There was discussion today in offi-cial circles over the possibility that the President might send a message or make an address to Congress giving a detailed report of what has occurred since he last informed Congress on the Mexican situation. There was no indication at the White House that such was the plan.

General Carranza arrived tonight on a special train from Hermosillo, the capital of Sonora.

It was said in revolutionary circles that Carranza's mission was to meet and confer with an agent of President Wilson who was expected to arrive. Knew Nothing of It.

Washington, Nov. 1.—Representa-tives in Washington of the Mexican Constitutionalists denied tonight any knowledge of a meeting planned be-tween General Carranza and an agent of President Wilson at Nogales. Custom Receipts

Washington, Nov. 1.-Although the new tariff act with its lowered rates of duty has been in effect practically a month the customs receipts have so far shown little falling off.

According to the Treasury Depart ment today the customs receipts amounted to $30,138,000 just about $80,000 less than those of October, 1912. The deficit for the fiscal year to date, the statement shows, is $5,757,627, about $3,900,000 more than the deficit at the corresponding period last year. Pension payments under the Sherwood act are apparently largely responsible for the larger deficit. The payments for the periods in 1912 through October amounted to period this year to nearly $57,000,000 an increase of more than $4,000,000 in this one disbursement item. The total pay warrants for October 1913 were $59,366,994, with total receipts of $64,196,633, leaving an excess of

Good Words, Published by Prisoners of Atlanta Federal Prison, Declares His Self-imposed Sen-

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 1.-The efforts of Thomas M. Osborne, of New York, who recently served a self-imposed sentence at Auburn prison, to learn at first hand the present giral effect of penitentiary life in the minds of prisoners, today were characterized as well meant, but futile in an article appearing in Good Works, the paper printed within the walls of the Atlanta Federal prison.

This article under the caption "an amateur convict," said that Mr. Osborne's trip to Tophet with a string and entertaining, and that he deserves credit for directing attention to prison problems. The article adds, however, that "though this penitentiary Columbus really may have gained some ideas about physical existence in jail, he actually got no deeper than the sur- nal revenue officers today turned their face of "the inferos in which all bona fide convicts must live."

It is pointed out that Mr. Osborne understood his self-imposed hardship fortified by the excellence of his motives and a contemplation of the plauding and a contemplation of the co its he undoubtedly would earn through his martyrdom. "That," says Good his martyrdom. Works, "is the main obstacle which prevents him from attaining his oblect, for real convicts have no such support of encouragement." The convict has not the comfort or mediation upon present heroism or future renown, says the article. "The only companions of the real prisoner's solitude." it continues, "are vain regrets for the past, shame and humiliation at the treatment to which he is subjected in prison and the dread of the prospect of disgrace and persecution which await him when he goes back to the world.

Hope is expressed that good come of Mr. Osborne's experience and t is suggested that if judges and prosecutors were obliged to qualify by spending a term in prison no longer than that of Mr. Osborne, "justice and lecency in administration of criminal aw would be greatly advanced." Good Works is published by the pen tentiary prisoners, and as is stated n an editorial in the current issue articles appearing therein present the views and ideas of the prisoners and not those of the officials.

Campaign Closed.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 1.—The campaign in New Jersey which involves principally the election of a Governor, practically closed tonight. The campaign has been marked by the presence of several speakers of National prominence. Secretary of State Bryan and Congressman Glass, of Virginia were among those who spoke for James F. Fielder, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Senator Borah and other Republicans of progressive tendencies, spoke for former Governor Edward C. Stokes, the Republican candidate. Former Senator Beveridge, of Indiana, and Governor Johnson, of California, spoke for Everett Colby, the Progressive candidate.

All Hands Confident.

Boston, Nov. 1.—One of the most spirited campaigns in Massachusetts politics virtually was closed tonight with four of the seven candidates for Governor declaring themselves confi-dent of success. There will be decided also contests for the rest of the State ticket and the Legislature. The latter is now Republican.

The gubernatorial contest is an unusual one. Governor Eugene N. Foss, who forsook the Republican party four years ago and was elected to Congress as a Democrat, has renounced the Democratic party which subsequently made him Governor for three terms, and is running independently for a fourth term.

His Democratic opponent is David Walsh, who has served two terms as Lieutenant Governor. Congressman August P. Gardner leads the Republicans, while the standard bearer of the Progressives is Charles S. Bird, a paper manufactur-
