A beautiful wedding of much interest was not only in Wilmington but also throughout the State, was solemnized at St. James' Episcopal church at 6:30 o'clock last evening, when Miss Helen Strange became the bride of Mr. Burke H. The wedding was largely attended by relatives and friends of the couple and the church was very prettily decorated for the happy event. NEW MEMBER GETS BUSY

Florida Representative Has New Ideas He Wants in Congress. Washington, April 10.—Representative L'Engle, of Florida, a new member, introduced a resolution today declaring that a continuance of the "edictum" prevailing by which Senators go ahead of Representatives in transacting House business in government departments will be regarded as an affront to the House.

Mr. L'Engle also offered a resolution to open all committee hearings to the press and another to create a committee on "public welfare and happiness" to comprise eleven members and to have jurisdiction over social and living conditions, public health and sanitation and woman's suffrage.

OLD AT 40

Some Younger at 65 Than Others Are at 40. Years. So many people who meet about the time they reach 40 begin by saying "I can't do this, and I can't do that, because I'm getting old now; they begin to act old, feel old and they are older in appearance than many who are much more advanced in years. When you begin to feel old, when your energy begins to fail, build yourself up with our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol. It is a wonderful blood-maker and strengthener. Mr. J. N. Kelly, aged 75, who lives at Lake Charles, La., says: "I took Vinol for a run-down condition, it not only built up my strength, but I feel fifteen years younger than I did before taking it. Thousands of old people have found in Vinol just the medicine they need to build up the feeble, weakened system and create strength. If it fails, we return your money.—Robt. R. ..Theatrical..

The mere announcement of the forthcoming visit to the Academy of Music next Wednesday night of the noted vaudeville, Valetka Surratt, in "The Kiss Waltz", has aroused unusual interest, and the number of inquiries indicates that play-goers are aware of the fact that one of the most successful theatrical amusements of New York is to afford them a rare treat in a vaudeville act. Valetka Surratt is the present-day queen of stage beauties, and "The Kiss Waltz" is one of the greatest of the famous New York Casino productions. It is a mixture of Viennese operetta and American comedy, with a dash of French spice thrown in. It was received at the New York Casino—which is undoubtedly the best known musical comedy theatre in America, on account of the many successes that it has housed—rapturously for 150 nights, and duplicated the New York success for several weeks in Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia. The music is described as popularly tuneful, the comedy as hilarious, though polite, the costumes are said to be models of current fashions in London and Paris, and the cast, as promised, is composed of singers not usually seen outside of grand opera.

Judging from the alluring programme, the entire piece is filled with big musical numbers that have become world-famed, and the comedy is described as of a sort that will put to shame most of the so-called humor of the vaudeville stage. The coming of "The Kiss Waltz" will be one of the really big theatrical events of the season. A typical Casino chorus of 50 pretty misses, gorgeously gowned, selected from among hundreds of applicants for their beauty and ability to sing and dance, is a brilliant feature. Seats will go on sale at Plummer's Monday.

At the Bijou. At the Bijou Theatre today by special request, "The Great Steeplechase" will be given, a thrilling race that is sure to send the blood tingling through one's veins. The race is seasonally pictured and will be well worth the seeing. Another big picture feature is a Katom "Grandfather". This is a strong dramatic and will be witnessed with much pleasure for those who prefer the dramatic to other features of popular entertainment. Then there will be other features at the Bijou today and its solid comfort at all times, regardless of weather, its perfect ventilation and the small price of five cents admission to any part of the house will commend the place to all amusement seekers in Wilmington.

Big Day at The Grand. At the Grand Theatre today one of the best bills of the week will be offered. Mr. Harry Harris will sing an illustrated song today, "Let My Girl Be Alone," and in this he will be seen to the great advantage. The musical feature will be Mr. Billy Hoffman, of New York, violinist, who succeeds Prof. Barbey with the orchestra which was never heard. Then there is an Essay photograph. Then there are pictures, "The Scratch," a comedy scream of a thousand feet that will hold the interest from start to finish and will be a laugh with every flicker. Then another will be a picture, "The Gift of the Storm." This is a story dealing with the leading lady, in a big trope and Herbert Deane. This will be a unique and interesting and pleasing to all who attend. A third picture, equally as good, only not featured, will be given for good measure.

COURT STRIPS GIRL OF GEMS.

Takes Engagement Ring and Other Gifts of a Bankrupt. New York, April 9.—The government today withdrew a diamond engagement ring from the left hand of a young woman in order to protect the creditors of a firm involved in involuntary bankruptcy proceedings. It also removed a bracelet from her wrist and a lavalliere from about her neck.

Judge Mayer, in Federal Court, was informed by the receiver of Floss Bros. & Gordon, clothing manufacturers, that Max Gordon, one of the partners, had bought $600 worth of jewelry for a young woman before the bankruptcy petition was filed. Gordon explained that the young woman was his fiancée, said the report, and he had thought the firm's business was prosperous. The girl was in court and Judge Mayer directed her to surrender the jewelry.
