. Lane at a crossing near Renner. The roadmaster was severely bruised and a negro, Joe Fleming, who was operating the inspection car, has a broken nose and a dislocated ankle.

OUTLINES

Miss Helen Miller Gould and Finley J. Shepard were married at Lyndhurst, the beautiful country home of the bride, yesterday.