Break in West Virginia Dam That Loosed Flood

Cumberland, Md., January 23. The breaking of the huge dam of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company near Dobbin, W. Va., a few days ago calls attention in an impressive manner to the dangers confronting the thousands of people in the country who live or own property in valleys similarly threatened. The loss of life and property in the United States in the last five years alone because of breaking dams and floods is really appalling when considered in totals. The work of repairing the dam near Dobbin. across the Stony river, is already under way. The broken masonry shown in the illustration reveals the mighty force of the deluge that broke through the massive wall of stone, concrete and steel bracings and carried havoc with it in its mad course down the valley. REITERATION OF CHARGES

That Georgia Judge is Mentally Unbalanced is Made by Several Witnesses-Charge to Jury Will be Read Later.

Macon, Ga., Jan. 23.—Reiteration of charges that Federal Judge Emory Speer showed favoritism in rendering verdict, and for some time has been mentally unbalanced was voiced by witnesses here today before the special Congressional committee investigating accusations of alleged misconduct in office on the part of the aged jurist.

For the first time since the hearings opened last Monday Judge Speer, who daily has been present with his attorneys, today lost control of himself and sprang to his feet, interrupting the testimony of United States District Attorney Alexander Akerman and attempting to voice his protests. Chairman Webb silenced the accused Judge Speer's outburst was called forth by a statement by Mr. Akerman who is attorney for Judge Speer's district, virtually accusing the jurist of he government.

'Your honors!" exclaimed Judge "If you please, I have sat quietly here and listened to misrepresentations which have been heaped upon me-

"Just a minute judge," broke in Chairman Webb, "I suggest that you instruct your counsel to make any remarks that are necessary. "I am a lawyer myself," retorted Judge Speer, "and I ask the privilege of reading to you the charge which Mr. Akerman has just attacked."

Request Refused. Chairman Webb refused to grant this request, but said the committee later would read and consider the harge in question.

Mr. Akerman outlined what he alwere the causes for estrangebetween himself and Judge Speer. He said that for a long time he and Judge Speer had been warm friends, but that the judge had grown cold to him after he had refused to recommend the judge's son-in-law Mr. leyward, of the law firm of Talley & Reyward, for the position of assistant district attorney.

"It was then," testified Mr. Akerman, "that Judge Speer ceased to call me 'son' and formally addressed me

Representative Webb asked Mr. Akerman whether or not he knew anything concerning charges that Judge Speer was addicted to the use of drugs. The witness replied that he had no knowledge of such a habit.
