CHICAGO STOCK YARDS ARE ORDERED TO CLOSE

For Ten Days in Fight Against Dread Disease.

Conference of Packers, Dealers, Commissioners and the Governor of the State Decide on Measure of Prechution.

Chicago, Nov. 4 .- After a conference here today between members of the state board of live stock commissioners and the leading stock dealers and packers with Governor Dunne, the Chicago stock yards, the largest in the world, were ordered closed for a period of ten days, in the campaign against the hoof and mouth disease.

The stock yards, it was officially stated, probably will remain closed ten days. The order will go into effect at the close of business November 6th and continue until the opening of bus-

WILL NOT CONTEST ELECTION

C. Ed Taylor, Esq., Republican Nominee for State Senate, Satisfied With Honest Expression.

C. Ed Taylor, Esq., of Southport, Republican nominee for the State Senate from the Tenth Senatorial district, composed of the counties of New Hanover and Brunswick, will not contest the election of Mr. W. B. Cooper, of Wilmington, the Democratic nominee, on account of the unfortunate mix-up of the ticket voted in Tuesday's election, according to a telephone message received from him yesterday by Robert Ruark, Esq., of the Wilmington

Mr. Taylor phoned Mr. Ruark that he had information at Southport with reference to the mistake in the original ballot voted in New Hanover Tuesday and the attempt to correct the mistake by putting on stickers, and while he recognized that there was a technical point involved, he had no disposition to advantage himself of it and if Mr. Ruark thought that the ballots as cast were an honest expression of the voters, that he would not be disposed to try to take advantage of the technicality. Mr. Ruark told Mr. Taylor that he was satisfied there had been an honest expression of the voters and Mr. Taylor then authorized Mr. Ruark to say

This action on the part of Mr. Taylor is regarded by his hundreds of perments of cattle, sheep and hogs to the sonal friends in New Hanover as altogether commendable and was simply what they expected from him, knowing him as a man of character and fair notified not to accept live stock for play, regardless of politics. As a high the Chicago market. The closing cuts type of young man Mr. Taylor has few equals in the regard of practically his entire acquaintance in New Hanover and his magnanimous action in the matter on Tuesday is being favorably commented upon everywhere.
