SCORE 3 TO 2 AT END OF REMARKABLY WELL PLAYED GAME ON WET GROUNDS AND IN CHILLY WEATHER

A. & M. EASILY DEFEATS WILLIAM AND MARY 12 TO 2

(Special Star Correspondence.) Raleigh, N. C., April 3.—A. & M. easily defeated William and Mary here today by the score of 12 to 2. The Techs scoring machine got to work in the very first inning, getting five hits and seven runs. They continued their batting and sent five more across the rubber in the next two frames. The visitors put up a poor exhibition and at no time showed any form. The Techs took advantage of this and sent in many substitutes in the closing innings. Captain Winston, the Techs' star receiver, split his finger in the fourth and had to retire. He will probably be out of the game for a week. Lewis, who succeeded him, showed good form.

BACK INTO OLD-TIME FORM

J. Franklin Baker is one of those on the roster of Donovan's hopes who is coming back into his own with a vengeance. Last year he was a quiet farmer at Trappe, Md., and before that a terror to the pitchers of the American League, not to mention some of the twirlers of the Giants, who inadvertently or otherwise were waylaid by this Mr. Baker during a thrilling moment in a certain October. Handcapped during the early training weeks by a crushed finger, Baker has slowly reached top condition, but right now he is going the pace expected. Baker fills a long-vacant place on the Yankees, the job of clean-up hitter, and not only does Donovan predict a big year for Baker but the rest of the Yankees are marveling at his ability.

"BOLD PLANS ARE BEST"

American Can Show the World Some of the Best of Military Planning. (From the Review of Reviews.) America, when at her best, is a country of bold conceptions and large devices. We want a navy that will make our pacifism respected and respectable.

There is now a definite movement in favor of inaugurating a series of aeroplane postal routes with a view to training and equipping men who could be available at once for military scout service in case of need.

The development of the aeroplane has been so rapid that such proposals as this of a postal service no longer seem fanciful. So general is the American aptitude for mechanical things that countless thousands of youths could be taught the operation of such instruments as machine guns with little trouble.

The People of This Community Are Reading This Paper Today

By J. R. HAMILTON Former Advertising Manager of Wanamaker's, Philadelphia

You, sir, or madam, are part of a greater audience than was ever gathered together in this community. Your combined power is that of a great army.

Your possible purchasing power alone is enough to make every commercial institution here respond to your will. You are going into the stores of this city now to spend that money.

And what you are trying to find out is how to spend it to your best advantage and where. Let us see how we can help you most.

Here in this paper today is the advertising news of the strong men of trade, the regular buyers and the best judges of merchandise. They have ransacked their shelves and their stock-rooms to give you the finest they have. They are too shrewd to spend their money and attract your attention to anything but the best.

This is their biggest season, too, and some of the values they are offering today will seem impossible to you who do not know a buyer's necessities.

If you could go behind the scenes and see their stock of shoes and coats and dresses and suits and underwear, of furniture and rugs and draperies, all shrewdly gathered from the ends of the earth, all brought down to the lowest figure or raised to the highest standard of quality by every method known to expert merchandising, then you would understand the labor that has been expended for you.

There is no advertisement in this paper too small for you to notice today. For every one of these smaller merchants has had enough faith in his merchandise to put his announcement before you as large as he could; enough courage to stand back of it, and the integrity to sign his name to what he presents. He has some good reason for talking to you, and the fact that he is talking to you is proof of his ability and success.

And there is no advertisement too large for you to study carefully. Many a buyer, with some good value worth a column of space, has had to put it in the middle of half a page and crowd it into three short lines.

Here, then, is your compendium of merchandise, your catalogue of good goods; here amongst these merchants who are asking your attention today through the columns of their advertisements and offering you the best that they have.

UNCLE JOE CANNON CIGAR Just One Experience With It Was Enough for Habitual Smoker. (Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch.) Did you ever smoke an Uncle Joe Cannon cigar? A Columbus man went through the ordeal a couple of weeks ago, and he will not soon forget the experience. He tells his own story: "One night after a big dinner I put on my jacket and slippers and settled down for a long siege with my 'Uncle Joe.' It lasted from 7 o'clock until nearly 10, and there was a good healthy stub when I threw it aside. Everything went well until I got to bed, and then— "Say, it was awful. As the bed went round and round, I fell into a dizzy sleep and started to dream. I could see an old gray mare who used to have down in the country. I thought she had been hitched to the foot of my bed and was springing down a city street. Outside of a little trouble in keeping in the middle of the street, everything went along well until we came to the end of the paving, and hit the high spots for the rural districts. "We were making about 'two-nothing' when a couple of slats came out and I dropped through to the frozen roadway. The old mare kept on down the pike, while I picked up my suffering frame and dragged myself back home just in time to hear the cuckoo strike midnight. "No more 'Uncle Joes' for mine." Council Bluffs, Iowa, April 3.—Suit was filed today against the estate of General Grenville Dodge, distinguished civil engineer and Civil War veteran, for alleged delinquent taxes aggregating $1,000,000. It is alleged the inventory of the Dodge estate shows a large amount of his property never was taxed.

Don't Neglect Kidneys

Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Prescription Overcomes Kidney Trouble. It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood. The kidneys receive some assistance when needed. We take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich, heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as same back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble. An ideal herbal compound that has had most remarkable success as a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. There is nothing else like it. It is Dr. Kilmer's prescription used in private practice and it is sure to benefit you. Get a bottle from your druggist. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Wilmington Daily Star.
