PLEAD WITH GOVERNOR FOR PARDON FOR HICKS

Spencer Man Will Probably be Given His Liberty.

Strong Delegation Backed With Petition Signed by Many People, Including Numbers of Distinguished Ones.

(Special Star Correspondence.) Raleigh, N. C., April 27.—For two hours today a delegation consisting of Collector A. D. Watts, of the Western Internal Revenue district; J. A. Hartness, clerk of the Iredell Superior court; T. H. Vanderford, of the revenue service; and W. H. Burton, of the Spencer railroad shops, pleaded with Governor Craig for a pardon for A. W. Hicks, bank cashier of Spencer, who is serving two years' sentence for making false statements to his bank to cover a $30,000 shortage that grew out of permitting a firm that subsequently failed, to make overdrafts.

The appeal for the pardon is backed by a great number of petitions, signers of which include Senators Simmons and Overman, the county officers, practically all the people around Spencer and Salisbury, great numbers of people of Winston-Salem, where Hicks grew up and was for a number of years the active and zealous secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Hicks is declared by the prison authorities to be a perfectly moral and most useful prisoner. His influence among the prisoners has been most valuable and his work of the best. He works mostly about the electric plant and has proven himself very efficient.
