SENATORS LOSE TO WHITE SOX

Score Five to Three in Featureless Game Yesterday-Ty Cobb Has Costly Muff for Tigers-Naps Lose

Opening a series of four games on the home grounds with Callahan's White Sox, the Nationals, in a featureless exhibition yesterday lost by a score of five to three. Joe Engel, the former Mount St. Mary's lad, opened the game for the Senators, giving up three runs in the first inning while the opposing slabman was Russell, the sensational left-hander of the White Sox. While Chicago garmered but four hits to the Senator's ten, the break was the other way, sending homeward a bunch of sad-faced Washingtonians. The Yankees won handily from De-troit yesterday by the score of 6 to 4, after throwing away many chances to score by poor base running, the win having been clinched in the sev-enth inning when the "Terrible Ty" made a muff that let in four of five runs chalked up in that inning.

Charming Wedding Solemnized at Ke-nansville Baptist Church. (Special Star Correspondence.) Kenansville, N. C., Aug. 5.—Very beautiful in its charming simplicity was the wedding of Miss Myrtle G. Jones, of Kenansville, and Mr. W. C. Herbert, of Newberry, S. C., Thursday afternoon, July 24th at 7:30 b'clock, at the Baptist church. Rev. Mr. Oliver, of Mount Olive, performed the ceremony in the beautifully decorated church, the color scheme of the decorations being white and green, candles adding a soft glow to the scene. Just before the ceremony Miss Fannie Gray Farrier sang the last stanza of "Love's Old Sweet Song," followed by Surrender," with Miss Susie Southerland at the or-The bridal party entered to Lohengrin's Wedding March. The ushers were Messrs. Carr and Heath, who came first, followed by Misses Bess Herbert, of Newberry, and Lila Grier, of Morrisville, S. C.; Messrs. Fitz Hugh Wallace and Leroy Jones, of Kenansville; Misses Lillie Carter Wallace, and Bettle Southerland, of Kenansville; Messrs. W. P. Walker, of Timmonsville, S. C., and William Jones, of Kenansville. Following these came the dame of henor, Mrs. William Buck, of Rowland, N. C., and then came the maid of honor, Miss Celeste Hughson, of Sumter, S. C. Immediately preceding the bride came the ring bearer, little Margaret Jones. The bride entered upon the arm of her father, Mr. Thad Jones. She was daintily gowned in white and carried bride roses. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. W. W. Herbert. After the impressive ceremony, the bridal party left the church to the strains of Men-delssohn's Wedding March. A reception was held at the spaclous home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert left early in the evening for the mountains of North Carolina.

WITH THE MOVIES

Under bright circumstances the popular Bijou made a glorious inauguration of its new week yesterday. The bill was a hummer, being presented in the Bijou's psual faultless manner, and large audiences were on hand to enjoy it. Besides the great show the audiences also enjoyed the great comfort of the spot, and this is one of its, swellest features. The air is always cool and the ventilation is perfect, thus insurng health and assuring solid comfort. Today's bill is headed by a film that will grasp the heart with iron hand, but yet will, in every thrilling scene, cause some beautiful thought and will preach a wholesome lesson. It is the story of a midnight burglary on Christmas Eve and it is entitled "In God We Trust." "Love" is another strong dramatic, being Pathe's tale of the love of an old man and a young soldier. Fun will also play a tremendous part in today's offering and the films of this type will be led by "A Ten Acre Gold Brick", which is a laughable story of how land sharks try to swindle a countryman, and are bamboozled themselves. Another great laugh photoplay on today is "Lucky Cohen," telling of the ad-ventures of a peddler in the rural

The Grand's Offering. Four big pictures will feature the Grand's swell bill today, and there will be plenty of new music and the usual solld comfort of this favorite amusement spot. Leading the great photoplay bill will be a film of great power, "The Trail of Cards," depicting, in vivid and thrilling way, the chase a revenue officer has after a band of smugglers. Melie's "Honor Thy Mother" is another thrilling dra-matic for while the Vitagraph's "The Wrong Pair", is a roaring farce comedy. It tells of a chase an irascible old man has after his daughter, who has eloped. A great educational, or travel film is also a feature today in 'The Grand Canyon.' It is not only instructive, but highly entertaining. The scenery is heautiful and will be appreciated by all.

CONVICTED FOR BOOKMAKING.

New York Woman May Serve Sen-tence for the Offense. York, Aug. 4.- Margaret Wright, 33 years old, today was convicted for "making a book" on horse races. She was placed under proba-tion with a warning from the court that a repetition of the offense would result in a penitendary sentence. This is said to be the first instance of a woman being convicted for book-making in New York City.

In pleading for leniency, Miss Wright, who said she w waitress, tearfully declared that she herself was victim of bookmakers. Nearly all of her wages for the past, she said, had been lost in betting on the races.
