ARE YOU A MEMBER?

Elbert Hubbard says: "Not to Advertise is down and-out club." Star advertising will put you in the up-and-doing club.

OL. XCIII-NO. 94.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 9, 1914.

WHOLE NUMBER 13,529.

Reinforcements and Ammuni- Plan to Errect Monument to Of New Haven Road Before Democratic Ladies Choose Curtail Discussion of Debat- With Request Not to Open President Western Federation tion Have Arrived.

Nine Generals and Four Thousand Soldiers Will Die in Trenches Before They Will Desert Across the Border.

Ojinaga, Mexico, January 8 .- Returning today to Ojinaga from a represent a solid front when they again both Republicans and Democrats. march on Ojinaga.

them opportunity to prepare resistance and General Villa will have had to increase the rebel force greatly to repeat the six days' battle of last week when the rebels reached within 400 yards of the Ojinaga trenches without ning able to take them.

General Francisco Castro, commanhe was confident his army never ould be beaten by He Said he was well aware that the impending conflict was of momentous importance to the Huerta regime. It would settle, e said, a question whether the Mexco City government was to maintain its authority in the north or whether the "lawless rabble which goes by the name of Constitutionalists is to have Federals Endure Hardships The Federal commander said soldiers had endured hardships, had gone without food for days, ragged and footsore, they had marched over the waterless desert as a token of their loyalty, and he did not believe they would run at the sound of battle. 'We'll never retreat, but all of us will die right here in Ojinaga if our ammunition gives out," said General Castro, himself garbed in a torn and dusty uniform as evidence of the re-

Reports reached headquarters that since their withdrawal from the battle early Monday the rebels had not only been strengthened by reinforcements from Chihuahua, but that they also had obtained quantities of ammunition. The Federal army has only what ammunition was left after the battle and has no means of replenishing its Marines to Mexico. Washington, January 8.—Four hundred marines in the Panama canal zone today were ordered to american warships off the east coast of Mexico, which will double the marine guard aboard the vessels. Secretary Daniels explained that the transfer was for the health of the men who have been on the isthmus for many months and whose duty there ended when the War Department recently sent regular troops to permanently garrison the canal zone. He said the action could not be connected in any way with the recent visit of John Lind to Gulfport.

This official statement was issued: The recent approved recommenda tion of the general board for the redistribution of marines provided for the withdrawal of the marine detachment on the Isthmus of Panama to unite with larger commands. Reunder which this detachment is operating has led the department to decide on their immediate withdrawal. These marines temporarily will be distributed among the ships at Vera

Reports to the State Department in dicate that contending factions in Mexico are taking a breatning spel in preparation for a series of general engagements all along the border and as far east as Tampico on the gulf. None of today's reports told of fresh hattles, and in the opinion of army experts, Federals at Ojinaga, Nuevo Laredo and Tampico are busy with ick and shovel strengthening defenses, while Constitutionalists are waiting for ammunition and reforming their lines for another attack.

Carranza Moving. Maytorena, Sonora, Jan. 8.—Gen. Carranza, most of his cabinet ministers, and the expedition of Gen. Lucle Blanco, are on their way to Culiacan, below Nogales, on the Arizona border. The proposed trip into Chi-huahua admittedly had been aban-

When Carranza's special train left Hermosillo today it was not known until the main line was reached what direction the Constitutionalist leader would take. By this route, Chihuahua can be reached oonly by a circuitous journey over the mountains and north again toward the Texas border. had been expected that Gen. Carran-za would make an automobile trip to Juarez along the Arizona border. Mayof Gen. Blanco.

above Guaymas, which still remains in the hands of Gen. Ojeda's Federals. tax on gross revenues. from this point the trip must be made

Mancilla Was Sick. San Antonio, Texas, Jan. 8.—Gen. Jose Mancilla, who left the Federal Hero of New Orleans.

Meetings Held in Many Cities to Com- Road Began Work With Interstate Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, Wife of Flor- Mexico Policy Has Been Freely Dismemorate Day-Gore of Oklahoma Addresses Democrats in St. Louis.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 8 .- On the anniversary of the battle of New Or- day of conference with Attorney Gen- man's National Democratic League connoitering trip ten miles inland, leans, formal steps to erect a monu- eral McReynolds, Chairman Howard closed its annual convention today General Pasqual Orozco, commander ment to Andrew Jackson, its hero, Elliott, of the New Haven Railroad, with the election by acclamation of of the Federal volunteers, said he had were taken at a banquet given here left Washington tonight to meet his Mrs. William A. Cullop, wife of Repencountered only the outposts of the tonight at the Hermitage club. The directors in New York tomorrow, still resentative Cullop, of Indiana, to the rebel army. The rebels were believed banquet was attended by 150 repre- hopeful that the Department of Jus- presidency. No resolution was adoptto be concentrating under personal di- sentative men, coming from many tice will agree to such plans for a re- ed urging legislation upon the party. rection of General Francisco Villa to States and including in its personnel organization of the road as its offi-

All nine generals who remain in the Major E. B. Stahlman, who presided ington Saturday or Monday, when, trenches here with the 4,000 Huerta at the meeting, to appoint a committee it is believed the Attorney General of 25 to form the Andrew Jackson and his assistants will press the whole der their constitution only issues out-National Monument Association. Ar- New Haven case to some conclusion, ticles of incorporation are to be taken out and trustees appointed from every State in the Union. The monument is to be erected in Nashville, 12 miles distant from "The Hermitage" where the New Haven had taken the first no attempt to do so. President Jackson lived and where step to bring before the Interstate der of the Federal regular army, said his body is buried. President Wilson Commerce Commission the question Mrs. Cullop as acting president and has already assented to become the of its retention of competing steam- presiding officer disturbed today's prohonorary president of the association, stipulating, however, that no appropriation is to be asked of Congress. One of the speakers at the banquet was Governor Ben W. Hooper, of Tennessee, a Republican, who said in

> "Among the Presidents of this nation there have been many great men, but to the popular mind only three stand out with marked distinctness. The virtues of the others may always be known to the close and scholarly student of history, but successive generations of American citizenship will most vividly behold the clear-cut figures of Washington, Jackson and

Other speakers included Major E B. Stahlman, toastmaster; John Trotwood Moore, poet and author who read an original poem appropriate to the occasion "Finis"; Congressmen F. J. Garrett and Joseph W. Byrns, of Tennessee districts; Hilary E. Howse, mayor of Nashville, and C. P. Mooney, of Memphis.

Wilson's Message. The following telegram from President Woodrow Wilson was read by the toastmaster: Will you not give the diners at the Jackson Dinner my most cordial greetings and say that I wish most sincerely that I could be present in order to join in doing honor to the great Democrat, who served the countary with so high a courage. Among others who sent telegrams were Secretary Bryan, Attorney Gen-McReynolds, Judge Horace Lur-

ton, Secretary of the Navy Daniels, Former Speaker Cannon, Senator Lea, Speaker Clark, Senator Chilton, Senator Ollie James, Secretary of War Garrison, Postmaster General Burleson, Melville E. Stone, John Temple Graves, Governors Colquitt, Baldwin, act, but the Sherman law and if it

West, McCreary and Lister. Hundreds of other congratulatory messages were received including one from Samuel Jackson, of Carrick Ferreland, the nearest living relative of President Jackson.

by listening to speeches by Senator Thomas P. Gore, Oklahoma; Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, and Senator William H. Thompson, of Kansas. Secretary McAdoo Gives Out Political workers from all parts of Missouri attended a banquet at which the speeches were delivered. Senator Reed said the last National lection "broke the strangle hold of the beneficiaries of special privilege. "The question," he said, "no longer was 'What do the American classes desire, what the financial classes desire, what do the political bosses demand'; but what is for the general

The Democratic party may make mistakes, but it will not join in a deliberate conspiracy against the common man. The President owes his election to no support in this.

"Members of Congress elected with cluding a hearing in the matter of rehim recognize their duties as simflar

(Continued on Page Eight.)

For $22,000 Back Taxes on Gross Income-Suit Brought by the State.

(Special Star Telegram.)

against the Southern Express Compa-trary may be accepted as unauthoriz-On the train with Carranza were ny a suit for $22,000 balance taxes ed. same number of men under command due, according to contention of the State tax commission for 1909-1912, Maytorena is the insurgent base inclusive, and the first four months of the present year. It is 3 per cent Treasury Department had received from National banks in 45 States 1,-

The company wrongfully deducted 280 notifications of intention to enter by stage to Cruz De Piedra, the in- the amounts paid each year to the the new currency system. Assistant surgent outpost south of Guaymas and thence by rail into Sinaloa. the amounts paid each year to the Secretary Williams announced that express before giving in gross revenue the New England States had presented for this tax. Suit for Lost Check. State Treasurer Lacy prought suit dle Western States 419, the Western army at Ojinaga, Mexico, and crossed today against the Auto Sales Compato Presidio, Texas yesterday, did not ny, of Charlotte, to compel the com-

Conference Is Ended

Commerce Commission to Get Rid of Steamship Line. and Other Holdings.

Washington, Jan. 8.—After another cials believe are practicable. Mr. El-A resolution was adopted endorsing liott is expected to return to Washeither the peaceful one of reorganization or to a dissolution suit in > lines it was said one difficulty controversy when Mr. Eliott left was understood to be the disposition of the New Haven's trolley lines. The New Haven brought the matter of its ownership of competing steamship lines to the attention of the Commerce Commission in compliance with the Panama canal act of 1912. That act prohibited after July 1, 1914, any ownership or interest by a railroad or other common carrier in any common carrier by water, when the railroad carrier. In an emendment the comnission was clothed, with power to raffroad may continue the operation of steamship lines where such service "is of advantage to the convenience and commerce of people." The Application. The New Haven's application asks permission for continuance on the ground that rates are lower on the rail and water routes maintained, than on the all-rail routes. It declares the continuance is of advan-letermine questions of fact as to competition and was authorized to extend beyong July 1st, the time in which a tage to the convenience and commerce of the people. Under this application the New Haven undoubtedly will be granted an opportunity to argue the justness of ts climax. No date has been set tonight to a hearing.

It was pointed out tonight, however that although this step by the New Haven has put the matter of steamship line ownership before the com-mission, it has no binding effect upon the Department of Justice. The de partment is not negotisting with the New Haven over the Panama Canal feels the ownership of steamship lines is in restraint of trade it can adopt its own method of procedure.

St. Louis, Jan. 8.—Democrats of St. Louis tonight observed Jackson day

Statement Yesterday

Neither He Nor Secretary Houston Will Make And Decision in Banking Matter Until Final Hearing.

New York, January 8.-Secretary of the Treasury McAdood who left New York for Boston today, after congional reserve districts provided under the new currency law, issued the following statement:

"Neither Secretary Houston nor have expressed, directly or indirectly, any opinion or formed any conclusions the banking questions, now the subject of investigation by the organization committee under the Federal reserve act nor shall we do so until all the facts have been submitted. We are impressed with the great responsibility resting upon us, and with the necessity for impartial consideration of the views of all sections of the country before a decision is rendered. Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 8.—Attorney standing, we desire to say that all in-General Bickett instituted today ferences and statements to the con-

> Washington, Jan. 8.—At the end tonight of the second week since the approval of the Federal Reserve Act, the 106 notifications, the Eastern States 314, the Southern States 280, the Mid-States 109, and the Pacific States 52.

Banks Give Endorsement.

More than six hundred National banks have notified the Department of

OF WOMANS LEAGUE

able Army Matters.

cussed and Press Matter Given

Out by Some of the Officers, It is Said.

Washington, Jan. 8.—Officers of the United States army in future will not be permitted to discuss publicly "army matters of a debatable nature."

New regulations to cover this point will follow an exchange of memoranand Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, chief of staff, in regard to a published article telling of "free press matter" furnished to newspapers by Arthur W.

objects of the infantry association.

"Please look into the case sufficient-

Interests of Country.

"I feel that the best interests of

"I would like to suggest the formu lation of some regulation which will advise officers of the proper attitude.

Gen. Wood replied: "I have made nquiry of Major Johnson, editor of the Infantry Journal, with reference to the work of the infantry association and find that it has, and is, employing Mr. Dunn as an agent in the publication of data relating to the army, with a view to spreading abroad

what it believes to be valuable information which should be in the hands of the people. I am informed by Major Johnson that they have lim-ted the material to that embodying the approved policy of the War Department. Major Johnson has been nformed of your wishes that all activ-

"I will take immediate steps to present to you for consideration regulations which wil advise officers of the army of what the department considers to be their proper attitude with reference to discussion of matters pertaining to the service or publica-

Bankers' Executive

tion of articles concerning the same.

Committee Unanimous

In Support of Virginia City for Regional Reserve Bank-Goldsboro

Chamber of Commerce Also

Won by Boosters.

Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 8.-The Raleigh chamber of commerce tonight

endorsed Richmond for a reserve regional bank location, the Goldsboro chamber of commerce did likewise, as did the executive committee of the North Carolina Bankers' Association

A feature of the meeting here to-

A. J. Montague, a former governor of Virginia. In both Goldsboro and Ra-leigh the Richmond committee were reminded that North Carolina did not ike Richmond's intervention in its fight for interstate freight rate reduc-

Richmond's Contention.

mond bankers who are on a tour of the Richmond, Va. ,January 8.—Rich-

night was the address of Congressman

in session here today.

the next week.

the infantry association.

Secretary Garrison said:

of duty of such officers.

his matter.

Mrs. W. A. Cullop

FEDERALS WILL FIGHT IT OUT WILSON HEADS ASSOCIATION ELLIOTT GOES TO NEW YORK TO LEAD THEIR ORGANIZATION NEW REGULATIONS ARE MADE CHILDREN

ida's Senator Was Made Vice President-Hears Address in Afternoon.

Washington, January 8 .- The Wo-Throughout the session stress had been laid upon the avowed object of the league to aid in the Congressional campaign in the coming November. and the league leaders held that unlined in the party's platform could be considered. Rumors had it that one element wanted to take up the suffrage With the announcement today that question by resolution, but there was A mild revolt against the rule of Mrs. Charles Morton, had been removed from the path of Washington, questioned some rulings negotiations. The principal point in of the chair and delayed the election by demanding enforcement of a constitutional provision excluding all but members and delegates from the room during elections. The delegates were overwhelmingly in favor of the acting president, however, and the ticket went through as expected.

Mrs. Edward Taylor, wife of Repre sentative Taylor, of Colorado, elected first vice president; Mrs. Dun-Fletcher, of Florida, second vice presdoes or may compete with such water ident; Mrs. John E. Raker, wife of Representative Raker, of California, third vice president; Mrs. L. G. Hoffman, Washington, D. C., recording secretary: Mrs. Randel D. Hopkins, Washington, D. C., corresponding secretary. Charles S. Hamlin, assistant secretary of the treasury, addressed the convention, discussing the measures Congress has enacted since President Wilson's inauguration. He nsisted that they could have been accomplished only by use of the party caucus. He outlined the workings of the new currency bill, declaring it to be a business man's bill, and a part of President Wilson's gospel of new freedom, and compared the new tariff law and its predecessors in terms that would appeal to housekeepers. The reports of officers showed the league to have gained in membership and financial stability.

National Conference on Race Betterment in Session at Battle Creek, Mich.

Battle Creek, Mich., Jan. 8 .- "The imperfect or defective type of woman is that represented by the very slight, thin chested and nervous woman, at present so favored by fashion," declared Dr. Richard Root Smith, of State Grand Rapids, in an address tonight at the National Conference on Race Betterment, which opened here today. Dr. Smith added, however, that "we have no reason for believing that woman is worse off now than she has been for many generations."

Other speakers tonight included H. H. Laughlin, of Cold Spring Harbor, N. Y.; Dr. Lillian South, Bowling Green, Ky., and Prof. R. B. VonKleinsmid, secretary of the American Asso-

(Continued on Page Eight.)

OUTLINES

Gen. Villa is gathering his troops for the final assault on the Federals' last stronghold in the north. Marine reserves who have been stationed in the Panama Canal Zone have been ordered to join those aboard the battleships in Mexican wa-

Jackson day was celebrated all over the South and in some Northern cities yesterday. Plans are afoot to erect a monument at New Orleans to the hero of that battle. Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, went port for the movement to have Rich-before the grand jury at Houghton, mond designated as the location of a Mich., and told of his deportation at Federal reserve bank, held a meetian hall in Calumet, The Woman's National Democratic League listened to speeches, elected Richmond is not trying to be named officers and adjourned late yesterday over Atlanta, the bankers asserting that the natural bank flow is eastward A little 11-year-old school girl presented President Wilson with a box divert it. Virginia and North Carolina cities and a note as he motored through Gulfport late yesterday, with instruct have strongly endorsed Richmond and Betts is editor.

tions not to open either until he re- the delegation in the field will proceed turned home. He found she had sent early next week. Win North Carolina Bankers. him a dove whose broken wing she (Special Star Telegram.) had mended and wanted him to turn Raleigh, N. C., January 8 .it loose. or Presidio, Texas yesterday, did not desert his command, but is seriously lill and came to the United States to seek medical attention. This was the report which Major McNamee, in command of the border patrol which major Mancilla into custody under the took Mancilla into custody which the took Mancilla in

Until He Reached Home.

a Cripple Winged Dove to be Released by Chief Executive.

Pass Christian, Miss., Jan. 8.-President Woodrow Wilson stood on the veranda of his cottage at sunset tonight and, acting on the request of a little brown haired school girl, releas- today told to the grand jury here ed a white dove whose broken wing their versions of the deportation epida today between Secretary Garrison she had nursed back to strength. The sode of December 26th. Less than bird fluttered for a moment, then two hours were consumed in the paused on a heavy limbed oak, as if grand jury room, the men then returnpreparing for a long flight, and soon ing to the hotel in Hancock whence was lost in the evening shadows. The incident was a sequel to the President's motor ride today through Gulfport. School children lined both

Dunn, as a writer in the employ of sides of the main street, singing Some of the matter referred to was 'America," and people came flocking made of interviews with officers on from stores and shops as the President's car slowed down. A pretty, the movement for a larger army and dark haired girl of 11 handed the Na certain reforms in organization-the tion's Chief Executive a box and a letter which she asked him not to open In this memorandum to Gen. Wood, until he reached home. When the President arrived, he read the follow-"Dear Mr. President:—You will find ly to ascertain whether officers of the in this box a real, live dove. It flew in the door and broke its wing sev- in public. army are furnishing matter to the eral months ago. We have cared for newspapers concerning questions of it, and now that it is well, my mamma policy under discussion between the says we must give it freedom. If department and Congress or any othyou will do me the honor to open its er matters not strictly within the line prison and let it fly away to find companions of its kind, I shall be very rateful. "Lovingly, "W. G."

"P. S.—Just a little Tennessee girl grateful. enjoying the beautiful Southland. The President asked Representative the country and of the army would be Harrison, who was riding with him to served if officers would not indulge in public debate or discussion or in find out the little girl's name, as he any sort of a public propaganda, with wanted to write that he had complied respect to army matters of a debatawith her wish. After diligent inquiry among the school children, the Congressman learned that the donor of the dove was Miss Willa Green. She had modestly signed her initials be-cause, as she afterwards said, she think they should assume toward didn't "want anybody to know anything about it Did No Work. Mr. Wilson found the outdoor air so inviting that he did not work all the afternoon as has been his custom, but took a short automobile ride. The weather was like a summer's day. with the sun hot enough to make heavy clothing somewhat uncomforta-

The President came here primarily for a vacation, but he has been able to perform many hours of uninterrupted work, something almost impossible at the White House. He has done more work here in the last few days than ties of this sort be terminated and he often has accomplished in two he has assured me that he will take weeks at Washington. He has caught the necessary steps to bring about up with neglected details in his study of subjects thrust aside in the maelstrom of the tariff and currency agitation, and he will go back to the no consideration from company capital with his mind made up on sources. They declared this position many a subject of prime importance. It was inferred at the President's cottage today that the visit of Charke men, the Governor met a delegation of the Mexican situation now were eration or any other union. expected to be transmitted to Mr. O'Shaughnessy.

City that two prominent Mexicans were aboard the scout cruiser Chester when she came here recently were authorized today at the winter White House. Attention was called to the President's informal statement Saturlay that nobody accompanied Mr. and.

President Wilson took occasion to say that Mr. Lind had spoken in the most cordial terms of Charge O'-Shaughnessy at the recent conference. The President said there was absolutely no foundation for the publish ed report that Mr. O'Shaughnessy and Mr. Lind were not working in har-

Athens, Ga., Jan. 8.—Griffith Welsh, cotton dealers, who on January 1st filed a voluntary request for bankruptcy, have arranged to pay all creditors in full and will withdraw their bankruptcy petition, according o announcement by the firm tonight.

A. L. Brooks Brings Action for $25, 000 Damages for Alleged Libelous Article.

(Special Star Telegram.) Greensboro, N. C., Jan. 8.-Hon. A. the hands of enemies following the ing in Raleigh tonight and will pursue date for Congress, today instituted L. Brooks, former solicitor and candian action against D. F. King and T. J. The point is being emphasized that Betts, of Rockingham county, for $25,-000 as alleged damages for libel. The 000 as alleged damages for libel. The them that had been honored by the lo-action grows out of an article signed cal bank. The books and assets of and they are opposing any attempt to by King and published in the "Weekly the bank are sealed awaiting the ar-Courier," of Leaksville, of which

> In the article Attorneys A. Brooks, C. O. McMichael and A. D. Ivie, all well known in Democratic politics, were accused by King of all -The sorts of unfair and mean things and executive committee of the North Car- called the worst of names. King's of Miners Testifies.

AMERICA GUARDED BY DEPUTY SHERIFFS

Little Maiden's Gift to President Was Grand Jury is Told of His Deportation From Strike District After the Christmas Tragedy in

> Houghton, Mich., Jan. 8.-Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, and Charles Tanner, auditor of the organization, they were taken a fortnight ago. The nature of their testimony was kept secret. Except for the fact that a big crowd of union men greeted their leader on his arrival, and stood about the hotels in groups, no incident occurred to recall the intense bitterness that preceded the deportation. Both Federation men were guarded by deputy sheriffs Except for their trips from the railroad station to the hotel, and to the court house in Houghton and back to ncock the two m

Calumet.

O. N. Hilton, chief counsel of the Federation, met the party at the hotel and immediately went into conference with his clients. It was presumed that developments in Governor Ferris' inquiry into strike conditions were discussed, but no announcement was made. Victor Berger, former Milwaukee Congressman, here as a member of a committee from the National Socialist party, was admitted to the room.

Governor Ferris and Moyer did not meet. The Governor left Houghton in an automobile early in the afternoon and did not return for several hours. Meanwhile the Federation men had completed their visit in Hough-

Ferris Completes Inquiry. So far as seeking information was concerned, Governor Ferris virtually completed his mission to the copper strike zone tonight. There remained the problem of a settlement, but indications were that the Governor's activities in this direction might be postponed. He let it be known that if possible he would leave for Big Rapids tomorrow forenoon. In any case, it was said, he intended to board an outgoing train tomorrow night.

Chief interest today rested in the testimony of copper mine operators. It largely was an historical discussion, although emphasis was laid on the opinion of individual mine officials that union labor, as such, was not repugnant to them. They, however, made it plain that the Western Federation could hope for was unchangeable. After the conference with the mine O'Shaughnessy to John Lind at Vera Italian and Finnish non-union work-Cruz was an outgrowth of the recent men, who came to ask State protecconference between Mr. Wilson and tion. They told the State executive his personal envoy to Mexico.

Whatever ideas the President and Mr. Lind may have exchanged bearing they had no use for the Western Fed-Tonight the Governor met Victor Berger, Milwaukee; Seymour Stedman, Denial of press reports from Mexico Chicago, and Charles, and Charles Edward Russell, New York, who are investigating the situation for the National executive committee of the Socialist party. Mr. Russell told the State executive he could end the trouble if he would use his power and influence with the mining companies to force them to recognize the Western Federation of Miners 'Will you do it?" he asked.

"No, sir. I will not," was the emphatic response. Mr. Berger proposed that guards and deputies be withdrawn. Mr. Stedman suggested that the State might establish tent colonies for the housing of the men. He said the companies had no legal right to own and rent houses under their charters, but. Grant Fellows, attorney general of the State, disagreed with him.

FAILURE OF ONE BANK CAUSES RUN ON OTHERS.

Merchants Show Confidence in Institutions and Make Deposits.

Pensacola, Fla., January 8.—News of the failure of the First National Bank of Pensacola to open its doors this morning, started runs on the American National and the Citizens Citizens and Peoples National banks. Both institutions withstood the run, local business men showing their faith in each by making heavy deposits. Both banks closed the day's business with more money on hand than when they opened this morning.

Officers of the First National Bank issued a statement today seting forth reasons for closing, charging their troubles to a Liverpool, England. firm that could not meet heavy drafts on rival of bank examiners.

WANTED DOG BURIED WITH HER.

Woman Took Poison and Left a Note About Pet. Portland, Maine, Jan. 8.—A note directing that the body of her pet dog should not be touched until the ar-