ton" of its splendor of incandescent lights and ornaments was attended by the pealing of the chimes of nearby churches and the singing of Christmas carols by the Oratorio Society of New York, and the Gwent Welch Male Choir.

To the second tree standing in City Hall Park, Mayor Adolph Kluge gave official recognition by touching a button, which lighted the thousands of colored electric lights with which the tree was decorated. The police department band and the choruses of the United Singers supplied the music.

Free coffee, cake and sandwiches were distributed to the needy who had gathered about the tree in City Hall Park, and a similar provision will be made tomorrow night on Madison Square. The tree inaugurated by Mayor Kluge will be lighted every evening from 5:30 to 12 o'clock, until January 2.

Opera Stars Sing. Chicago, Dec. 24.—Chicago's first municipal Christmas festival was held in Grant Park tonight. Thousands of children and citizens generally, viewed the 75-foot Christmas tree, listened to stars of grand opera who sang classics through megaphones; to the full chorus of the Chicago Opera company and to speeches by Mayor Harrison and others.

Atmospheric conditions permitted the testing of the effect of the Grant park illuminations for during three hours of the morning, and one hour in the afternoon, fog and smoke plunged the city into darkness of midnight.

A random example of the abundant provision made was seen when the county agent gave out 1,000 Christmas baskets in the West Side slums and had 4,000 baskets more for distribution tomorrow.

First at Milwaukee. Milwaukee, Dec. 24.—Milwaukee's Christmas celebration was officially begun at 5 o'clock this afternoon with the ringing of every church bell in the city for five minutes. With the last note came the illumination of the communal Christmas tree in the Court of Honor on Grand avenue.

There were peaches, music and distribution of nuts and candy to children.

Detroit Celebrates. Detroit's first municipal Christmas tree, gaily decorated, was the center of attraction for thousands of citizens and a large band and orchestra furnished music. Dinners to Unfortunates.

Columbus, O., Dec. 24.—Thousands of residents in many Ohio cities tonight celebrated Christmas Eve with community Christmas trees and completed preparations for serving thousands of unfortunates with Christmas dinners tomorrow. Church chimes, large choruses and brass bands furnished music for the municipal celebrations.

All Over Indiana. Indianapolis, Dec. 24.—Thousands of Indiana residents began tonight in many ways to celebrate the Christmas spirit to their less fortunate neighbors. Municipal trees, for the first time in the State, became a leading feature in the celebration.

Newspapers took the lead in several cities in providing toys for the children and Christmas dinners for the poor.

Hungry horses will be given a Christmas feast in Evansville and at the expense of Adolph Melzer, philanthropist.

Present to President. New York, Dec. 24.—A painting which President Woodrow Wilson has long admired will be one of his most prized Christmas gifts, it was learned here tonight. The art work is a landscape, "The Woodchoppers," by H. Hobard Nichols, widely known as a landscape artist. Mrs. Wilson, herself an artist of fast growing repute, is the donor.

The canvas has been on view in the Corcoran gallery in Washington, where the President had seen it and expressed his admiration for the work. With knowledge of this, Mrs. Wilson bought the picture and has made it a Christmas gift to her husband.

In Old New Hampshire. Concord, N. H., Dec. 24.—Community Christmas trees were illuminated tonight in most of the cities of the State. In nearly every case it was the first general celebration of the Christmas festival.

Carols Sing by Choir. New Haven, Conn., Dec. 24.—Many cities and towns in Connecticut held municipal Christmas celebrations tonight. In New Haven 15,000 persons crowded the historic "green" and heard carols sung by a large choir and saw the illumination of a great pine tree.

Brilliant Spectacle at Capital. Washington, Dec. 24.—"Peace on earth, good will to man." This sentence, blazing from a brilliantly lighted electric placard raised almost to the dome of the Capitol, reflected the predominant theme of the thousands who assembled on the Capitol plaza tonight to celebrate Washington's first "Community Christmas."

A giant Norway spruce illuminated with glimmering red, white and blue electric bulbs, the marine band, a huge electric star of the East, and a chorus of 1,000 singers with the Capitol itself outlined as the background against the dark curtain of the city, made a scene of impressive beauty. Tableau, representing the story of the nativity, were presented in the improvised amphitheatre.

Official Washington was conspicuously tonight by its absence. Most of the members of the President's cabinet, nearly all the cabinet officers are away and with the sole exception of the postoffice department, Washington was officially dead.

Employees at the postoffice toiled all night with an avalanche of mails. The mail room was stacked with well filled bags and in accordance with Postmaster General Burleson's announcement today the bags had to be emptied by Christmas eve. The postoffice Christmas cheer went out from the White House today to hundreds of the needy in Washington by direction of the President and Mrs. Wilson and their daughters, Margaret and Eleanor. Before the President's family left for Mississippi last night, deserving families in the capital had been listed for Christmas gifts.

Many of those had been discovered by Mrs. Wilson and her daughters by personal investigations.

Two large automobile trucks left the White House early today loaded with turkeys, hams, vegetables, cooked foods of many kinds, fruits and nuts and a glittering array of toys and knock-knacks for children of the poor.

Snow is Lacking. New York, Dec. 24.—Lacking only a blanket of snow to give the traditional Christmas atmosphere to the scene New York began tonight a Christmas celebration which promised to be one of the most joyous in years. The less fortunate were well remembered by the charitable, with the result that many thousands of the city's poor will eat substantial turkey dinners tomorrow.

Thanks to the existence of a Christmas fund reserve held over from years when collections were more generously responded to than this year the 427 employees of the New York Stock Exchange were able today to divide $12,000 among themselves. Because business during the year had been indifferent, members of the exchange subscribed only $6,500. Form subscriptions ran as high as $30,000.

Members of the exchange celebrated Christmas in a noisy manner today. At 3 o'clock two street organs were brought to the floor of the exchange. For twenty minutes two brass bands played discordant melodies for the most part, accompanied by the wild shouts of the brokers.

The Salvation Army has made arrangements to provide Christmas dinner for 25,000 families, and the Volunteers of America will take care of at least another 6,500. Others who will feed the poor are at the Bowery Mission, Timothy D. Sullivan Association, Grace Memorial Lodging House, Mrs. George A. Hearn and Congressman George W. Loft.

It is estimated that about 100,000 of the city's poor will be aided.

Rain at Frisco. San Francisco, Dec. 24.—Rain stopped San Francisco's open air Christmas celebration and turned attention to another form of the same spirit, the feeding of the unemployed.

All unemployed were applied for at the city relief home and after tonight lodgings will be provided for them. Work will be provided, beginning Monday. Married men will be permitted to work three days a week, single men two days, at $2 per day. Plans are for the employment of from 200 to 300 men per day.

It was estimated that from 1,000 to 2,000 men were fed tonight. A movement was started today to open churches as sleeping places.

Children Made Happy. West End Beach, Fla., Dec. 24.—Winter residents of Palm Beach helped make the hearts of a thousand children glad here tonight when gifts were distributed from a Christmas tree decorated with thousands of lights watched the celebration.

Repeat Celebration. Boston, Mass., Dec. 24.—The municipal Christmas celebration of last year was repeated tonight when thousands gathered about a sixty foot evergreen on the common. A vocal and instrumental concert was given and carols were sung.

Snow in Oklahoma. Tulsa, Okla., Dec. 24.—Several thousand persons braved a snow storm and gathered about the municipal Christmas tree at midnight, joining with a chorus of 55 trained voices in singing carols, ushering in Tulsa's first "white Christmas" in a number of years.

Immense Christmas Tree. Philadelphia, Dec. 24.—Elaborate celebrations in connection with community Christmas trees were held for the first time today in many cities throughout Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware.

In Philadelphia thousands hailed the lighting up of the 67 foot spruce with shouts of delight. In the afternoon the Christmas tree was lit and houses throughout the city and headed long lines of children to the scene.

TRADE GOOD AT BURGAW. Shipments of "Booze" Heavy—Christmas Turkeys A-Plenty.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Burgaw, N. C., Dec. 24.—Christmas trade here has been very good here all this week, the merchants appearing to have all they could do. A look into the express office reveals the fact that a great many people think they can't get enough of the "booze."

The trains from the North all run late on account of delivering whiskey. Much the larger part of the shipments to the market here is for negroes. The market here has been quite well supplied with turkeys, the prices ranging from 18 to 20 cents a pound.

Among the visitors and others here for Christmas are Rev. James Thomas and Mrs. Thomas, of Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Turner, of Monbo; Mr. and Mrs. L. Cook and children, of Chattanooga; Mr. and Mrs. Lauchlin McNeill, of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Perkins, of Elizabethtown; Mrs. T. C. Turnage, of Farmville; Messrs. Lewis Herring and Howard Moore, of Richmond, Va.

TELEPHONE AIDS CUPID. Miss Rena E. Ewell and Mr. Fernie Howard Married.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Barbours, N. C., Dec. 24.—With the aid of the telephone, Cupid won late yesterday afternoon, when Miss Rena E. Ewell became the bride of Mr. Fernie Howard, the ceremony being performed in the parlors of Hotel Farquhar by Rev. Richard Fountain. The young couple came here from Williamston, but as the bride-to-be was under age, it was necessary to secure the consent of the mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Ewell.

Taking advantage of the telephone in the register of deeds office, the groom, not to be disappointed, with the wife with the usual wedding presents was granted and after several hours delay the necessary paper was issued by Mr. H. S. Bunn. The couple were immediately to the hotel where in the presence of a few friends the ceremony took place. Mr. and Mrs. Howard left on a tour of North-eastern cities following the marriage.

CONTINUE TESTIMONY. In Schmidt Case—Doctors Say He is Crazy.

New York, Dec. 24.—Carlos F. McDonald was called by the State today to refute the testimony given by the alienists of the defense in the trial of Hans Schmidt, accused of the murder of Anna Amuller. He examined the ex-prisoner on September 24th and quoted Schmidt as saying that he had killed the woman because he felt that she was a person who had accomplished a required act or command.

Dr. McDonald's testimony had not been completed when court adjourned until Friday. The last of the defense alienists by M. S. Gregory of Bellevue hospital, testified today that Schmidt's mind was so obsessed with the idea of sacrifice that he did not think of man-made law when he killed Anna Amuller.

MISS BRANCE SICK. On Verge of Collapse Lady is Cared For by Authorities.

Monticello, N. Y., Dec. 24.—Miss Adelaide M. Brance, 74, in the double life led by Melville H. Couder who died last Sunday of heart failure, is still a voluntary prisoner here. Physicians who examined here today say she is on the verge of collapse.

In her ravings the woman calls continually for Couch and pleads for death in order that she may join him. A brother of Miss Brance, living at Cartwright called on Sheriff Kinne today and announced that he would take the woman home next Friday. He had believed his sister to be dead until the events of last Sunday.

HINKEY TO BE COACH. Famous End for Yale in '90s to Direct Next Year's Team.

Dayton, O., Dec. 24.—Frank Hinkey, star of the '90s, will be head coach of the Yale football eleven next fall. This announcement was made today by Capt. Nelson Talbot, at his home here for the holidays.

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 24.—Frank Hinkey, who has been appointed head coach of the Yale football team, succeeds Howard Jones, who during the last season began his work as Yale's first salaried football coach under a contract which is understood to accept a lucrative business proposition.

Hinkey was graduated from Yale in 1885. Many football experts regard him as one of the best ends who ever wore the blue. For the first time in many years, Hinkey assisted in the coaching at Yale field last fall. He is known as an aggressive and open style of play and is a firm believer in the forward pass.

The flow of application membership in the new system was greatly accelerated today, and one of the first duties of the secretaries will be promulgation of rules for acceptance of this.

"We do not propose to let any grass grow under the feet of the organization," said Secretary McAdoo today. "We are going to take these problems carefully but quickly."

It is believed that the clearing house will register its endorsement of the measure.
