Senator Hobgood's equal suffrage bill is set for Thursday when there will be opportunity given for Senator Hobgood and any other advocates to make their speeches with possibly remarks in reply by Senator Johnson of Duplin and others and then the vote, which will, of course, be very overwhelmingly against the bill. There will probably be a roll call vote so that the suffragists may have a record of their exact strength for comparison in future fights they make. An important special order in the House is that, of the Senate hill for uniform examination and certification of public school teachers. It is set for Wednesday at noon and a contest and prolonged discussion at least the equal of that which characterized the passage of the bill in the Senate is certain to result. Politics Begin to Boil The recent declaration by Attorney Bickett of his formal can-General didacy for Governor to succeed Gov-Craig, and that of David P Dillinger, reading clerk of the House, that he will stand for the nomination as Secretary of State in the Democratic they shall be placed in possession of primaries, or however else the party small parcels of land ranging from nominations may be made, have multen acres in the case of a truck farm to tiplied the talk as to State offices and 40 acres in the case of a general farm, the likelihood of formidable effort to and shll be provided with farm animals put in new men for these offices that and implements and a house, for all of have been served for three or more which they are to pay out of their terms by the same officer. ed along 13 miles apart. The British concentrated their fire on our rearmost ship, the Bluecher, and shortly landed a severe hit which forced the Bluecher to drop back. She soon signalled 'all engines useless'.

"The Bluecher was a mass of flames from forebridge to stern, the pillar of fire above her towering to the sky.

"Forty-five minutes later the quarter deck of the Seydlitz also began to blaze. The Seydlitz, of all the ships House Will Pass Measure and which returned, was the only one on which the two hour bombardment inflicted any real injury. The shell which caused the fire on the Seydlitz pierced the foundation of a turret and set off some ammunition.
