

long discussion that finally gave the matter the turn of having the report of the conference committee adopted and an attempt by Senator Ward to apply his amendment on final reading of the bill it came from the house.

In the end the Ward amendment was voted down 12 to 22. The bill then passed its readings the final vote being 34 to 3, the full three-fifths majority required.

Local Bills Passed.
The following local bills were passed: Allow Jones county to vote on stock law; relative to holding Superior Courts in Bladen county; authorize the establishment of a medical dispensary for Winston-Salem; revise the charter of Elizabeth City; amend the act protecting fish in Robeson county; repealing the stock law act of the regular 1913 session of Pender county; amend the election law of New Hanover county.

The Senate took recess at 2:25 to 3:15. The recess by the House was to the same hour.
Revise Court Procedure.
Much time at the afternoon session of the Senate was devoted to considering a resolution from the House for a special commission of three to revise the court procedure in this State the resolution finally going to the table. Senator Bryant opposed it because it did not include revision of the rules of the Supreme court which he declared were fast tending to deprive poor people of the right of appeal through exacting rules as to printing and filing them.

The Senate finally disposed of the wrangle over the site for the school for the blind by providing that the State treasurer shall pay the $4,600 balance due for the new site out of the proceeds of the sale of the school of land and retain the remainder in the treasury and that a special commission from the Legislature shall investigate as to proposals from other cities to induce removal of the school for the blind from Raleigh.
Calif Bill Debated.
The bill for the prevention of the killing or shipping of calves in Caldwell county and a number of other counties that had been added by amendment was a bone of contention for a long time and was finally passed in conformity with the last conference report and confirmation as applying to thirty counties.

There was much levity injected during the discussion of this bill. Senator Peterson's bill that as ruled out of order by President Daughtridge that the bill be amended to also prohibit the "Exposure of calves."
Bills passed the Senate: Allow $1 per day extra compensation to clerks of the General Assembly; amend the act of 1913 relative to validating registration of certain deeds and mortgages; authorize the State auditor to take of legal papers; amend charter of town of Greenville; amend law as to holding Superior Courts in Onslow; amend law as to holding Superior Courts in Onslow; amend law as to holding Superior Courts in Onslow; amend law as to holding Superior Courts in Onslow.

Ready to adjourn at a minute's notice, the House was prevented from taking this action only through the delay of the Senate in the proposed amendments were adopted as agreed on by the conference committee without discussion. Another session was held this afternoon to wind up all matters.
Railroads Win Again.
Representative Clark's two cent passenger fare bill found only one other champion in the House and was tabled. Senator Peterson's bill to protect the uniform of soldiers, sailors and guardsmen was also tabled.

The House also tabled a bill by Mr. Kellum providing for the development of agricultural lands in New Hanover, Duplin, Pender, Brunswick and Columbus counties. It was tabled on objection of Mr. Donnell. The bill would shoulder some debts on the State. Mr. Kellum declared it a simple development proposition, that the State would be put to any expense and that he would accept amendments.
Mr. Bellamy later tried to get the matter reconsidered, but failed. The House passed the resolution providing the machinery for summoning witnesses at the investigation of insurance companies.

The Usual Gifts and Gratuities.
Principal Clerk E. L. Huffman was presented with a casserole by his assistants, Speaker Murphy making the presentation a matter of course.
Constitutional Amendments.
The principal changes recommended by the conference committee on constitutional amendment bill are: That mileage of members of the House be increased from five cents each day instead of ten cents; that the House recede from its position favoring local legislation in the matters of bridges, ferries, etc.; that game laws should be passed by the General Assembly; that towns and cities be allowed to levy $1 tax on real property; that the poll tax shall not exceed $2 for State and county purposes and may not exceed that sum for municipal purposes; that the State shall not lend its credit to any private corporation or municipal corporation; that municipal corporations shall be formed or their charters changed under general laws. The vote by which the report was adopted was 73 to 8, and the bill passed third reading, 73 to 7.

House Afternoon.
At the afternoon session of the House Speaker Murphy announced the appointment of representatives Sewell, Page and Long as the special commissioners on the part of the House to investigate the conduct of insurance companies in North Carolina, these commissioners to cooperate with two Senators appointed by the president of the Senate.
The Speaker appointed Representative Turner, Vance, to succeed Mr. Young, resigned, a member of the joint committee to examine the books of the State treasurer and other State departments.
The House concurred in the Caldwell county call bill and the bill as to the State School for the Blind by the Senate.
Bills passed to amend the charter of Greenville and to change the terms of court in Onslow county.

No-Fence Law Legislation.
Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 13.—The special session of the Legislature just adjourned, but "No Fence" or "No Fence" law in four counties by legislative enactment without a vote of the people. These are Pender, Bladen, Lenoir and Sampson. Pender members of the Legislature prescribed "No Fence" law for their county rather than have Pender saddled with the expense of fencing in to express sympathy to Capwells' law. Brunswick is also applying "no fence" law. Brunswick is to vote on the question in December.

Boston, Oct. 13.—Coastwise traffic was resumed along the New England coast today after a fog embargo of more than a week. Forty ships sailed from here during the forenoon. At Vineyard Haven, the largest fleet that has floated in that port in years, left at sunrise.

RESCUED TELL OF BURNING VESSEL

The small boats were enabled to run alongside the liner and take the clinging people from the ladders. The rescue work was over in a very short time. Eleven liners formed the boundary around the flim of oil and the survivors were hoisted aboard the various steamers without trouble.

Searched for Boats.
"We then cruised about for two hours searching for the life boats which were said to have escaped, but found only the air tanks which are carried beneath the seats. I do not believe that there is any possibility of the two boats having escaped swan." "When we arrived on the scene the fire was burning steadily, but not fiercely. It never at any time got aft of the bridge. When we went to dinner at 7 o'clock in the evening there were no flames, nothing but thick smoke could be seen. At 8 o'clock we were summoned on deck by the breaking out of the flames, which soon culminated in an explosion. Then we saw for the first time signs of a panic on the decks of the fated vessel. Several jumped overboard, among them our own survivor, who made a lucky swim, reached the side of the Carmania, but was too weak to get up the ladder. Seaman Highway was then lowered with a life line through an open cargo port, stripped to the waist. He got beneath the swimmer, whose life belt had become unfastened and supported him. It was a magnificent exhibition of strength and courage. Half an hour had passed from the time the survivors were rescued from the side of the ship before he was gotten aboard.

"The explosion seemed to come from coal gas collected in the bunkers. For some time the fire burned brightly and then gradually died down. It is impossible to tell how many of those who jumped overboard were drowned."
Arthur Spurgeon, who yesterday sent the Associated Press a story by wireless and described the rescue work around the burning vessel, supplemented his dispatches with additional details today.

"The story of what took place on board the Voltorno, before the arrival of the Carmania," he said, "probably will not be known until Capt. Inch makes his official report.
In some of the boats were launched in an orderly manner, others that a panic took place as a result of the turning over of boats by fear-crazed crews after the fire got out of control. It seems to be agreed that there were 29 souls in peril, all of whom were killed or drowned.
"Late in the afternoon, after the fleet of rescuing ships had gathered about the doomed ship, the Voltorno sent a message that the situation was becoming desperate. Attempts were made to send two rafts across the Carmania, and these almost reached the burning vessel.
"The night aboard the Carmania was one never to be forgotten. No one got more than snatches of sleep. Some prayed for the souls in peril. All were filled with heart-breaking anxiety. Our utter helplessness was appalling. The finest fleet of liners gathered in one spot in the mid-Atlantic, but practically powerless, even with the boats' splendid equipment, to render aid on account of the great waves."
Kronland Coming.
New York, Oct. 13.—Carrying 74 of the passengers and 14 of the crew of the ill-fated Voltorno, the steamship Kronland, of the Red Star Line, is battling her way toward the coast against northwesterly gales and heavy seas some 800 miles east of Sandy Hook.

Reports received here today at the offices of the International Mercantile Company, owners of the line, timed the expected arrival of the Kronland for Wednesday night or Thursday morning. Captain Kurfuerst and Seydlitz standing by. Immensely high seas, strong gale. Went as near outboard as safety permitted. Saw two-thirds of the ship burning like a furnace. Survivors were crowded on aft part of the steamer. Any delay fatal.
Outlines Rescue Work.
"Called on by the volunteers and sent boat commanded by Fifth Officer Kummel. Sea too high, gale too strong. Impossible to try the Lyle gun."
"Later sent two boats under Second Officer Mansfield and Fifth Officer Kummel. They returned later, respectively with three and ten rescued men. As the Voltorno kept drifting away from the after-deck, the crew maneuvering near and sent three boats away which made many trips. At 9 o'clock at night the last boat, alongside carried Captain Kriebhohn and two other passengers. The third boat possibly got away safely. Carmania and Campania searching for it."
A thousand cases of guns were stowed under the after-deck and when the vessel left the Voltorno, left them. Captain Kriebhohn reported. The Voltorno's officers rescued by the Kronland's boat crews were Captain F. H. Chief Engineer E. D. Dwar, Second Engineer McAlcomson, Fourth Engineer J. Bell Field, and Fifth Engineer M. Stegmier, W. Seddon and C. J. Pennington, first and second wireless operators, and J. Ferguson, wireless steward. Among the passengers, apparently all from the steamer, were three children with parents missing.

Voltorno's Crew Heroes.
Another wireless dispatch dated today on board the Kronland, said: "Kronland cabin unites in praise of the heroism of the captain and officers and all crew Voltorno."
The Red Star Line officials replied tonight to Captain Kriebhohn directing him to express sympathy to Captain Inch and the officers and passengers of the Voltorno. The message continued:
"Do not restrict the use of wireless. Allow passengers to send on their own account any message to friends or to the press that they wish to forward provided they are in accordance with the facts."

AIRSHIPS IN LONG RACE. Winner Makes Sixty Miles in Fifty-two Minutes.

New York, Oct. 13.—In an aeroplane race over a course of approximately 80 miles from the aerodrome at Lochwood Heights, Staten Island, up to, and around Manhattan Island and back to the starting, William S. Luckey, driving a 100-horsepower biplane, won the first prize of $1,000 offered by the New York Times by completing the routine in 52 minutes, 54 seconds.

A second prize of $750 went to Chas. F. Niles in a similar biplane who covered the course in 54:55. C. Murvin Wood, in an 80-horsepower monoplane won the third money, $500. His time was 58:12. Only two others started. J. Guy Gilpatrick, in a monoplane of 80 horsepower, and Tony Januss, in a 75-horsepower biplane, finishing as named in 1:09:53 3-4 and 1:13:57, respectively.
The event was held in commemoration of the first flight in a heavier than air machine by the late Wilbur Wright at Kitty Hawk, N. C., ten years ago.
One of the aviators who was to have taken part in the aeroplane race around Manhattan Island today is missing tonight. He is Albert J. Jewell. He left Hempstead Plains at 7:40 this morning for Staten Island, driving a monoplane of 75 horsepower. He has not been heard from since. Some of the aviators are of the opinion that Jewell was caught in the gale that was blowing and may have been carried out to sea and lost.
Jewell came here from California. He had never done any cross-country flying nor made any trip across water.

AMERICAN LEAGUES AGAIN.
Baby Majors Win City Championship.
Chicago, Oct. 13.—The Chicago Americans made it three in a row from the local Nationals today and won the city championship. The score was 5 to 2.

OLD CHAMPS MEET.
Wolgate and Nelson, Both Past Masters of Fistic Art, Scrap.
Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 13.—Al Wolgate, of Cadillac, Mich., defeated Batt Nelson, of Hugeswitch, Ill., in a ten-round boxing contest here tonight.
Wolgate had the better of eight of the ten rounds while two were even. He was the more skillful and fastest ever seen here, both men appearing anxious to put the other out.
Wolgate fought a clean, swift battle and three times had the Dane groggy. He used his left to the right to the face with great force, but the Battler always came back hard. Nelson bored in continually and at times showed flashes of his old-time form, but his blows lacked force.
Both tired toward the end of the contest, but Wolgate was far the fresher at the close. Blood was flowing from the Dane's nose, ear and lips from the hard and sharp blows of the Cadillac boxer.

COLT WINS BIG STAKE.
Kentucky Races Are Bringing Back Love for the Track.
Lexington, Ky., Oct. 13.—Don Chennault, the Peter Donohue Stable, Chennault colt, owned by the estate of H. C. The Lexington stake for 2-year-old trotters went to Lady Winetka, in straight heats.
The 2:14 trot was won by Red Lace, Jr., after he had lost the first two heats to Bright Axworthy, and the 2:06 pace by Our Colonel, after Jones had been taken out as a driver and Murphy substituted. Jones was fined $200 for not trying to win the first heat. The 3-year-old, unfinished, went over until tomorrow.

Yell Defiance at Blood Disorders. A Remedy That Has Shown a Most Remarkable Purifying Effect.

The word Medicine is one of the most abused in our language. There are certain medicinal properties just as necessary to health as the food we eat. Take, for example, the well-known medicine S. S. S. This famous medicine contains medicinal components just as vital and essential to healthy blood as the elements of wheat, roast beef, the fats and the sugars that make up our daily ration.
As a matter of fact, there is one ingredient in S. S. S. which serves the active purpose of stimulating each cellular part of the body to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. That is why it regenerates the blood supply, why it has such a tremendous influence in overcoming Rheumatism, Catarrh of the Stomach and Intestines, skin eruptions and all blood troubles.
Get a bottle of S. S. S. at any drug store, and in a few days you will not only feel bright and energetic, but you will be the picture of new life. S. S. S. is prepared in the laboratory of the World Specific Co., 219 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., who maintain a very efficient medical department where all who have any blood disorder of a stubborn nature may consult freely.

S. S. S. is sold everywhere by drug stores, department and general stores. Don't permit anyone to sell you a substitute. Insist upon S. S. S.
