

GERMAN SHIPS TO MEXICAN WATERS

(Concluded from Page One.)

Significance was attached to the action by official Washington, however, because it was accepted as indicating that European powers who previously had recognized the Huerta government among which were Germany and Great Britain—now saw evidence of Huerta's inability to compose the situation. Latest advices to Washington are that the British government is deeply concerned over its recognition of Huerta and it is even declared reliably that King George and Queen Mary have taken a personal interest in the situation with a view to measures that would support the policy of the United States. It is reported that Great Britain is preparing at the first opportunity to repudiate the recognition and that failure of the Huerta administration to hold a constitutional election on October 26th probably would be held as sufficient cause. In this connection officials here recall the British government's recent statement that recognition of Huerta was "provisional pending an election."

May Sober Huerta. It is believed by the Washington authorities that the sending of a German vessel immediately after the arrest of the members of the Chamber of Deputies may have a sobering effect on provisional President Huerta and prevent him from going to further extremes.

Strong representations went forth from the United States to the Mexican Federal authorities today calling on Gen. Huerta to protect the lives of the imprisoned Deputies. Similar representations were made when Madero and Suarez were arrested. Whether or not drastic action by the United States will follow is a matter which the question being discussed by those who are shaping the administration's policy.

No change in the attitude of this country was announced by President Wilson and his advisers as debating what the next steps should be and to-morrow's cabinet meeting may bring forth a decision on the subject. Another development that is occupying the attention of the department officials is the yellow fever epidemic in Carmen and Campeche. American warships usually lie a few miles off the coast and are not in danger, but refugees who are being constantly picked up will be carefully examined. More care will be taken by the Navy doctors in granting shore leave to American sailors.

Surgeon General Blue, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, is in close touch with the situation and is devising that all precautions be taken.

Yellow Fever at Carmen. Washington, Oct. 13.—Yellow fever at Carmen and Campeche, both districts in Mexico, is spreading. American refugees are coming to the United States, was reported today to the public health service. Surgeon General Blue at once ordered measures to safeguard the border and other ports of entry.

German Ship in Mexican Waters. Berlin, Oct. 13.—The Foreign Office here reached the conclusion this evening that the existing situation in Mexico is such as to necessitate the presence of a German warship in Mexican waters.

The cruiser Hertha, which now is being used as a school ship, probably will be selected as the most available warship for duty along the eastern coast of Mexico. She is now cruising in New England waters.

Deputies Are Safe. Mexico City, Oct. 13.—President Huerta has assured the American charge d'affaires, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, that he would be done the imprisoned deputies. The American charge met the President by chance and in the course of the conversation warned him of the baneful effects which would be produced throughout the civilized world should harm come to the deputies.

Later the embassy received instructions from the State Department at Washington to make the Mexican such representations; whereupon Mr. O'Shaughnessy formally communicated to the executive the Washington administration's expressions on the subject.

While promising that no harm would befall the prisoners and adding there never had been any intention to inflict physical injury General Huerta asserted that most of the deputies would have to stand trial for offenses against the government. He gave no intimation that any of them would be released in the near future.

Refugees Must Return. Eagle Pass, Texas, Oct. 13.—Holding that they were likely to become public charges and therefore undesirable, United States officials today forced 200 refugees, who crossed to Eagle Pass when Mexican government troops occupied Piedras Negras last week, to return to Mexico. The refugees protested vigorously against re-crossing the international boundary expressing fear for their lives so long as Piedras Negras remained under Federal control. General Mas, the government commander, however, has given assurance that they would not be molested.

Forced Into Army. Mexico City, Oct. 13.—Representations have been made by the American embassy to the Mexican foreign office, that it has come to the knowledge of the embassy that C. Bonaventura has been arrested and forced to enter the army now on the way to Quintana Roo. The foreign minister, it is understood, has sent instructions that the man shall be returned.

Consul Phillip C. Hanna, at Monterey, has wired that he will be unable to communicate with the American refugees marooned between Monterey and Laredo. A member of the party of which General Felix Diaz is leader is authority for the statement that General Diaz intends to remain at Havana for a time. He regards it as futile to continue on to Mexico for the purpose of pushing his campaign. Federico Genua, a Mexican Socialist, are busy preparing for the elections.

MAKE NATIONAL INVENTORY.

Of Social Assets and Liability of Socialist Party. Washington, Oct. 13.—The necessity for a National Inventory of social assets and liabilities with special investigation of the economic programme of the Socialists, is urged in a report made public today, from the committee of the National Civic Federation, which is preparing to undertake such an inquiry. Talcott Williams, J. W. Jenks, Chas. P. Nell, Oden Mills, Nicholas F. Brady, John Hays Hammond, Samuel Gompers, George B. Cortelyou and George W. Perkins, are among the members of the committee. Its object is to develop what progress has been made along certain lines in the last few years, how progress has been retarded, what has caused it, and how to remove the barriers. "At the last Presidential election," says the report, "nearly one million votes were cast in favor of an economic programme calling for revolutionary transformation of society. The party supporting this programme proposes the abolition of our system of wages and private property; the substitution of government ownership and operation of all the instruments of production distribution and exchange. Recently, a revolutionary movement within the country has confronted this country with a yet more radical proposal. This element aims at the complete abolition of operation of industries, which are to be confiscated through the general strike and directly operated by the workers themselves. There seems no room for question that it is both desirable and possible by an early and impartial searching investigation of the facts of the gains and the losses of our changing time."

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 13.—The arrest of three girls and eight boys, ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, today revealed a remarkable gang of youthful thieves operating in this city. Two have confessed to the police and declare that the boys and girls have been plotting and executing robberies for several months, and that their loot amounts to more than $1,000.

Senator Simmons said Democratic leaders would continue to work for a prompt termination of hearings and an early consideration of the bill. Senators Sheppard and James expressed emphatic views against any recess.

Representative Underwood discussed with the President the question of keeping a quorum in the House while the Senate committee was handling the currency question.

Debate in the Senate. Washington, Oct. 13.—Debate in the Senate today made it quite plain there is to be no adjournment or recess of Congress until the currency reform is disposed of. At the same time, with the prospect of having the currency measure brought into the Senate from the committee anywhere from early next month to some time in January, Democrats prepared to object to having any other general legislation set for consideration during the first two months of the regular session, beginning December 1st, on the ground that the legislative road must be kept clear for currency.

Senator Lewis, Democratic whip, voiced the sentiment of the majority leaders against any adjournment or recess. "The invisible board of control which objects to domination of the finances of the country being placed in the hands of a stable board," said Senator Lewis. "The question now is whether we shall have these gentlemen to place themselves in the position before the country during the hearing. If they are not satisfied with the first two months of the regular session, beginning December 1st, on the ground that the legislative road must be kept clear for currency."

Senators Hoke Smith, Reed and others objected to setting any other legislation for consideration before February, Senator Smith blocking a plan to fix January 9th to 29th as the time for taking up a woman suffrage constitutional amendment.

Senator Borah and other Republicans insisted that the Senate should either attend to business or recess, and Senator Ashurst, Democrat, protested against the policy of recessing for three days, not because my consideration of the currency bill, but the committee.

BRITISH LADIES IN TROUBLE. Weld Chairs Like Clubs in Scrap With Police. London, Oct. 13.—After a fierce struggle the police arrested Miss Sylvia Pankhurst at Bow Nests in the east end of London tonight where she was making a speech. But when they got her outside the building with the intention of placing her in a taxicab and rushing her to Holloway jail, the militants attacked the police so savagely that they had to let her go and she escaped.

Miss Pankhurst, who has an uncompromising record of imprisonment, was not recognized until she threw a stone at the police and the building. She was warmly applauded as she stepped to the platform, but had been speaking only a few minutes when the police entered the hall and drew truncheons entered the hall and made a rush for the platform.

The audience rose and chairs began to fly, the invaders being the objectionable point. The police gained the platform and for ten minutes a desperate battle waged, the officers using their batons freely and those on the platform using chairs as weapons. The police succeeded in dragging Miss Pankhurst down to the floor of the house while reinforcements cleared the hall.

Miss Pankhurst announced later her intention to address a meeting in Poplar town hall tomorrow night. "Every effort will be made to call to the attention of the notables of the royal wedding on Wednesday the tortures which the women of England have suffered for the enfranchisement of the sex."
