GRAND DUKE NICHOLAS INDICATED AS HAVING OUTGENERATED COMMANDER HINDENBERG

Activities in the West Are Again Resumed With Terrific Bombardment of Ypres, Soissons and Rheims by the Germans—New Assault Expected in an Attempt to Break Their Way Through to the Coast.

London, Nov. 23.—The battles in the region between the Vistula and Warta rivers in Poland appeared to have turned in favor of the Russians. A special dispatch from Petrograd to Paris says the Russian army already has won a decisive victory.

Grand Duke Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian forces, for two days in succession has recorded partial successes and tonight the German general staff says the arrival of Russian reinforcements has postponed a decision.

The German papers this morning were talking of a general Russian retirement despite the fact that the Russians have been advancing steadily in Galicia.

French and British Ambassadors Call at State Department in Washington to Inquire as to Safety of Subjects in Mexico.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Anxiety for the safety of British and French subjects and their interests in Mexico City brought Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and Jules Jusserand, the French ambassador, to the State Department today to learn what the American government knew of the situation in the Mexican capital.

Mr. Jusserand also inquired what disposition had been made of the $1,000,000 customs duties collected by the American forces which evacuated Vera Cruz today.

It is virtually certain that until a government is recognized in Mexico the customs fund will be kept by the United States.

The acting secretary of State Lansing gave the two ambassadors the substance of State Department dispatches saying that while residents of the capital were in a panic last Friday and Saturday, hearing the city would be sacked by Zapata and Villa after the Carranza troops withdrew, conditions since then had improved.

The ambassadors had received word from their ministers in Mexico City, dated about the same time the dispatches to the State Department were filed, giving a pessimistic view of the situation.

Neither the British nor French ambassadors requested action as a result of their advice, as they understood that all American consular agents have instructions to exercise the good offices in behalf of all foreigners in the southern Republic.

SCHOONER ASHORE 80 LIVES AT STAKE

Vessel Aground on Reef Off California Coast

ARE POWERLESS TO AID

With Thirty Men in Crew and Large List of Passengers, Schooner Is Foundering to Pieces on Rocks. Fog Prevents Aid.

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 23 Five members of a crew of life savers are trying to reach the steam schooner Hamalei wrecked on Duxbury reef, nine miles north of San Francisco, were drowned tonight.

Two of the Hamalei's crew were drowned late today while trying to make their way through the surf with lines. Two passengers swam to safety.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Advices were received early tonight from steamers standing by the passenger schooner Hamalei, ashore on Duxbury reef, that two bodies have come ashore; the back of the vessel has been broken and there is little hope of saving the remaining 23 passengers and 30 members of the crew, still aboard.

Two of the Hamalei's boats, upside down, and a life raft, also were washed ashore. The steam schooner lay a few hundred yards off shore, blanketed in the fog which led her on the reef and which shut off sight and sound alike.

Just at dusk a rift in the fog revealed a glimpse of the doomed vessel pounded by the surf. The wind brought in distinguishable cries from the passengers and crew.

The fog was so thick that persons five feet apart could not see each other and a little fleet of schooners and tugs which had been trying to get in touch with the Hamalei without themselves piling on the reef, drew off as night came on.

Unless the fog should lift, permitting rescuers to get a line aboard, it was said there was slight chance for any one aboard. The Hamalei left Eureka, Cal., yesterday.

DEADLY FOG DISASTROUS.

At 5:20 P. M. the revenue cutter McCulloch sent word by wireless that she was nosing about in the fog, but could not locate the Hamalei.

Another tanker, the United States distilling ship Rainbow, and the tugs Hercules and Defiance also were at the scene. It was reported that the first masts of the Richmond, with a crew of volunteers, had put off in a small boat to try and reach the schooner.

It is believed that besides the two whose bodies were washed ashore, others drowned when the Hamalei tried to get her life boats away.

The Hamalei is one of many coasting ships which carry lumber, package freight and passengers. The schooners always hug the shore, but stand out a little in thick weather.

Apparently the Hamalei thought she was clear of the reef, but was carried in by a current.

NO REDUCTION YET IN THE DISCOUNT RATE

Reserve Board Waits for Accurate Data on Reserves.

North and East Rates Will Stand Longer Than Those in South and West Because of Difference in Amount of Reserves.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Until the Federal Reserve Board has accurate information on the surplus reserves held by member banks it does not expect to change re-discount rates on commercial paper.

Present information has led the board to believe there is about $200,000,000 of surplus reserves in member banks in the North and East. They fear a lower re-discount rate might lead to an exportation of gold. Until this reserve has been lessened the rates probably will be unchanged in these sections.

GERMANY CHARGES TRUST IS BROKEN

Allies Flagrantly Violate London Declaration.

AS TO NEUTRAL SHIPS

And Their Cargoes and Wants to Know What Neutral Powers are Going to Do About It—Her Own Policy Unchanged.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Charges by Germany that England and France are violating the declaration of London, previously presented to Ambassador Gerard and representatives of other neutrals at Berlin, were published today from the embassies here.

The paper says Germany thus far has observed the declaration of London and has not changed its attitude despite "flagrant violations committed by its adversaries," and adds:

"However, the imperial German government now must study the question whether it can continue to maintain the above attitude, if the enemy powers abide by the procedure observed by them and if the neutral powers allow such violations to go on."

"The German government considers it, therefore, of interest to learn which position the neutral powers intend to take toward the attitude adopted by Great Britain and France contrary to international law and particularly whether it is their intention to take measures against the acts of violence committed on board their merchant vessels against German subjects and German property."

Changed by England. The German note declares additions and modifications Great Britain has made to the declaration of London are of such a nature that they obliterate the said declaration in several vital points and at the same time encroach on the accepted rules of international law.

"The most vital modifications are contained," it says, "in the rule concerning conditional contraband."

Under the declaration of London, it adds, "there can be no question of conditional contraband except where cargo is destined for use of the administrative departments of the military force of the hostile power," nor "can the question arise whether goods are conditional contraband or not" when the vessel is sailing for a neutral port.

"Further, it charges Great Britain made the rule of continuous voyage, applicable to conditional contraband, in contravention of the Declaration of London." Thus it declares, "conditional contraband is virtually on the same footing as absolute contraband."

"In consequence," it continues, "the supply by neutrals of objects of conditional contraband, especially of foodstuffs, destined only for the consumption of the inhabitants of a belligerent, which is universally considered legitimate in international law, is practically rendered illusory, whereby the interests of the belligerents as well as of the neutrals are violated in a manner contrary to the law of nations."

Others Endangered. "As events at the theatres of naval warfare prove, England proceeds in this respect in the most high-handed manner, even enforcing a control over supplies destined for the countries adjacent to the theatre of war."

PREACHER OPENS UP ON COLORADO MINE OWNERS

Declares Miners' Only Recourse is in the Union.

Investigator Sent Out by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ Makes His Report to Commission.

New York, Nov. 23.—In a report to the commission on the Church and Social Service of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, made public here today, the Rev. Henry A. Atkinson, associate secretary, as investigator, arraigned Colorado coal companies for their attitude in the recent Colorado labor troubles.

The Rev. Mr. Atkinson was sent to Colorado and also to the copper mining district of Michigan, where there were recent industrial difficulties, by the social service commission of the Congregational churches and the commission of the churches.

After reviewing the Colorado troubles, his report says:

"The coal companies dominate the politics in counties where the mines are located? They have brought about the election of officers and can do about as they please, so far as the law is concerned."

"It is impossible to enforce the law and the courts virtually are closed to those who incur the enmity of the coal companies, thus equality is denied the men through the manipulation of political affairs. Twenty years of such oppression have taught the miners that their only hope is in the unions. An individual counts for nothing; if he protests, he loses his job; if he makes too much trouble, he is dealt with by hired gunmen."

AFFIDAVITS CLAIM WEALTHY BROKER INFLUENCED HIM

Albert T. Patrick Received Freedom from Life Sentence for Murder. Walker Said to Have Asked Dix for Release.

New York, Nov. 23.—District Attorney Whitman today began an investigation of all the circumstances attendant upon the granting of a pardon on November 27th, 1912, by John A. Dix, governor of New York, to Albert T. Patrick, serving a life sentence at Sing Sing for the murder of William Marsh Rice.

The investigation was begun after two affidavits had been filed with the district attorney concerning published statements to the effect that Joseph Walker, Jr., a Wall Street banker, had offered to obtain Patrick's pardon if Patrick solely for the sake of Albert T. Patrick's brother-in-law, would join him in a mining deal.

The affidavits filed were made by George C. Goodrich and wife, Anna S. Goodrich, and related their version of what transpired at a meeting here between them and Mr. Milliken, on March 23rd, 1912.

Former Governor Dix, who is in this city, said today that he had pardoned Patrick solely for the sake of Albert T. Patrick's children. He repeated his previous denial of the report that he had pardoned Patrick at the request of Mr. Walker.

Whitman Declines Report. St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 23.—John T. Milliken today emphatically denied that a mining deal between himself and Albert T. Patrick had anything to do with the granting of a pardon to Albert T. Patrick by Governor Dix.

Legal expense and other incidentals to the long fight for Patrick's pardon cost Milliken about $150,000, the St. Louis millionaire said.

Patrick Makes Statement. Tulsa, Ark., Nov. 23.—In a statement issued here today, Albert T. Patrick declared that his pardon was not secured as the result of a business deal with his brother-in-law, John T. Milliken, and asserted that the pardon was granted by former Governor Dix solely "because he believed in my innocence."

Patrick is engaged in the oil business here.

Patrick asserts that he does not know George C. Goodrich, who made affidavit in New York as to an alleged meeting with Milliken.

These folders are being put out to the various railroad companies by the Royal Sanitary League of which James T. Gaskill, a colored preacher of this city, is at the head and is in fact the founder of the league.

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 23.—Fanned by a brisk wind, forest fires are raging in every section of Arkansas tonight. Several large tracts of timber have already been destroyed and innumerable telephone and telegraph poles burned.

With vegetation dry as tinder, the situation is regarded as serious.

On all railroads men are patrolling the tracks and beating back the fires. Between Little Rock and Hot Springs a distance of 60 miles, 15 fires are reported.

Hot Springs reports fires from the south creeping toward the city and hurried measures for safety are being taken. In southwestern Arkansas farmers are fighting desperately to check the flames menacing their homes.
