

ESTIMATE IS LARGEST EVER YET SUBMITTED DURING PEACE TIMES

Government Expenditures for Next Fiscal Year Probably $1,240,000,000

WAR IN EUROPE CAUSE Increase for National Defense and New Tasks Imposed Upon Departments.

This Amount Will Call for Additional Revenue.

Washington, October 14.—The largest estimate of government expenditures ever submitted to a secretary of the treasury of the United States in time of peace—probably $1,240,000,000—will be presented for the next fiscal year tomorrow, as required by law, for discussion by Congressional committees in advance of the regular session. President Wilson and his cabinet will examine the list in detail next week.

An estimated increase for National defense of about $150,000,000 over last year, together with the cost of new tasks imposed on the State Department and other government branches because of the European war, account for the increase, the estimates for all departments excepting State, War and Navy remaining practically the same.

Additional Revenue Necessary. If Congress agrees to the administration's programme for strengthening the army and navy, it will be obliged to provide for additional revenue by legislation or the executive branch of the government must issue bonds.

Although no estimates of receipts for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1916, in which the increased expenditures will take effect, has been made by Secretary McAdoo, officials now are convinced they cannot count upon more than $750,000,000 for the 12 months.

Congress will be asked to pass two revenue measures, one extending the emergency war tax, which expires December 31, and the other providing for retention of the duty on sugar beyond next May, when it would go on the free list.

Passage of these measures, however, would not increase the present revenues. With both in effect at present, there has been a deficit of $35,000,000.

Extraordinary Expenses. Additional force in the diplomatic and consular service and at the State Department and the increased expenditures abroad in the work being done by American embassies and legations, will require an increase of about $1,300,000 for the State Department.

The ordinary disbursements of the government last year were about $732,000,000. If the receipts are as much as $750,000,000 in the coming year and the appropriations of all government departments but the State, War and Navy remain the same, the deficit would be, with the added budget for National defense, as estimated deficit of more than $125,000,000. The Secretary of the Treasury has authority to issue $240,000,000 in bonds to meet the deficit.

That would be a temporary remedy, however, and may not be resorted to if the administration proceeds on the theory that the government should maintain the same rate of expenditures for National defense during coming years as now is being proposed for the next session of Congress.

Department of Commerce. Estimates for the Department of Commerce will show an increase of last year's total, $18,774,000—if they are agreed upon in the form now before Secretary Redfield. The principal request for more money will come from the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce, which desires to take advantage of the estimated increase of expenditures for National defense during coming years as now is being proposed for the next session of Congress.

Department of Labor. The Department of Labor contemplates few changes in its estimates, which last year amounted to $4,443,000. Secretary Wilson is considering a reduction for the bureau of immigration, which has found its activities materially curtailed by the falling off of immigration during the European war. The estimates for the Postoffice Department will be slightly above the $290,000,000 estimated for the present year. The increase is credited to the automatic promotions of carriers and clerks provided for by Congress, increased pay for railroad transportation and the natural growth of the system.

Interior Department. The estimates in the Interior Department are less than the appropriation of $210,000,000 for the current year, excluding $8,000,000 for construction of the government railroad in Alaska. Secretary Houston had not completed tonight his estimates for the Department of Agriculture, but they will (Continued on Page Ten)

ALLIES TO PURSUE FIGHT TO THE END

"Intimate Union Will Assure Final Triumph of Justice."

SAYS PREMIER VIVIANI

Pays Tribute in Magazine Article to the French Army—Minister Ribot Says France Will Not Lack Resources to Continue.

Paris, Oct. 14.—"Since France and her allies, in spite of their attachment to peace, were obliged to suffer war, they will prosecute it to the end and their intimate union will assure the final triumph of justice and right," says Premier Viviani in a declaration to be published tomorrow in the magazine Lectures Pour Tous.

"France is not a country to be preyed upon," he continues. "She will not lay down her arms until after she has avenged outraged justice, consolidated forever with the fatherland the provinces ravaged by force, restored heroic Belgium, and broken Prussian militarism in order to be able to reconstruct upon a foundation of right and regenerated Europe."

"What did they see? Workmen, employers, artisans, peasants, rich and poor, men of all parties, all religious beliefs, offering to sacrifice themselves in fulfilling their duty in defending their territory in the hour of revolution, in defending the liberty of the world. All understood that the most humble is useful to the fatherland, that from the general-in-chief, whose admirable sang froid compels the admiration of the world, to the very humblest, each has an indispensable role. The glory is for all; the light illuminates every forehead."

"It is not only to our army, whose heroism is guided by incomparable chiefs, that we shall owe victory; it is also to the nation that has been able to accompany that heroism with a union of silence and serenity in critical hours. If those hours seem long let us continue to think of our country and everything will be easy for us."

"Finance Minister Ribot in the same issue of the magazine speaking of the influence of finances upon the war, will say: 'Will Not Lack Resources.'"

"France will not lack resources to sustain her effort in this war that she did not seek, but that she is determined to pursue without flinching. As far as concerns finances, she can look upon the prolongation of hostilities without anxiety, for the conflict will not depend on our resources."

"Let France keep the faith she has (Continued on Page Ten)

CASES WITH GERMANY TO REOPEN NEXT WEEK

Lansing and Bernstorff Will Resume Negotiations.

Same Course as Was Pursued in Arabic Case Will Be Continued in Lusitania, Cushing, Gulflight and Nebraska Cases.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Negotiations with Germany looking to settlement of the cases of the Lusitania, Cushing, Gulflight and Nebraska will be resumed next week by Secretary Lansing and Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. The United States made it clear after the Arabic was torpedoed without warning that there would be no further discussion of the Lusitania and other cases until the Arabic incident was disavowed and reparation promised.

No what Germany has acceded to all of the demands as a result of personal negotiations between Secretary Lansing and the German ambassador, the same process of negotiations is to be continued in the hope of settling the remaining cases.

BALKAN SITUATION REVIEWED BY GREY

British Foreign Secretary Discusses Diplomatic Side.

IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

Says All Influence Was Used to Secure Accord Among Balkan States, But That the Feeling There is One of Division.

London, Oct. 14.—The diplomatic rather than the military side of the situation was the subject of Sir Edward Grey's eagerly awaited statement relative to the Balkans, which he delivered today to a crowded house of commons.

"I propose to confine myself," the British foreign secretary said, "to a resume of our diplomatic objects since the war. At the outset, we desired that the war should not spread, and, in common with our allies, we assured Turkey that if she remained neutral Turkey and Turkey's territory should not suffer. This situation was completely changed by the entrance of Turkey into the war, and all obligations on the part of the Allies then ceased."

"We and our allies then concentrated upon securing an agreement among the Balkan states and we used all our influence to secure an accord. Unfortunately the feeling in the Balkans is not all that friendly. It is clearly nothing but a deceptive, preponderating advantage, for the Allies would have enabled us to secure a policy of union."

"Central Powers Offered More." "We were able to understand in the course of the negotiations that, except with regard to Thrace, the Central Powers had offered to Bulgaria more to secure her neutrality than the Allies and the fairness of the offer, the Allies which induced Bulgaria to declare war were given by the Central Powers at the expense of her neighbors and without any corresponding advantage to her."

"We have remained throughout on friendly relations with Rumania, who has favored the policy of a Balkan union. "It is the policy of bringing about a Balkan war that the sovereigns and governments of Germany, Austria-Hungary and Italy, the sovereigns and governments—have succeeded in carrying into effect. We were given to understand that in order to secure a Balkan union there were certain conditions which Bulgaria would accept, especially in Thrace and Macedonia."

"The Allies were ready to do all in their power to secure these for Bulgaria but to obtain the consent of Serbia and Greece it was an essential preliminary that Bulgaria take sides with the Allies against Turkey. In other words if Bulgaria was to realize her hopes and aspirations she must co-operate with the common cause in which the hopes and aspirations of other neighboring states were engaged."

"It will be enough to say that these reasonable hopes and aspirations were, as the matter found opportunity to peoples of the same race, the same sentiments and the same religion to join themselves to a state under a government most akin to their own."

"The entry of Bulgaria into the war, Sir Edward continued, made a great difference in the situation and raised the question of treaty obligations between Greece and Serbia. Regarding Greece's attitude Sir Edward referred to the statements of Ex-Premier Venizelos and the new premier, M. Zaimis, and said it must be obvious that the interests of Greece and Serbia were now one."

Freely Aiding Serbia. The secretary explained that through Greek territory alone could aid be sent to Serbia and he asserted that in view of the treaty between Greece and Serbia the Allies' Express to Saloniki could not have been other than welcomed by the Hellenic people. Great Britain, he continued, was giving Serbia all the help in its power, and the unconditional assistance was acting in the closest co-operation with France. The co-operation of Russian troops was promised as soon as they can be made available, he said.

Sir Edward said that it was not his province to make public a disclosure of the military plans in the Balkans, and that he could only say that he believed they were based on principles of sound strategy and tactics.

"Serbia is fighting for her national existence and with her the struggle is just now intense and acute, but the struggle is one and the issue is one, in whatever theatre of war fighting is taking place."

NAVY TO ASK FOR 16 CAPITAL SHIPS WITHIN FIVE YEARS

Secretary Daniels and General Board Practically Decide Upon Programme.

ARMY PLAN APPROVED

President Favors Secretary Garrison's Policy of $72,000,000 Increase.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Secretary Daniels, in agreement with the General Board of the Navy, practically has decided to recommend to Congress a five-year construction programme which will include 16 capital fighting ships—ers. Just what number shall be authorized the first year and consecutively thereafter will not be determined until after the Secretary and President Wilson confer tomorrow. A decision probably will be reached then as to the manner in which the appropriations should be distributed over the five-year period.

On this point depends whether or not the combined army and navy estimates for next year will be kept around the $400,000,000 mark desired by the administration or will aggregate $432,000,000. The President indicated today that he favored large increases in both army and navy in the next three weeks before the Manhattan Club of New York on the subject of national defense.

Approves Military Policy. During the day the President talked at length with both Chairman Hay, of the House military affairs committee, and assistant Secretary Breckinridge announcing to them his approval of the military policy framed by Secretary Garrison and officers of the General Staff of the army, calling for an appropriation of $122,000,000 or an increase of $72,000,000 over last year. Much of the increase will be for field artillery and coast defense expenses to be incurred on the creation of a reserve of 200,000 men every three years by means of a short term enlistment, and an addition to the regular army. Details of the army plan have not been announced, but the approval by the President of the $72,000,000 increase for the military establishment turned attention on the navy where a final estimate of needs has not yet been completed. They vary from a total of $225,000,000 to $250,000,000.

Secretary Daniels has before him two separate plans which affect materially the completion of his estimates, since Congress appropriates each year for only one-third or fifth the cost of new ships authorized.

Under one plan, the navy could build two dreadnaughts, two battle cruisers, 16 destroyers, 15 submarines of the coast type and the English ocean going variety, a few scout cruisers, a gunboat, a fuel ship and a hospital ship. This proposal has met with objection because if it is to be part of (Continued on Page Ten)

MARKS NEW EPOCH IN MARINE ENGINEERING

Dreadnaught California to be Electrically Propelled.

Secretary Daniels in Address at Laying of Battleship's Keel, Says Vessel is One of Greatest Advances in Marine Construction.

New York, Oct. 14.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels, in an address here today at the laying of the keel of the new $15,000,000 dreadnaught California—the first battleship to be driven by electric propulsion—prophesied that the "installation of electricity upon the California ushers in a new epoch in navigation, just as far-reaching and as important as that in which steam succeeded sail power."

"It may be said with entire truthfulness," continued the Secretary, "that the California represents one of the greatest advances in modern marine engineering. The entire subject of electric propulsion is one that has been widely discussed in all countries for several years past, but the United States is the only nation so far which has gotten past the discussion stage, and which has demonstrated by actual test that electric propulsion is a success."

The Secretary then told about tests in electric propelling machinery on the immense naval collier Jupiter, the first large vessel to be thus propelled.

The California is expected to be launched in 15 months, and to be placed in commission in about three years. She will be of 32,000 tons displacement, 625 feet long, 97 1/2 feet broad, and will carry twelve 14-inch rifles in four turrets on the center line and twenty-two 5-inch guns, as well as having four submerged torpedo tubes.

55 KILLED IN AIR RAID OVER LONDON

Fourteen of the Persons Dead Were Military Subjects.

LIST OF INJURED IS 114

Zeppelin Fleet Drops Bombs, Damaging Some Houses and Starting Several Fires, Which Were Extinguished, Report Says.

London, Oct. 14.—Fifty-five persons were killed and 114 injured in the Zeppelin raid over London last night. Fourteen of the 55 persons killed and 13 of the 114 wounded were military casualties, according to an announcement made later by the official press bureau. The text of the announcement follows:

"The press bureau of the war office announces that a fleet of hostile airships visited the eastern counties and a portion of London last night and dropped bombs.

"Anti-aircraft guns of the Royal Field Artillery attached to the central force were in action and an airship was seen to heel over on its side and to drop to a lower altitude.

"Five aeroplanes of the royal flying corps went up, but owing to atmospheric conditions only one aeroplane succeeded in locating an airship. This aeroplane, however, was unable to overhaul the airship before it was lost in the fog.

"Some houses were damaged and several fires were started, but no serious damage was caused to military material. All fires were soon got under control by the fire brigades.

"The following military casualties, in addition to the one announced last night, have been reported: Fourteen killed and 13 wounded. The following casualties other than the military casualties reported above: 'Killed, 27 men; nine women; five children; total, 41. 'Injured, 64 men, 30 women and seven children; total, 101. 'Totals: 91 men, 39 women, and 12 children; grand total, 142. 'Of these casualties, 32 killed and 85 injured were in the London area, these figures include those announced last night.'

London's latest Zeppelin raid exceeds in the number of casualties any previous attack on the British capital. The last in which casualties were reported, that of September 8, comes second. Twenty deaths were caused on that occasion, while 88 persons were injured. The casualties in the raid of last night brings the total for all air raids on England up to 640, of which number 177 persons were killed and 463 injured.

BERLIN OFFICIAL REPORT. Says Bombs Also Dropped on Water-Works and Town of Woolwich. Berlin, Oct. 14. (by Wireless to Sayville)—An official report today by the German admiralty regarding the Zeppelin raid on London says that in addition to dropping bombs on the English capital, the waterworks at Hampton and the town of Woolwich, where there is a great arsenal, were heavily bombarded. Great fires are reported to have followed the explosion of the Zeppelin bombs.

The text of the admiralty's statement follows: "German airships during the night of October 13-14 attacked the city of London in the vicinity of the Cannon street hotel, in the financial district of London. "Lord Willoughby de Broke and William Johnson-Hicks, member of parliament, were the principal speakers at the meeting.

"Several attacks were made especially on the city of London. "Injured, 64 men, 30 women and seven children; total, 101. "At all the places attacked important explosions and great fires were observed.

"All the airships returned safely although they were vigorously attacked on passing over the English coast."

WOULD RAID GERMAN TOWNS. Endorsement Given Proposal to Put End to Attacks on London. London, Oct. 14.—The proposal of Republican Party to German air raids by bombing his "sleeping towns as he bombs ours" received an enthusiastic endorsement at a mass meeting held today in the great hall of the Cannon street hotel, in the financial district of London.

Lord Willoughby de Broke and William Johnson-Hicks, member of parliament, were the principal speakers at the meeting.

RUSSIAN AND ITALIAN AID FOR SERBIA NOW QUESTION FOR ALLIES

Government Will Appeal from Judge Hough's Decision.

HEFLIN'S STATEMENT

Says Supreme Court Will Declare Law Constitutional as Only the Title and Number Originated in the Senate.

Washington, Oct. 14.—An appeal will be taken from the decision of Federal Judge Hough in New York yesterday declaring the Cotton Futures Act unconstitutional, according to a statement today by Representative Hefflin, of Alabama, after a conference with Department of Agriculture officials.

Mr. Hefflin declared that department officials and Attorney General Gregory, whom he also saw, shared his opinion that the act was constitutional and that the Supreme Court would so declare. "The number and title were the only things about the bill that originated in the Senate," said Mr. Hefflin. The measure was passed originated in the House and was perfected by the House committee on agriculture and substituted for the Senate bill.

"Judge Hough held the act was unconstitutional because it originated in the Senate."

FAITH IN SUPREME COURT. Representative Lever Not Surprised at Judge Hough's Decision. Anderson, S. C., Oct. 14.—Representative A. F. Lever, one of the authors of the Cotton Futures Act, declared today in a statement to the House that he was not surprised at the decision of Judge Hough in New York yesterday.

"From the remarks of Judge Hough during the argument of the case before him," said Mr. Lever, "I am not surprised at the decision bearing out the best legal information obtainable, but I have faith in the Supreme Court's decision on the bill. The first income tax acts were unconstitutional, but we now have an income tax law."

"The break of more than $150 per bale on the New York cotton exchange after the announcement of the decision yesterday on the possibility of returning to the old system, is the best evidence of the value of the act to the cotton producer."

SENATOR SMITH'S STATEMENT. On Decision Holding Cotton Futures Bill Unconstitutional. Atlanta, Oct. 14.—Senator Hoke Smith, in a statement on the decision of Federal Judge Hough holding unconstitutional the Smith-Lever Cotton Futures bill, declared today that it is hardly probable that "the courts can hold that the bill falls within the requirements of the constitution, which (Continued on Page Ten)

HOUSE LEADERS MAY BE CALLED IN CONFERENCE

Not All in Favor of $400,000,000 for National Defense.

Congressman Kitchin One of Them. He, Clark and Others, May Be Asked to Confer With Wilson at the White House.

(Special Star Telegram.) Washington, Oct. 14.—Plans are under way, it was learned today, to call Speaker Clark, Majority Leader Claude Kitchin and the heads of all of the large working committees of the House to Washington for a conference to decide upon a legislative program to be put through by the coming Congress with special reference to the amount of money to be appropriated for the army and navy.

Representative Fou, chairman of the House claims committee and ranking member of the powerful rules committee of the House, stated tonight that he favored such a plan. Mr. Fou made this statement after he had been in conference with Postmaster General Burleson, who, it is generally assumed, speaks for the administration in matters relating to legislation.

The President and even some of his cabinet members have realized for a long time that, in order to pass any legislation of great importance, the many factions must get together. Especially is this true with reference to National defense. Reports from the White House today indicate that the President favors a total appropriation for the army and navy of approximately $400,000,000. There are many Democratic members who are opposed to a long time that, in order to pass any legislation of great importance, the many factions must get together.
