WIFE WELL CARED FOR

Wife of Late Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Who Perished on the Lusitania, Given Three Million and Two Large Estates.

New York, May 29 .- The bulk of the estate of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, who perished on the Lusstania, estimated at more than $50,000,000, is left in trust foreign office carried it across second wife, Margaret Emerson Van-

William H. Vanderbilt, his son by his first wife, Elsie French Vanderbilt, who was divorced, receives a trust fund of $5,000,000; the Vanderbilt properties known as Oakland Farm, near Newport, R. L, the portraits and bust of Cornelius Vanderbilt, his grandfather, and a gold medal voted by Congress to Cornelius Vanderbilt, his great-great-grandfather, founder of the Vanderbilt fortune. This legacy is in addition to a liberal settlement which William H., received from his father during his life time. He is now 13 years old.

Mr. Vanderbilt made provision for his widow by leaving her $3,000,000 and the income of $5,000,000 in trust, together with the Vanderbilt estates in the Adirondacks and Gloucester House in London, Eng.

Relatives and friends receive bequests ranging from $1,000 to $500,000. The infant sons share in the rest. The legacies will be held in trust for them until they are 21, when each is to receive outright the accumulated income and one-fourth the principal. At the ages of 25, 30 and 35 years each son is to receive a quarter of the principal, the trusts therefore terminating when each is 35 years old.

The bulk of the Vanderbilt millions passed to Alfred G. Vanderbilt on the ruary last. death of his father, Cornelius Vander --

The will provided, however, that Al-Then he was to receive half. At 35 he was to receive the other half. He was 37 last October. Cornelius, the older brother, cut off in the will with only $1,000,000, received $6,-000,000 more as a gift from Alfred. Cornelius was not mentioned in the will filed today. The will is dated December 16, 1913, and was signed in New York city! The executors are Reginald C. Vanderbilt, Frederick W. Vanderbilt, Henry B. Anderson, Frederick M. Davis and Frederick L. Merriam.

Mr. Dorsey's letter was in response to notice from the commission of the pending application. He wrote:

"The court records of the case, which doubtless will be considered by you, present the details of the crime for the commission of which Frank was convicted by the courts of this country, and illustrate the conditions and circumstances under which the crime was committed. I do not understand the application for executive clemency to set up any newly discovered evidence or other grounds not heretofore considered and finally adjudicated by the various judges of all the courts, state and Federal, which have declined to interfere with the verdict finding Frank guilty of the murder of Mary Phagan.

"This is therefore, an application for amelioration of the penalty of a crime for the commission of which the courts pray for a pardon, but asks that the applicant be punished by life imprisonment instead of the penalty imposed by the trial court.

the summer is just at hand and that we will not feel like going to church. But surely that is not the way we do about other things. We must and we do attend to our daily duties whether we feel like it or not. Suppose we ask ourselves whether we owe it to God and our own selves to go to church and seek the spiritual benefits to be had only there. Besides that our example should be good to those who watch whether we walk worthy of our high calling to glorify God in all things. What example do we set in this?
