One of the most important of the cases on the calendar, so far is public interest attaches, is that of Sarah Ann Merritt, against F. W. Dick, trustee, and others, which was peremptorily set at the last term of court to be taken up as the first case at this term. The action involves title to a considerable portion of the Island of ut that plans are maturing for making Wrightsville Beach, from a point near Station Two to its northern end at Moore's Inlet. The plaintiff sues for the recovery of this land, which she claims belongs to her through her brother, Mr. Silas Sneeden, who died intestate in 1868.

> The complaint sets forth that Mr. Sneeden, during his life, owned acres of land on Wrightsville Sound, which ran all the way across to the beach and included the portion the plaintiff now sues to recover. Up unif three years ago, the plaintiff avers, she was in undisputed possession of this land and collected rent for its use from fishermen. At that time, however, she claims, the defendants entered upon it and have refused to pay rent, which, she claims, would reasonably amount to $1,000 a year. The complaint sets forth that the plainiff's family has been in possession of the property since 1849.

North Carolina-Unit of State Club

Wilmington and Wilmingtonians have always been close to the University and University doings. Students from New Hanover have each year from even before the Civil War taken thirteen students from New Hanover and the one student from Columbus county have organized the New Hanover County Club.

The officers of the club just elected are L. A. Blue, Jr., president; J. A. Moore, vice president; G. W. Smith, secretary and treasurer. The club is to be a permanent organization, workne loves a shining mark. "For my ing as a unit of the North Carolina Club. Its purposes are: first, to increase the interest of the people of New Hanover in their State University the students from New Hanover county into a closer relationship; and lastly, as her Savior and spent her life in ditions, both urban and rural, of New His service, faithful, earnest, living Hanover county. The steering and publicity committee, who are carrying through this last named work are of old she was full of good work and composed of J. A. Moore, chairman; T. W. Strange, J. W. Perdew, G. W. Smith,

There has been a county club here every year, but it has always been a rather indifferent organization and has accomplished little. This year, under the leadership of Prof. E. C. Branson, president of the North Carolina Club, the organization has started its work with a vigor and hopes to become a useful organization for the improvement of New Hanover county, the State University and the State at large.

Live Organization at University of Mr. Cooper Will Not Be Able to Meet Mr. Taylor, But Chairman Little May Substitute.

> Through Mr. Jackson Johnson, Winnabow, Brunswick county, C. Ed. Taylor, Esq., of Southport, Republican nominee for State Senator from this district, vesterday informed The Star that he would be in Wilmington tothis evening. Mr. Taylor last week suggested that Mr. Cooper meet him here tonight, and Mr. Cooper issued a counter challenge for Saturday night stating that he would not be in the city tonight on account of important engagements for speeches in Brunswick county.

Mr. Cooper was communicated with last evening and stated that while he was very anxious to meet Mr. Taylor in joint debate, he could not affort to cancel his engagement in Brunswick tonight. He added that up until yesterday he had heard nothing from Mr. Taylor relative to his suggestion that the two candidates meet here last Saturday evening.

He took the matter up with Chairman Jos. W. Little, of the Democratic County Executive Committee last night, event that he is agreeable to meeting Mr. Little on the local platform, announcement will be made in time to let the public know of the speaking. Speaking of the matter last evening,

Mr. Cooper said that his itinerary through Brunswick county has been made up for some time, and that beginning at Mill Creek, in the lower section of the county tonight, it would continue through the entire week, endng at Shallotte next Saturday. number of the Republican candidates, wouldMr. Cooper says, are appearing at these meetings, and he declared that he would be glad to meet Mr. Taylor at any or all of the meetings in Brunswick county. He suggested that Mr. Taylor meet him next Saturday at

In view of the fact that Brunswick county is debatable territory, while New Hanover is practically solidly Democratic, Mr. Cooper does not feel that he can afford to cancel one or more of his engagements there in order to meet Mr. Taylor in this city. DROPPED DEAD ON STREET.
