Brooklyn, Sept. 28.—Philadelphia overcame Brooklyn today 8 to 4 in the first game of the final series, the result of which may prove a decisive factor in the National League pennant race. By winning, Philadelphia reduced Brooklyn's lead to less than half a game. The contest, witnessed by a big crowd, was an erratic exhibition. Both teams made costly errors and brilliant plays. Alexander was on the mound for Philadelphia, and, although he was not at his best, he outpitched Cheney, who started for Brooklyn, and who was wild and ineffective. A one-handed catch by Paskert was the fielding feature.

Philadelphia gained the lead by scoring three runs in the second. Cravath walked, Luderus doubled and Cravath scored on Niehoff's out. Luderus scored when Cheney threw wild on Killifer's bunt. Alexander brought in his battery mate with a sacrifice fly. Brooklyn came back with one run in its half of the third. Myers got a hit off Alexander after two were out, went to second on Daubert's single and scored when Niehoff misjudged a fly by Stengel.

Cheney had a wild streak in the fourth and Philadelphia made four more runs. Luderus singled and Niehoff walked and both scored on a wild throw by Cheney. Coombs went into the box for Brooklyn and issued a pass to Killifer. Wheat permitted a single by Alexander to get past him and Luderus, Killifer and Niehoff scored while Alexander went to third, scoring on a single by Paskert.

Fighting gamely, the league leaders obtained two runs in the fifth on singles by Olsen and Miller, a base on balls by Coombs, a fumble by Bancroft and Daubert's out. Paskert robbed Olsen of an apparent home run in the sixth. Brooklyn scored its fourth and last run in the seventh.

New York, Sept. 28.—Boston was virtually eliminated from the National League pennant race here today when New York twice defeated the visitors, 2 to 1 and 6 to 0. The victories boosted the New York winning streak to 25 straight games.

In the second game not a man reached first base against Schupp until the sixth inning, when Blackburn walked. Konetsky got the only hit, a single in the seventh. These two were the only players to reach first base. Benny Kauff hit a home run in the third inning of the second contest with the bases full. In this inning Gowdy was banished from the game for disputing a decision by Umpire Rigler.

In the first game Tesreau and Rudolph engaged in a pitching duel and the Giant hurler bested his rival. Robertson virtually decided this game by lifting the ball into the upper tier of the grand stand in the fourth inning for a home run.

Boston, Sept. 28.—The New York Americans won a ten-inning game from Boston today 4 to 2. Boston scored in the first inning when Janvryn doubled, took third on an infield out and tallied on a wild pitch. Another run came in the third on a base on balls, a single and two sacrifices. Mays weakened in the eighth and New York tied the score on two singles and a double. In the tenth Walters led off with a two bagger, went to third when Walters fumbled the drive and scored on Bogridge's single to left. Magee then sent Morigridge home with a triple.

Philadelphia, Sept. 28.—Washington won the second game of the series from Philadelphia 4 to 1. Nabors pitched good ball but errors by Grover and Witt gave Washington its first two runs and Nabors retired to let McEwhee bat for him in the eighth. Bressler, who pitched the ninth inning, was wild and the Senators scored their other two runs.

CHRISTMAS DAY WILL MARK BIG TIME FOR HIM

"Judge" Wrightberry will eat turkey for first time in years on coming Yuletide—will celebrate birthday, too.

"I will be seventy-six years old Christmas Day and, in appreciation of the wonderful relief I have gained through Tanlac, I will have a bottle of it on the dinner table with the big roasted turkey and other foods that go to make up our family Christmas dinner, for it will be the first time in years that I will be able to enjoy a really good, big dinner on that day of days."

"Judge" S. M. Wrightberry is authority for the foregoing statement. Mr. Wrightberry lives on the outskirts of Greensboro and is one of the leading native Guilford County farmers. From boyhood, save for the years he gave to the South in cause of the Confederacy, this venerable gentleman has tilled the soil on his large 117-acre farm. Mr. Wrightberry is known to his many friends as a man whose word is his bond, and there can be no cause for doubt when he says: "Tanlac is worth more to me than a hundred times what I paid for it, because it is the only medicine that has helped me."

"Doctors attended me, had me in a hospital and treated me with an X-ray machine, but didn't offer me lasting relief. The last physician to attend me pronounced my case as cancer of the stomach, and told my wife, as I lay on my sick bed, that he feared if I would live until he returned to his office. Then it was that a neighbor farmer dropped in to see me, and he told me of his success with Tanlac. I told Mrs. Wrightberry to get some and, believe me, I took it."

"I had suffered more than words can tell. I couldn't eat and had to be content with a diet of eggs, milk and mush, even though it didn't agree with me. My stomach rolled in and I suffered as if a butcher knife was penetrating my lower left side. I couldn't bend because of my pains."

"Soon after taking Tanlac I improved so that I told the doctor he needn't come back. Why, I can digest the rankest bacon now. My sleep is as good as any person's. My regular appetite enables me to work again. I let my hired hand go because I didn't need him any more. My weight has increased about twenty pounds, and there is nothing too good that I can say about Tanlac. It is the only thing that has helped me."

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington exclusively at the Bellamy Drug Store; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Magsnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.

DAVIDSON STUDENT BODY IS MUCH INTERESTED IN FOOTBALL
Davidson, N. C., Sept. 28.—At a recent meeting of the student body it was agreed that the reports of the games would be sent in by wire so that those at home may hear how the game is going. Last year the score was sent in by quarters but this new plan calls for a fifty-word report of each quarter as well as the score. The action of the student body shows the spirit of the college and the faith they have in their team.

The student body is looking forward with pleasure to the opening contest of the season with University of Virginia next Saturday, and there seems to be a generally prevalent feeling that the Red and Black machine will put up a worthy Davidson fight. Although it is impossible to give a comparison as to the relative strength of the two teams it is safe to say that the Blue and Gold squad will outweigh Davidson by ten or fifteen pounds. This will call for a good deal of speed and fight on the part of the Red and Black to offset their opponents and they will be right there with the goods.

BILL CARRIGAN.

Manager of the Boston Red Sox whose skill in handling his pitchers and other players is largely responsible for the great showing of the Boston team in the last few weeks. The Boston team has now a commanding lead in the race for the pennant. Besides managing the team Carrigan has caught most of the recent games.

THE BATTING LEADERS.

Only two leading big league batters, both of them with the Brooklyn team, took part in Thursday's games, Daubert getting two hits in three times at bat and gaining two points, while Wheat failed to hit in four times up and slipped back three points. Speaker, Cobb and Jackson have not played since Monday. The standing:

BROOKLYN MUST WIN ONE OF TWO GAMES TO RETAIN LEAD

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Less than half a game separates the league leading Brooklyn team and Philadelphia in the National League pennant race as a result of today's victory of the latter over the former. Brooklyn must get an even break in the two remaining contests with the Champions to remain in first place, when the important four game series starts with New York. Philadelphia has a hard series in front, too, a six game set with Boston. The standing:

Club			W	L	Pct.
Brooklyn	59	58	.508
Philadelphia	58	57	.508
Boston	54	50	.520

Boston lost half a game in the American League race today and leaves Chicago and Detroit still in the hunt. Chicago is two and half games behind and Detroit four. The standing:
