MACKMEN TAKE THE FOURTH GAME IN WORLD TITULAR SERIES

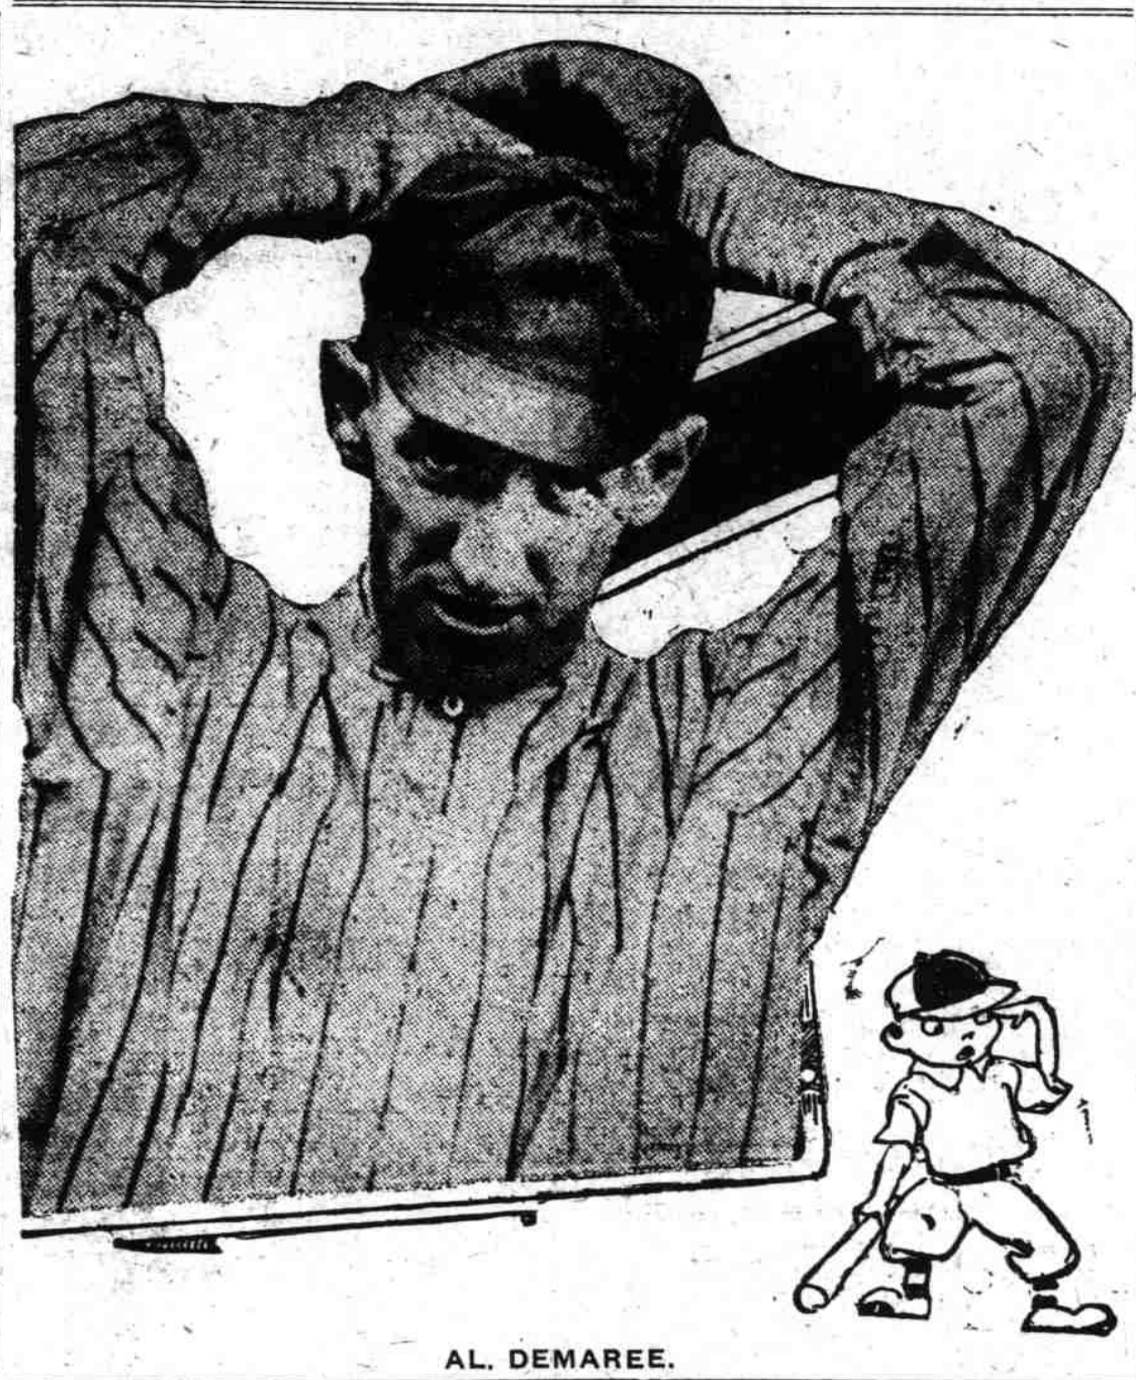

Chippewa Indian Came Back With Second Victory of the Week

Latter Inning Rally by Giants Not Strong Enough to Turn the Tide

DEMAREE OUSTED IN FIFTH

Six Hits and as Many Runs Were Athletic Dividends Off Al—Marquard Finished in Fine Style.

Philadelphia, Oct. 10.—But one victory stands between the Philadelphia Athletics and the world's championship in baseball tonight, for the Mackmen defeated the New York Giants at Shibe Park this afternoon by a score of 6 to 5 in the fourth game of the titular series.

AL. DEMAREE.

The desperate but futile effort came like a bolt from a clear sky. "Chief" Bender, the Chippewa Indian of mysterious curve-break, held the Giants rudderless for six innings, while his teammates by pile-driving hits, had scored as many runs at the expense of Demaree and Marquard.

Demaree received a warm welcome at the start, but it was not until the second inning that the first Athletic crossed the plate. McInnis opened with a Texas league. Oldring followed with a double and Barry scored McInnis. The big blow came in the fourth. Strunk knocked Herzog over with a smashing single and Barry put him on second with a sacrifice.

It was in the "Lucky Seventh" that the storm of hits burst upon the astonished Athletics and before they could recover three Giants had crossed the plate.

Fred Merkle, whose injured ankle still caused him to limp perceptibly, was the player who was held responsible for the breaking through the coat of whitewash that Bender was applying.

Murray smashed a scorching drive to Collins, but the Columbia alumnus managed to hold the ball until he could steady and throw the runner out at first for the third out.

It was the narrowest kind of an escape. But for the equally heavy hitting of the Athletics, the fore part of the game and some brilliant displays of defensive tactics the Giants would now be on even terms with the Philadelphia standard bearers instead of trailing two games in the rear.

The Mackmen on the other hand, now well versed in the ability and resources of the Giants, are tonight doubly confident.

YUAN SHI KAI INAUGURATED

Chief of Police Arrested and Confessed He Had Been Bribed to Assassinate New President.

Peking, Oct. 10.—Yuan Shi Kai was today inducted into office as first President of the Chinese Republic.

The ceremony was surrounded with Eastern brilliancy attended by throngs of distinguished Chinese and foreign officials.

The choice of the place of inauguration was an encroachment on the sacred precincts of the Emperor within the forbidden city.

The ceremony was enacted in the vast hall called the Tai Ho-Tien, or hall of supreme peace, where the Emperor formerly observed New Year's greetings from the Manchu and suzerain princes.

Yuan Shi Kai wore a blue military uniform. He read his declarations, which were tantamount to taking the oath of office, from the dragon dais of the Emperor over which Chinese flags have been draped.

Extensive precautions, both police and military, had been taken for several days as it was feared that some Chinese rebels who had cut off their heads might obtain access to the ceremony.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 10.—Mrs. Agnes Havenor, owner of the Milwaukee American Association baseball team, today relinquished the presidency of that organization, and forced the election of A. F. Timme to succeed her.

HOT DISCUSSION ON IN CONGRESS

Several Democrats Revolt With Closest Vote of Session the Result.

MANN TAKES SHOT AT WILSON

The Vote Came After Prolonged Debate in Which Many Democrats Bitterly Attacked Amendments—Quorum.

Washington, Oct. 10.—By the closest vote of the session, 111 to 106, the House late tonight voted to recede from its conference disagreement and to concur in the Senate amendment to the Urgent Deficiency Appropriation bill, which provides for the removal of deputy internal revenue collectors and deputy marshals from civil service regulations.

The vote came after a protracted debate in which many Democrats bitterly assailed the proposal.

The Democratic revolt was led by Representative Fitzgerald, of New York and 54 Democrats voted against concurrence. Other matters in disagreement, among them an appropriation of $7,000 for an automobile for the Vice President, will be taken up tomorrow.

The conferees, Representatives Fitzgerald, Bartlett and Gillett, reported disagreement on 15 of the 107 Senate amendments, including the section abolishing the Commerce Court, which would retain the judges of that court as judges of the district court and circuit court of appeals.

Washington, Oct. 10.—In another quorum vote, the House today by unanimous consent debated the Urgent Deficiency bill, disagreed to the Senate amendments and sent the measure to conference without a record.

Speaker Clark named Representatives Bartlett, Fitzgerald and Gillett to represent the House. The Senate amendment in no way controlled the internal revenue and deputy marshals from civil service was vigorously assailed by the Republicans.

OPEN SESSION DURING VOTING

Final Argument Was Delivered Yesterday Afternoon Before the High Court of Impeachment—Several Questions.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 10.—Governor William Sulzer's fate tonight rests with his judges. The final arguments of the counsel for and against him were delivered today before the high court of impeachment.

Upon reconvening the court will decide upon its plan of balloting whether it shall be done in open or executive session and then take up the constitutional objections to the impeachment charges that have been raised by counsel for the Governor.

The next question to be decided will be whether he should be removed from office. Should this be decided affirmatively the judges then will vote on whether additional punishment other than disqualification from ever holding public office in this State again shall be meted out to him.

As a compromise it was agreed to adjourn until Friday afternoon, an hour and a half and permit Attorney Edgar T. Brackett, who was waiting

When the arrests were made a few of the leaders were placed in automobiles while the other deputies were taken to the penitentiary in street cars. Meanwhile similar demands to recant had been made upon members of the Senate who had concurred in the Chamber's resolution.

"THERE IT IS OVER GAMBOIA IS BUSTED"

President Wilson Touches Button and Blows Up Dike 4,000 Miles Away.

CANAL ALMOST COMPLETED

No Ceremony in Washington Other Than Rejoicing—Explosion by Long Distance Extraordinary Feat.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The momentary touch of a key by the President of the United States today sent a flash of electricity through a continuous telegraph and cable connection of 4,000 miles, setting off a gigantic blast of dynamite which exploded the Gamboa dike, the last of the great physical barriers to water communication in the Panama canal.

It was an extraordinary feat of telegraphy, especially planned for the occasion. At precisely 2 o'clock this afternoon President Wilson by simply closing a telegraph key at the White House sent the current over land and under seas. Just a few seconds later came the message informing him that the explosion had been successful.

While celebrations on the Pacific were numerous, there was no ceremony in Washington, it being the wish of Col. Goethals that the government save the actual opening of the canal. Besides the wreckage of the Gamboa dike there are two earth slides to be cleared away before boats can be towed through the passage.

The special circuit had been set up early in the day. A few minutes before 2 o'clock Chief Operator E. W. Smith, at the White House, talked to Galveston, Tex.

President Wilson today wrote a personal letter to Representative Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, who is a candidate for the Senate, telling him that it was indispensable to the carrying out of the Democratic party's anti-trust programme to have him remain in the House as chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

Representative Clayton tonight issued a reply to the President's letter in which he said: "Recognizing the President as the head of the party, I do not see how I can refuse to accede to his expressed wishes. I will, however, make a formal reply to the President's letter in a day or two."

Mr. Clayton told friends tonight that he would withdraw from the Senatorial race. He was appointed by Governor O'Neal to fill the unexpired term of the late Senator Johnston. His credentials were held up, however, through the failure of the Legislature to provide proper electoral machinery.

President Wilson today wrote a personal letter to Representative Henry D. Clayton, of Alabama, who is a candidate for the Senate, telling him that it was indispensable to the carrying out of the Democratic party's anti-trust programme to have him remain in the House as chairman of the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Hobgood was in charge of the bill and yielded the floor to Senator Bryant, who sent forward an amendment to be known as Section 4-A that provided that if one or more of the common carriers represented to the State authorities that the rates prescribed are or would be confiscatory or unreasonable, the Governor shall appoint a special commission of three members to investigate and report to the Governor within 60 days and in the meantime the application of the rates be suspended, the commission so appointed for this temporary service to raise or lower the rates as they may find necessary and report the changes to the Corporation Commission to be put into effect.

Senator Hobgood said this amendment was acceptable to him and to Mr. Justice, as was also an amendment by Senator Ward to exempt from the operation of the bill for three years any roads that had extended as much as 25 miles and linked up other lines in making a system for railway service, applying especially to the Norfolk Southern. There were amendments by Senator Phillips and Senator Little, of Wake, making short line exemptions of roads of less than 100 miles instead of 75 miles or less, as the bill provides, which were not acceptable to those in charge of the bill.

The argument of the bill continued until 11:30. Senator Gilliam insisted that there was no reason for the provision for special commissions to investigate the reasonableness of rates as they apply to the various roads that may be completed. The Corporation Commission should be left to discharge this duty.

BEGINNING OF END IN LEGISLATURE

House Puts the Senate on Notice That it is Ready to Adjourn.

THE INSURANCE INVESTIGATION

Commission to be Appointed—Intra-State Rate Bill Emphasized and Passed—Day Sessions of Both Branches.

(Special Star Telegram.) Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 10.—The principal feature of a short session of the lower House of the General Assembly tonight was the adoption of a resolution by Representative Stewart, setting out that the House has practically finished all its business and is ready to adjourn tomorrow (Saturday) and that it is doubtful if a quorum can be had after tomorrow. The resolution was sent to the Senate for its information.

The House passed bills as follows: Establish stock law for Pender and Lenoir counties; amend the law as to courts in Rockingham county; amend act as to recorder's court in Mount Airy; authorize stock law decision in Jones county; resolution for clerks of the Legislature to receive $1 per day extra since they have to remain here a week or more without pay rounding up their work; amend the law as to probates of building and loan associations; amend the law as to condemnation of land for school sites; enable the Department of Agriculture to manufacture material to inoculate leguminous crops; create rural life conditions commission.

The Senate this afternoon completed its work of adopting the various constitutional amendment proposals by the final adoption of all the sections of the revenue and taxation proposal that had been left over. Section 5 was amended in accordance with an amendment by the House to make the tax levied on the revenue 75 cents and the ad valorem tax $1 instead of 75 cents; also Section 6 was amended to make the poll tax $2 State and county and $2 city in accordance with the House amendment. Then the proposals as a whole were adopted.

Fire Insurance Investigation. The Senate tonight passed the House bill for the creation of a commission of five, three from the House and two from the Senate, to investigate the conduct of fire insurance companies in this State.

The appointments will be made by the president of the Senate and speaker of the House. First the Senate bill was reported with amendments from the majority of the committee that the Governor appoint a commission of three to make the investigation. There was some discussion after the Senate voted to adopt the majority report for the five members to be appointed by the presiding officers. Then the House bill was offered as a substitute for the whole matter by Senator Nimocks, in support of which bill, and it was passed without opposition and the bill ordered enrolled for ratification.

Intra-State Rates. The House bill to prescribe intra-State freight rates, the Justice bill, embodying the Minnesota rates, with some of the revenue and taxation proposals in this State, came up as a special order at 9 o'clock.

Another Railroad Surrender. Senator Hobgood was in charge of the bill and yielded the floor to Senator Bryant, who sent forward an amendment to be known as Section 4-A that provided that if one or more of the common carriers represented to the State authorities that the rates prescribed are or would be confiscatory or unreasonable, the Governor shall appoint a special commission of three members to investigate and report to the Governor within 60 days and in the meantime the application of the rates be suspended, the commission so appointed for this temporary service to raise or lower the rates as they may find necessary and report the changes to the Corporation Commission to be put into effect.

Senator Gilliam insisted that there was no reason for the provision for special commissions to investigate the reasonableness of rates as they apply to the various roads that may be completed. The Corporation Commission should be left to discharge this duty.

Senator Hobgood insisted that the special commission should be provided for.

Senator Ward offered an amendment that would cut out Section 9, as to the operation of the long and short haul clause.
