made to distribute the cards. Mr. Hartsfield Crandall knew nothing about any money having been paid anybody. He had received nothing, he said, but declared he had been promised something by Mr. King, which he never received.

The State rested and the defense moved for a non-suit on the ground that no case had been made out. Judge Peebles granted the motion. Solicitor Lyon stated that he would take a nol pros in the cases against Mayor Moore, alleged in the bill of particulars to have given $25 to Rev. Isaac King and I. J. King; Councilman L. M. Bunting, alleged to have given Rev. Isaac King $10, and Councilman W. J. Bradshaw, alleged to have given Rev. Isaac King $3. The Solicitor stated that he would ask for a trial in the case against Councilman Jones and in the other case against Mrw Cradwick, as they were of a different nature. Court took a recess at noon until 2:30 o'clock.

Failure to Report Alleged. The first case called in the afternoon was that against Councilman W. F. Jones, who was alleged to have unlawfully and wilfully paid Rev. Isaac King $10 which amount he failed to report according to law.

'I received $10 from Mr. Jones to distribute his cards in the Fifth ward," Mr. King testified. The State then submitted Mr. Jones' sworn statement of his expenses in the election which did not include the $10 alleged to have been paid Mr. King. Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, was put on the stand to identify the document.

The State rested and the defense moved for a non-suit on the ground that the indictment alleged that the money had been spent unlawfully and wilfully while the evidence by the State did not show that there had been anything unlawful about it. Judge Peebles overruled the motion, stating Logan. that the question at issue was that of failure to have made report of the expense, as required by law.

Councilman Jones then took the stand in his own behalf and stated that in making out his expense account he followed his check book and that in W. Hunter, prominent Confederate vetthis way he overlooked the item of $10. According to his recollection he had early today after a short illness. He paid $10 in money to Mr. King's son was born at Martinsburg, Va., and was for the use of his horse and buggy. in his 79th year. He had paid out no other money. The live, he declared, in not making a reshowed $15.50.

Acquitted by Jury. In charging the jury, Judge Peebles Times. pointed out that the law is very specific in making it a misdemeanor not to make a report of election expenses and that failure to do so in the case of Will Send High School Debaters legitimate expenses was just as much a violation as in the other instance.
