TURKEY DAY GAMES ON THE GRIDIRON

Virginia-Carolina Game of Much Interest

WASHINGTON & LEE VS. A. & M.

Game of Greatest Interest in the South Will be Played at Austin, Texas, Between Notre Dame and Texas.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 26.-Chief in interest among the football games which tomorrow will mark the end of the season in the South will be that between the University of Texas and Notre Dame at Austin. While Texas always has put a strong eleven in the field, it is agreed by gridiron experts that the team this season propably is the best that ever has represented the Lone Star State. In view of the fact that Notre Dame this year has vanquished many of the strongest elevens in the East, among them the Army and Pennsylvania State, it generally is believed that Texas has little chance of winning.

Of scarcely less importance will be the annual clash of Virginia and North Carolina at Richmond, Va. In the light of games played so far this year Virginia should emerge victorious over its traditional rival, but recently North Carolina has been working desperately to improve its play, in order to give the men from Charlottesville contest of the schedule. the battle of their careers.

Other important games in the tinue the annual triumph over Cornell, although it is conceded that the game will be hard fought.

Next in importance is the contest between the Carlisle Indians and Brown at Providence. Brown is not likely to do more than hold the Red Men in reasonable check. Other games scheduled in the East
