Messrs. Brown, of Goldsboro, Adjudged Guilty of Contempt.

APPEAL AND GIVE BOND

Judge Peebles Gives Editors of Weekly Record Hearing at Jacksonville and Finds Them Guilty.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Jacksonville, N. C., via Weldon, N. C., Sept. 28 .- The second hearing in the Brown and Geo. W. Brown, editors of to meet representatives of General the Goldsboro Weekly Record, was held | Villa. before Judge R. B. Peebles at the court house here today. The editors were adjudged guilty of contempt and each Oil Wils in Tampico District on Fire sentenced to jail on two counts and fined $500 each.

The defendants, through their counwho were both present at the hearing, appealed to the Supreme Court. The bond was fixed at $500 each. The dereturned to their home today. Following is the judgment of the court: The Judgment.

"State of North Carolina, County of Northampton;

"In re Contempt, Charles Brown and George Brown, Editors and Publishers of the Weekly Record, a Newspaper Published at Goldsboro, N. C. Judgment:

"First, That the published statement in the Goldsboro Record of June 6th, 1914, that R. B. Peebles frequently went to sleep on the bench and woke up suddenly and played hell was false and without foundation in fact.

"Second, That the statement in the said issue that Judge R. B. Peebles was so full of whiskey that he went into the socilitor's room mistaking the solicitor's room for his own room is absolutely false and without foundation in fact. That the said judge had not touched a drop of intoxicating liquor within five and one-half hours previous to the time. That it is true that the said judge went into the solicitor's room, which said room was opposite his own room and lay down to rest at about 6 o'clock in the evening. that said judge went into the solicihimself for the reason that the solicitor had inadvertently locked the door to the judge's room and had kept the key in his pocket and that at the time when said judge returned to the hotel from the court house the solicitor was not present in the hotel and the said judge went into the solicitor's room to rest purposely because of the fact that the solicitor had the key to his own room and could not gain an entrance into his own room until the return of the solicitor with the key to the door thereof.

"Third. That the statements published in said issue that said Judge R. took a drink every ten minutes and got very drunk, were false and withput foundation in fact.

"Fourth. That the publication in said paper of said issue that Judge Peebles is unfit to occupy the high and responsible position of judge of the Superior court of North Carolina is absolutely false and without foundation in fact. "Fifth. That the statements in an editorial published in said paper of June 27th, 1914, reiterating all of said charges and statements except the charge that Judge Peebles went to sleep on the bench and woke up suddenly and played hell were all false and without foundation in fact. "Sixth. That each one of the false statements contained in the editorials of said Goldsboro, Record, of the issue of June 6th, 1914, were made with the intent to defame, degrade and injure the reputation of said Judge R. B. Peebles. "Seventh. That all of said charges false, and said charge made in said editorial and each of the charges made were made with the intent to defame. degrade and injure the reputation of said Judge R. B. Peebles. "Eighth. That the court finds from the facts that said issues of said Carolina. ## Mack Prepares For World Series

NATIONAL COMMISSION MEETS IN PHILADELPHIA TO-MORROW.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28 .- Now that the hiladelphia American League baseball eam has clinched the championship of that organization, officials of the club are making active preparations for the world's series. The victory of the Athletics in the American League race gives Connie Mack his sixth championship, a new major league record. Under his tutelage, the Athletics won the league pennant in 1902, 1905, 1910, 1911 and 1913, and in the last three years they also captured the world's championship.

The National Commission will hold a meeting here Wednesday to make final arrangement for the world's series, the first game of which probably will be played on either October 8th or 9th.
