SANTA CLAUS

VOL. XCHI-NO.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY MOBNING, NOVEMBER 22, 1913.

WHOLE NUMBER 13,488.

BRITISH NEV PAPER BLAMES WALL STREET

The Outlook, in an Editorial, Declares American Dollars Will Create a Revolution Anywhere—Insinuates Trusts are Backing Huerta in His Opposition to Wilson Administration - A War Waged Solely for Greed.

certain forces can accomplish it, a crime against civilization, against humanity. At any moment we may hear of its first overt stages with inevitably the ensuing slaughter of tens of thousands of young Americans and half armed peasants, the devastation of humble towns and rude countryof millions of money,

Wars have been waged for military politics. ambition, but who is the Napoleon of the United States? They have been due to colonial expansion, but half the States are sparsley peopled; and they have been fought for liberty—and what warm have been fought for liberty—and what warm have been fought for liberty—and what warm have the same labels.

Mexico City, November 21.—The Chamber of Deputies, immediately after the foll call at tonight's session, adjourned until tomorrow, Speaker and what wars have we seen lately sheltering under this claim? But the historic reasons here. A war between the United States and Mexico, if it arises, will be the first war waged solely for private greed—the first war way are green as a solely for private greed—the first war way are green as a solely for private greed—the first war way.

money grubbers' war."
After saying that the United States have been filching territory from their neighbors for 60 years and have reate revolutions in Trinidad and Ja-maica, as it alleges they did in Panama and predicts the annexation of the among whom we refrain from men-tioning Dr. Wilson," the article says n conclusion, "get their way, in a few weeks, perhaps days, Jim Smith, of Virginia, will be cutting the throat of Leon Ramies, of Morelos, in the sacred name of the oil trusta and the Bank of Wall Street byens.

High Handed Practice.

Mexico City, Nov. 21—The bulk of the evidence at hand continues to indicate that Victoriane Huerta is unaldicate that Victoriano Huerta is unalterably determined not to accede to the demands of the United States government for his elimination as President of Mexico, but there is some asis for the belief that he may at ast give in, but in such a manner as to leave the impression that he acted of his own free will, defying Washing-

High-handed parliamentary practice n the Chamber of Deputies this afternoon gave rise to considerable specu lation. The roll of members was call ed and it was evident that a quorum was present, but Col. Victor Corral, presiding in the absence of Speaker Tamariz, said to be ill, declared there vas no quorum.

Not a deputy protested and the chamber stood adjourned until tomor-

It was suggested that this action might be part of a plan to bring about the death of Congress and thus split hairs with the Washington government which through John Lind, President William President William President Presiden dent Wilson's personal representative, ad insisted that the new legislative edy should not come into existence. Under the law should there be no forum three times in succession the louse would be automatically dissolved. One prominent Mexican, specu lating upon the motive for today's adnerely a time saving device, adding time for Huerta today is fine spun Proposition Submitted. It became known today that Manuel Garza Aldape, prior to his expulsion from the cabinet, submitted for the onsideration of the United States a reposition signed by President Huer-a that Congress should meet merely or the transactions of three or four namely: ratification of the October 11th, dissolving Congress; declaring the elections of President, Vice President and the Congress null and calling for new elections. For this reason it is not believed that the no quorum rule will be carried out indefinitely. Government Government officials are authority for the statenent that there has been inaugurated etween American Charge O'Shaugh nessy and Mexico certain negotia-tions. Confirmation of this is not ob-n representations made by Sir Lionel arden, became known here today. It lso was learned that a counter order was made as the result of an energy Setie communication from Secretary cers as follows:

London, Nev. 22.—Under the heading "A Money Grubbers' War" the Outlook today publishes a bitter article on the Mexican situation.

"Across the Atlantic," the Outlook says, "there is in busy preparation, if cortain forces can accomplish it, a leveling the more easily controlled.

sides, the sufferings of the helpless ence between his contemplated act and the innocent and the outpouring and that of Huerta is that Huerta acted within the realm of internal polities, while President Wilson would "And all for what or for whom? make the affair one of international

Met and Adjourned. Tamariz announcing that there was no

It was evident tonight that there had been no material change in the relations of the Mexican and American governments, although it was learned that Nelson O'Shaughnessy, American charge d'affaires, has had two conference with the Mexican minister of foreign affairs during the past few duced weak States to obsequious de- Assurances were given at the em- and Georgia. He has accepted none pendents through the Monroe Doc bassy today that no instructions had thus far. post. It is known that his personal affairs are in such order that he could leave at an hour's notice if necessity northern Mexican States.

A demand has been made by the "If the guides of American opinion, Federal military authorities on all the foreign business concerns in Monterey for cash to provide for the maintenance of the army in that district. From the Monterey Steel Company 20, ood pesos was asked and from the Waters Pierce Oil Company 15,000 pesos. Others were taxed in proportion to their importance. The managers of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company in structed their representative in Monterey to refuse payment and to place themselves and property of the company under the protection of the American consul. Hard fighting was still in progress oday about Ciudad Victoria, according to information issued by the war office. Although the city was said to have been captured by the rebels on Puesday last, it is now claimed that General Antonio Rabago, the Federal commander, is still holding the place although continuous fighting has continued for the last 24 hours.

Vera Cruz, November 21.—Evaristo and Daniel Madero, two relatives of the late President of Mexico, were Maderos Guarded. taken today on board the American flagship from the consulate where they took refuge last night.

After their release yesterday from he fortress of San Juan Ulua, the two Maderos sought asylum in the American consulate.

At about 9 o'clock the two fugitives escorted only by John Lind as personal representative of President and William W. Canada, the United States consul. left the consulate build ing and walked to the steam launch with an armed crew of blue jackets rom the battleship Rhode Island. The refugees boarded the launch which immediately started for the flagship. As they were bidding good-bye to Mr. Lind at the launch, Evaristo Ma-

"Only God can save Mexico," which his brother Daniel added; But only with the help of the Unit

The transfer of the refugees to the Louisiana was effected after a request for their surrender to the local au-(Continued on Page Eight.)

Dr. Henderson Is Elected President

State Literary and Historical Soclety-Ambassador Jusserand Addresses Big Audience.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 21.-The North Carolina Literary and Historical As sociation tonight elected Dr. Archibald Henderson, of the University of North Carolina, president, and other offi-in Dixie During the New Year Holidays.

To Avoid Shaking Hands With Thousands of People at the Annual

White House Reception He Calls It Off.

Washington, Nov. 21.-There will be no New Year's reception at the White House. President Wilson said today that during the holiday recess of Congress he would take a ten-day

The New Year's reception is one of the best established historic institutions connected with the White

No predictions were made by White louse officials as to what the Presilent would do for the succeeding New Year's day of his administration, but it is known President Wilson is oping hands with the thousands.

osed to the physical ordeal of shak-

The President will go South to some quiet place where he can play golf and enjoy the seclusion and privacy of which he is so fond when on a va-

Numerous invitations have been received for the President to go to places in North Carolina, South Carolina

HONORS TO FOREIGNERS.

in the Feature Event of Afternoon

New York, Nov. 21.-Chief honors

vent to foreigners in the feature

he National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden today—the trial of nunters over the water jump, a leap at first of 15 feet and finally widened to 18 feet. Twenty-three horses were First prize went to Romeo, exhibited by the French government and rid-ion by Lieut. LeMarquis D'Orgeix, econd to Ramuncho, owned and rid-len by Chevalier Edward De Selliers

de Granville, Belgium.

The Alfred B. MacLay cup for hunters was won by Lansdown, ex-hibited by Gerald T. Hanley and rid-den by F. Ambrose Clark.

Princeton, N. J., November 21.— Before leaving for Cambridge this afternoon to witness the football game tomorrow the Princeton football men who have played against both Harvard and Yale gave the victory to Harvard by a 13 to 1 vote. The one dissenting cice was that of Captain Ba-

Appointed by New York Cotton Exchange to Look Into Changes of Grades, Etc.—Recommends

Several Revisions.

New York, Nov. 21.-The special committee appointed by the board of standards and to inquire into conditions of trading in the local market, made its report late today. It recomstandard types of grades and half grades of white cotton promulgated 1909 for the classification of Gulf and Texas cotton, adding thereto one lowed that types of upland white cotton equivalent in grade should be prepared by the exchange to be used for the classification of upland cottons and secure the co-operation of the Department of Agriculture and of Congress in having such upland types added to and made the government standard types for upland cotton, and adding hereto one lower grade.

It was recommended also that the government standard types be adopted with the additions noted to take by the Department of Agriculture in tems of the nation.

vacation in the South.

House

To Spend Ten-Day Vacation Position of President Wilson Inter-State Commerce Com- In Address Before Pan-Ameron Mexico is Rather

on Brick Layers, Masons and Plasterers Other Fea-

merican Federation of Labor today refused to adopt a resolution condemning armed intervention in Mexico. Instead the convention unanimously aconted the following resolutions and had had much correspondence on the subject. He continued:

this subject in a statesmanlike way

We ought to strengthen his hands in trying to find a peaceful solution of the problem; but I don't think we ought to enable Huerta to say organiz-

(Continued on Page Eight.)

'Phone Co.'s Case

Hearing American

Vail Didn't Force Out Competition

Lower Rates But to Get Control of the Business.

Chicago, Nov. 21.-Further information on the activities in 1912 of the American Telephone & Telegraph

Co., to absorb 20,000 independent con-

Sherman anti-trust law.

nended that the exchange adopt the plan for a division of territory be-

The committee further recommend- Vail's point was that competition in nate costly competition.

'President Wilson has approached

Nations.

eace, declaring:

Nov. 21.-The

ON INTERVENTION

missioner Marble Victim of Acute Indigestion.

International Peace is Favored-War Was Taken Sick While Conducting In-

Washington, Nov. 21.—John H. Marble, a member of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, died here tonight following an attack of acute indigestion by which he was stricken yesterday in Philadelphia. Mr. Marble's death came unexpectedly, not even the members of his vestigation of Anthracite Coal-carrying Roads in Philadelphia-Journalist.

demns attempts being made by American and foreign corporations and certain lings, newspapers to force armed intervention by the United States government in Mexico and urges upon the President of the United States that the commissioner of the United States that the commissioner in Mexico and urges are also and their 18
"Monroe Doctrine" be given up and a policy of Pan-American defense a policy of Pan-American defense adopted. Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale, expressed similar views.

Charles. H. Sherrill, former American defense adopted. Further McGuire confessed to have the family physician having just been called.

The commissioner are also and their 18
"Monroe Doctrine" be given up and a policy of Pan-American defense adopted. Prof. Hiram Bingham, of Yale, expressed similar views.

Charles. H. Sherrill, former American defense and policy of Pan-American defense and policy of States that the continuance of a polfrom Philadelphia last night where he icy looking to a peaceful adjustment had been conducting the commission-of the conflict among the Mexican ers' investigation of anthracite coal-John Mitchell took the floor and suddenly ill and his condition was so begged the convention not to hamper President Wilson. While he was a peace advocate he believed there were conditions that sometimes justified war within a Nation and between the stood the trip well and apparently was much improved when he reached the stood that the stood the trip well and apparently was much improved when he reached the stood that the stood that it was decided to postpone the hearings and bring him home. He stood the trip well and apparently was much improved when he reached the stood that it was decided to postpone the hearings and bring him home. but apparently there were no indica-President Compers said the subject tions that the patient's condition was had taken much time of the legisla-tive council which had listened to until this evening, when Mr. Marble attacked with nauseating spells He died at 7:30 o'clock. Washington Shocked. The news shocked Washington officials, particularly Mr. Marble's associates on the commission. Funeral arrangements had not been completed tonight, but the body probably will be taken to Mr. Marble's old home in San Francisco for interment. ed labor will not permit intervention Mr. Marble had been connected with the Inter-State Commerce Com-mission for a number of years. He first came here in 1906 as confidential clerk to Commissioner Franklin K. and that he may go on with his bloody The Mexican question was brought up after the convention had adopted a declaration in favor of international clerk to Commissioner Franklin K. Lane now Secretary of the Interior. 'It is not lack of love of country Shortly afterward he was made attorwhich prompts the tollers to protest ney in charge of division of prosecu-

> Later he was appointed secretary of the commission and acted as its legal adviser. He succeeded Mr. Lane when the latter entered Presi-Wilson's cabinet and had been active in the commission's cases, particularly its criminal prosecutions. During the Lorimer investigation in the Senate he was given a leave of absence to appear as counsel for the investigating committee. Mr. Marble was 46 years of age and before coming here practiced law and engaged in newspaper work on the Pacific coast. He once was a linotype opera-

Not for U. S. Senate Anyway-Doesn't foreign commerce."

Believe Anybody Can Beat Overman-C. A. Webb Calls on McReynolds.

(Special Star Telegram.) Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.-Cam-

Mr. Morrison said he had heard of to the advisability of his being a can-didate against Mr. Overman. It is understood that Mr. Morrison him-self was honored with one of these Webb Calls on McReynolds. State Chairman Charles A. Webb called on Attorney General McRey noids and talked over the marshalship appointment. Mr. McReynolds told Mr. Webb that he would make the appointment immediately after the Fall term of the Federal court adjourns. W. C. Hammer, who has been rec ommended for the district attorney-ship, did not arrive today as was ex-pected. It is said he will be here either tomorrow or early next week. Representative Webb within a short time will recommend Hunter Patterson for postmaster at King's Mountain and J. R. Rankin for Gastonia. Mr.

SUDDEN DEATH OF TUCKER ATTACKS WELL KNOWN MAN MONROE DOCTRINE MURPHY'S PARTNER

ican Conference Held at Clark University.

MAY COME TO WILMINGTON THE SESSIONS AT SEATTLE BURIED IN SAN FRANCISCO DEFENDED BY SEVERAL OTHERS DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS A CRIME

General Discussion of America's Relations With Countries of Latin and South America-Protection of Panama Canal.

Worcester, Mass, Nov. 21.-The Monroe Doctrine was attacked and deended at today's sessions of the Pan-American Conference at Clark University. George F. Tucker, of Boston, author of books on South Amer-ntervened in Mexico, Argentine or some other South American country be invited to join.

he relations of the United States to he larger Nations of South America should be as an equal among equals, the question of the Caribbean, the Gulf of Mexico and that part of the Pacific ordering Central America had a different status.

"Under no circumstances," said he, footholds in these regions. The protection of the Panama canal demands 250 from Arthur S. Johnson, sales part of foreign Nations to secure new such an attitude.

Callahan Takes issue.

Professor James W. Callahan, of West Virginia, defended the Monroe Doctrine, saying it had aided the people who were struggling to free themselves from conditions imposed by European politics and had prevented the partition of Latin America.

The conference ended tonight with two addresses. W. B. Boyce, publisher and author, spoke on The Advantage of Making the Panama Canal Zone a Free City, and Free Port," and John Hays Hammend, the mining exert, discussed "The Development of our South American Trade. Dr. Tucker, in urging the abandonment of the Monroe Doctrine, said: "If the Monroe Doctrine is asserted o any further extent, the Catholic spirit of the patriot and not the inflamed temper of the jingist should be brought to the settlement of the lifferences. Even those South Amercans who don t fear our imperialism ealized the selfishness of the Monroe Doctrine and it makes them dislike and mistrust our foreign policy. "We owe it to ourselves to give up the words 'Monroe Doctrine' and to adopt a policy of Pan-American deense, which will enable us to secure the friendship and support of our neighbors in the Western Hemisphere, which will increase our influence for good among them, and will remove any rjanjanjanjanjanjanjanjanjanja ojanjanjanja ojanjanjanjanjanjanjanj

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—William F. Baker, president of the Philadelphia National League

Progressive Party Will Be Absorbed

William F. McCombs Thinks Republi cans Are Democrats' Ablest Foes. Not Going to France.

Washington, Nov. 21.-William F acCombs, chairman of the Democrat c National Committee, after a conference today with President Wilson, announced that he believed the Republican party would be the chief rival of the Democratic party for the Presi-

He and Young Murphy Agreed to Divide Profits Made on Bonding Business-Things Are Looking Bad for Some.

Confessed to Having Held Up

Three Asphalt Companies

for Big Contributions.

New York, Nov. 21.-George H. Mc-Guire, the Syracuse bonding agent for State highways and barge canal contractors, is a partner of Charles F. Murphy, Jr., nephew of the leader of Tammany Hall. He so testified today ing attempted to "hold up" at least three asphalt companies for $5,000 contributions to the State Democratic committee, in return for State highway contracts. McGuire was to get a Rear Admiral French E. Chadwick, commission of one cent a gallon for J. S. N., retired, declared that while the State or to contractors, he said, and the companies were to charge the contributions against the commission Two of the companies—the Warner Quinlan Company and the Union Oil Company of California—did not contribute, he said. Whether the third, the Barber Asphalt Company, contribcan we brook any attempt on the uted, McGuire said he did not know agent of the Barber company, but insisted that this was not commissions but money given him as campaign contributions to Governor Sulzer.

Last year he received commissions on sales made to the State by the on sales made to the State by the Alston Cament Company, the Dryden Cement Company, the Kentucky Rock Asphalt Company, and the Knicker-bocker Cement Company, he testified.

McGuire again denied that in company with his brother James K. McGuire, he had seen Governor Sulzer and John N. Carlisle, commissioner of highways, at Cooperstown, N. Y. July 5th, and discussed specifications under which the Barber Asphalt Company would obtain State contracts to the exclusion of all other companies. Suggested Contribution. McGuire admitted having "suggested" to a representative of the concern that it make a $5,000 campaign contribution to the Democratic State committee in return for getting a State contract. Did you know it was a crime to soicit these contributions?" asked District Attorney Whitman. licit these commissions," replied Mc-In regard to his association with Charles F. Murphy, Jr., in the bonding business, McGuire said he had an agreement with the Tammany leader's nephew which embraced a divihandicap in the development of our the bonding of all barge canal, State highway, subway and aqueduct con-tracts. They both represented the United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company, and last year they had obtained about 25 per cent of State highway bonding business. Edward P. Bugard, a Buffalo con-ractor and chairman of the Demoeron Morrison, of Charlotte, said today that he is not a candidate for the Senate to succeed Senator Lee S.

Overman. Not only that, but the Charlotte man says he does not believe that any one will defeat the junior Senator.

Games are planned with InterGames are planned with InterGames are planned with InterGames are planned with InterGeneral today that he had a $2, 500,000 State barge canal contract. He had contributed $1,000 to the Democratic State committee in 1911 and in 1912 had turned over $6,000 as contributions from other contractors.

Three more State contractors testimington until March 23rd.

Games are planned with InterGeneral today that he had a $2, 500,000 State barge canal contract. He had contributed $1,000 to the Democratic State committee in 1911 and in 1912 had turned over $6,000 as contributions from other contractors.

Three more State contractors testimington until March 23rd.

Games are planned with InterGeneral today that he had a $2, 500,000 State barge canal contract. He had contributed $1,000 to the Democratic State committee in 1911 and in 1912 had turned over $6,000 as contributions from other contractors.

Three more State contractors testimington until March 23rd.

Games are planned with InterGeneral today that he had a $2, 500,000 State barge canal contract. He had contributed $1,000 to the Democratic State committee in 1911 and in 1912 had turned over $6,000 as contributions from other contractors.

Three more State contractors testimington until March 23rd. ty, testified today that he had a $2, national League and New York - contributions to Everett P. Fowler, alleged Tammany "bagman." They were John H. Weidman, Charles O. McCumb and Guy B. Dickson, all of Syracuse and enrolled Republicans.

They produced their checks amounting to $200 each and payable to Norman E. Mack.

All declared they would not have given the money if it had not been for their State contracts. The inquiry will be resumed Monday.

HIS TOWNSPEOPLE WITH HIM.

Oliver Says Reidsville Doesn't Endorse Simmons' Action.
(Special Star Telegram.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—Before leaving for home tonight, John T. Oliver, whom Senator Simmons. prevented from being postmaster at Reidsville, said that it was most grafying to him to know that there was not over a dozen people in Reidsville, including men, women and children, both white and colored, who were glad of his defeat. "I think I am conservative when I say that I do not believe there are

OUTLINES

tween the American and Independent companies had not been to effect a saving in operating the telephone sysidea I think there was no particular intention of reducing the telephone cost to the public. In a word Mr.

some districts was too severe and he was desirous of eliminating that com-

"Partly," he said, "but back of the George McGuire admitted in the effect beginning April 1, 1915. The committee stated that while advocating the adoption of the government standard types, it was nevertheless of the opinion that it would be better ion, didn't crowd out competition in

John Doe proceedings in New York yesterday that he and Charles F. Mur-phy, Jr., a nephew of the Tammany boss, were partners in the bonding Hearing of the American Telephone cerns was given today by B. G. Hubbell, of Buffalo, in the American company's hearing for violation of the Mr. Hubbell, who is president of the Federal Telephone & Telegraph Co., said he thought the motive of the American company was to elimimanagers of the New York Cotton by the American company to retain Exchange on October 2nd to consider control of the Stromberg Carlson, of the question of changing existing type Richester, N. Y., reputed to be the standards and to inquire into condiphone supplies in the country.

Mr. Hubbell was asked on cross ex

"I am not a candidate for the Sen ate," said Mr. Morrison. "I think Senator Overman should be re-elected and I believe any one who runs against him will be defeated.' the letters being sent out by former Governor Glenn, asking "advice" as of State Byran to the British ambies of State Byran to the British ambies of the state of the st

THEY ARE COMING!

baseball club, announced today State League clubs on the way