Mathewson-Plank To Renew Feud

New York, Sept. 8.—Since the National Commission has seen fit to set at this early date the opening date of the world's series it is in order to remark that pitchers may be Christopher Mathewson for the Giants, and Eddie Plank for the Athletics.

They are regarded as the mainstays of their teams. Therefore about them are built the prospects of the expected clash between the Athletics and the Giants. They both will be primed for the struggle.

"Matty" is going to be better than he has been in some time. Plank's breaks and shoots are still puzzling good hitters. Under such conditions it is but logical to expect that it will be a battle royal between them when they meet on the field in the opening clash of the biggest event in baseball.

It will be a sort of continuation of their long-standing feud. "Matty" has been pitching about the same number of years as Connie's star and both are going great now.

Back in 1905, when they were both comparatively youngsters, they began their battle and they continued it in 1911, but the result was satisfactory to neither Plank nor to Mathewson.

ATLANTA SOUTHERN CHAMPS

New Orleans Won Final from Mobile, Giving Crackers a Lead of Half a Game—The Teams Evenly Matched

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 8.—Atlanta has won the pennant for the Southern Association's 1913 season, which closed yesterday. This was decided when New Orleans broke the Mobile-Atlanta tie by winning from Mobile, 5 to 2.

The loss of the game meant the loss of the race by half a game, Atlanta having won 81 games and lost 56, while Mobile was credited with 81 victories and 57 defeats.

Birmingham finished third. Hard and determined fighting by Chattanooga landed that team in fourth place. In the second division Montgomery led, with Memphis, Nashville and New Orleans next in order.

The final week of the 1913 season was the most exciting in the history of the Southern Association. Atlanta, continuing a spirited dash for the wire, opened the week by taking two games from New Orleans. Then came the series with Mobile, in which Atlanta defeated the league leaders three times, tying the fourth contest and race for the flag.

On Saturday both Atlanta and Mobile won, the tie remaining unbroken. A month ago Atlanta stood fourth in the race, making the performance of the Atlanta club the more astonishing. Of the last 23 games played, Atlanta won 20, lost two and tied one. Misfortune played its part in contributing to the defeat of the week by taking two games from New Orleans.

With the closing of the season a number of important changes in the personal of the league officials have been announced. Of these the most interesting is the signing of Norman Elberfeld, whose contract as manager of the Chattanooga club expired yesterday, as leader of the New Orleans club.

Manager Billy Smith, who, in one season, elevated Atlanta from last place to the top of the column, has been presented with an additional year's contract, lasting through the season of 1915.

Three members of the Mobile club, who have been taking the center of the stage in the Guley-Schubert fight, bound to the New York Giants, having been farmed out by the Giants to get the necessary experience to get on the job with the Giants. They are: Steve, shortstop; Ray, first baseman; and Paulet, first base. They will report at the Giants' training camp next Spring for active service under the Giant banner.

Robertson, who has been covering acres of ground in center, will be remembered as an old University of North Carolina player, and is a native Tar Heel boy. As North Carolinian he will be a valuable asset to the club. He has a habit of making good. Tar Heel fans will watch for him to make his mark under the big lights, along with Joe Jackson, George Suggs and others.

WASHINGTON DROPPED FINAL TO CHANCE'S LOWLY YANKEES

Ray Caldwell Unhittable By Griff's Heavy Batters

NAPS TOOK SUNDAY'S GAME

Schedule Next Seven Days Furnishes Interesting Possibility of Naps Leading the League—Country-wide Interest

Ray Caldwell, the biggest, brightest and best of the New York Yankee twirling stars, was unhittable in yesterday's game at Washington, and the lowly Chancemen shutout the Washington Senators by a four to nothing score. The game marked the last appearance of the season for the Yanks on the Senatorial diamond. Clarke Griffith took the opportunity of inserting three of his recruits into the game, Love, an Atlanta, Ga., recruit, pitching the last inning and held the New Yorkers scoreless.

Terry Turner was the Mountain Detroit could not surmount Sunday, and Cleveland, downed the Tigers, six to four in the final game of the series at Detroit. Leaping into the air, going down into the dirt, to his left and behind the bag, the "cotton-topped" third baseman of the visitors broke up four Detroit rallies, knocked in one run, scored two himself, and pounded out a double and a single.

The American circuit doings should furnish interesting reading for the next seven days, for although you probably would not find a man willing to wager more than one cent to a hundred against the possibility of the Cleveland Naps taking first place within the next seven days—and more wonderful things have happened in baseball.

The Naps start a four-game series at Washington today, and the Chicago White Sox a four-day stay at Philadelphia. After this the Naps go to Philadelphia for their farewell visit of three days' duration. Should the Naps so decree that the Athletics, by some unforeseen slump, lose the entire series to Chicago and the Naps win the last game at Philadelphia, the Washington Senators and the Naps would lead the league by a margin of five points. What odds do you offer?

Peerless Leader Roasts His Flock

New York, Sept. 8.—"Don't think for a minute I talk this way to protect myself because we're last," says Frank Chance, manager of the New York Americans. "I didn't believe such a bunch of dummies could be assembled on one club until I joined the Yankees. They didn't know the first principles of baseball. Not only that, they didn't try. In the club house, when we were losing in the Spring, everybody laughed, whistled and told funny stories."

"That doesn't win ball games. Baseball is serious, if you want to get on top. The Cubs were on top because the boys had one thought—baseball and to win. They figured out plays before each game how to fool the enemy. It was nothing but baseball with them."

"Of course, now, a smart manager can get everything out of a player. He must study his boys, see how he is going to direct them."

"But if you haven't the class you can't squeeze water out of a rock, and if you haven't the class you're not going to win."

JUDGE CONNOR'S WORK First Term for New Jurist Brings Congratulations—Tobacco Sales (Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Sept. 8.—With the clock runs over 750,000 pounds of tobacco, the Wilson county Superior Court, Judge George W. Connor, is receiving the congratulations of his home "folks" because of the large amount of business concluded during the week. Notwithstanding the severe storm of Wednesday, which hindered large numbers of witnesses who lived in the country districts, the court disposed of something like 50 cases and reduced a heavy docket considerably. During the week 17 were sent to the county roads and the total of the sentences amounts to 229 months of work. The heaviest sentence was six years and the lightest was 30 days.

Violators of the prohibition laws received a severe "jolt" and the influence will be good. The tobacco warehouses were compelled to hold sales Saturday, for the first time. The total amount of leaf tobacco sold here Friday and Saturday was over $130,000 and paid out for the bright yellow leaf. The average price paid Friday was 10-12 cents.

Notwithstanding reports which have gone out to the contrary, the warehouses were able to take care of all tobacco brought here, although it was impossible to sell it all in the one day. Still better preparations have been made for this week.

The Atlantic Christian College, opened this morning, under the management again this year of Dr. J. L. Caldwell and the enrollment is larger than last year. Wilson graded schools opened today and with more pupils than last year.
