ous an instantaneous hit-Wallace & Beach's Military Maids, in their opcuing day at the Victoria yesterday. A and witty sketch, "The Suffragettes," a farcical get-off on Woman's rights, was the least part of the program which they presented. The outstanding features of the show are the excellent acrobatic contortionist work by Wallace and Beach, the best seen in Wilmington in a long while, the color work of Miss Jessie Beech, augmented by the nifty chorus, and the many pretty musical numbers throughout the ly the best black-face comedian of the season. Jack pulled some of the best original and nifty. Today "The Suffragettes" will be repeated, and tomorrow a brand new show, with nothing repeated except by Royal Theatre Friday, afternoon or fight. Thursday night will be another special attraction, "The Chorus Girl Contest," and Friday night the Country Store, even bigger than last week, with a great array of articles. Saturday afternoon, a rare treat is being prepared for the kiddies, which will be announced later.

"Inspiration" at the Grand. And did "Inspiration" make a hit at the Grand yesterday? Did It! Why the ones who were disappointed because they couldn't get a seat last night alone, will make a pretty good beginning towards today's crowds. Evident-Is many Wilmingtonians took our tip to get in while they could yesterday, for today's crowds will be larger than even last night's rush.

"Inspiration" will leave Wilmington with many left behind who wanted to see it but couldn't. It has been so verywhere. Just one tremendous sucess after another in every town where It has been shown. But there can be no return date for at least three months, as it is booked solid that far la advance now.

"Inspiration" is the spectacular, darng romance of an art model, starring the leading role Audrey Munson, The American Venus: the world's nost famous art model. And Miss Munson is the whole show, too. It is the one big artistic triumph of picturelom's past year of activities, and has been the sensation of the entire film world. "Inspiration" is in five big reels, and every reel is packed full of

"The Broken Coin" Today.

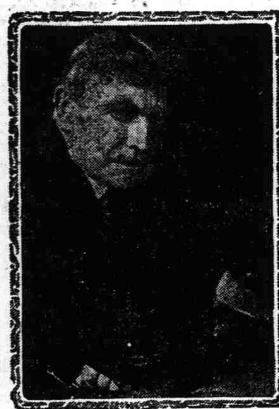

The next to the final chapter of the great serial, "The Broken Coin"! Gee, but won't the folks all flock to the Bijou today. Talk about action, but the equal of these two reeis of motion pictures has never been seen anywhere. There's enough stuff to be told and done in the concluding four reels of this great picture to make a half dozen ordinary feature photoplays, and it has all got to be jammed and rammed into four reels. That guarantees something doing every minute of the half hour it will be on the screen today. The next chapter-the final and conclusion-is entitled "An American Queen," and, of course, you want to see how that comes about. You could probably furnish a pretty good guess as to who the American Queen will be, but still you want to see how she does it. So come early today.

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mt. Airy, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chap-pell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell.

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.

I read one day about Cardui, the wo-man's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together. My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it."

Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it las a million other women in he past half century.
