CHAMPS HELD HITLESS BY MOGRIDGE OF YANKS

But Red Sox Score One Run on a Walk, Fumble and Sacrifices

Like a Bolt From the Blue Brown Trounce Tigers—White Sox Stage Rally to Win—Senators Win Loose One.

Boston, April 24.—Mogridge turned the world's champion Red Sox back with a hit today, and New York won 2 to 1. Both teams erred frequently. The visitors scored in the sixth when, with two out, Aragon doubled and scored on Magee's single, which Lewis fumbled. The Bostonians tied the score in the seventh on a run produced by a base on balls to Barry, Peckinpaugh's fumble at second, sacrifice hit by Lewis, and Walsh's sacrifice fly in the ninth. Peckinpaugh singled, stole second, took third on Cady's poor throw and scored with the winning run when McNeil threw low to first base.

Score by Innings: R H E
Boston 000 001 001—2 8 3
New York 000 000 100—1 0 4
Mogridge and Nunamaker; Leonard and Cady.

Win At Eleventh Hour.

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—Eight hits, one of them a two-base hit, after two men were out in the eighth inning, netted St. Louis seven runs and victory over Detroit today, 7 to 2. Up to the eighth inning Coveleski had held St. Louis to three hits and had allowed only five balls to be driven out of the infield. St. Louis pounded his delivery hard after a poor throw that would have retired the side in the eighth, however, and drove him from the box.

Score by Innings: R H E
St. Louis 000 000 070—7 11 2
Detroit 100 100 000—2 5 1
Wellman, Koob and Hale, Severeld; Coveleski, Jones and Spencer.

Not An Indian Passes Second.

Chicago, April 24.—Chicago won the first game of the series today, with Cleveland, 1 to 0, on Risberg's triple and E. Collins's sacrifice fly in the ninth inning. The game was a pitching duel between Scott and Coveleski, the latter allowing the locals but two hits. Scott was tiring for more, but did not allow a visitor to pass second base. The fielding of Leibold and Evans were features.

Judge's Hit Counts.

Washington, April 24.—Washington defeated Philadelphia today, 8 to 5, evening the series. A pass, a sacrifice and four hits, including a triple by Judge with the bases set, gave the locals six runs in the second inning.

WAKE FOREST DEFEATS ELON COLLEGE BY 4 TO 2 SCORE

Wake Forest, N. C., April 24.—Launching a fierce attack upon the defenses of Winston and Stettler, Wake Forest this afternoon poured out seven hits for four runs in the first two innings and defeated Elon College 4 to 2. Captain Ellis, on the firing line for the Baptist, held the Elonites well in hand throughout, while Stettler, replacing Winston, held Wake Forest to two hits in the first six innings.

Coleman Hit Freely Had Poor Support

GEORGIA DEFEATS CAROLINA IN ONE-SIDED, SLOPPY GAME, HAVING EVERYTHING THEIR WAY THROUGHOUT.

(Special Star Telegram.)
Chapel Hill, N. C., April 24.—In one of the sloppiest games staged on the local diamond this year, Georgia defeated Carolina here today 10 to 1.

The game was full of errors and was one-sided from the start, the visitors having everything their own way for nine innings. The game was interesting because of the heavy hitting and fast fielding of the Cracker team, four double plays being pulled off. Coleman was hit freely and had poor support. The only run obtained by Carolina was in the sixth, when Younce got on on an error and scored on Powell's grounder to Spurlock.

Pittsburg is Defeated in Thrilling Ten-Inning Battle

Giants Bunch Hits on Brave Slabmen and Win by 8 to 2—Cubs Outright Reds and Relegate Matty-men to Second Division

St. Louis, April 24.—With the bases full in the tenth, J. Smith, batting for Ames, singled, scoring Cruz with the run that gave St. Louis today's game with Pittsburg, 2 to 1. In the fifth Baird singled, stole second, took third on Fischer's out, scored when Ward singled. Hornsby tied the score for St. Louis with a home run in their half of the inning. In the tenth Cruz singled to left and went to third when Bigbee let the ball get by him. F. Smith and Gonzalez were purposely passed, then came J. Smith's hit.

Helme Zimmerman Takes a Hand.

New York, April 24.—New York made it two out of three from the Boston team here today, winning the last game of the series, 3 to 2. Schupp was effective against the Boston batsmen, while the Giants bunched hits on both Allen and Barnes. A running catch by Burns on Smith was the fielding feature. Zimmerman drove in three runs for New York.

Mitchell's Crew Win One.

Cincinnati, April 24.—Chicago hit Mitchell and Knetzer hard and timely here today and won the third game of the series, 3 to 4. Cincinnati knocked Demaree out in the third, Carter finishing the innings. Aldridge pitched fine ball in the last six innings. Kopf hit the score board in the third for a home run.

TO PLAY TENNIS MATCHES FOR BENEFIT OF RED CROSS

New York, April 24.—The first of a series of special tennis matches for the benefit of the American Red Cross fund will be played here Saturday under the auspices of the National Tennis Association. The singles will bring together Clifton B. Herd, of California, and Harold Throckmorton, of Elizabeth, N. J., while George M. Church and Dean Mathey will oppose Karl H. Behr and T. R. Pell. Two of the players, Throckmorton and Church have recent returned from a series of competitions in the Orient.

MR. FRANK LAMB OFFERS FARM FOR CULTIVATION

Wants New Hanover or Pender to Utilize It For Food Production.
Mr. Frank P. Lamb, of Wilmington, is every inch a patriot as was evidenced yesterday when he, of his own free will and accord, offered his farm of 100 acres, located near Coll Mills in Pender county, either to New Hanover or Pender free of charge to be planted in food crops. Mr. Lamb's offer is in response to the suggestion of Governor Bickett that county commissioners authorize the working of idle farms by convict labor, if necessary, in order that every foot of ground may be utilized for the growing of foodstuffs.

HUDSON AND ABERG THURSDAY

Clever Middleweight Wrestlers Will Clash at Woolvin Hall in Finish Match—Hanson Wins.

Burt Hudson, once considered the champion middleweight wrestler of the South, will uncock his wares before a Wilmington crowd for the first time tomorrow night. He will have for his opponent one Ed Aberg, recently noted in this vicinity because of his activities against a Mr. Hanson, on a squared circle in Woolvin Hall.

The only line that can be secured on the two men as regards their respective merits is by comparing their respective showings against Fritz Hanson. Fritz licked both of the pair, taking Hudson into camp in Columbia, two falls to three, and scalping Aberg in Wilmington by the whitewash route. It might be mentioned here also that while one night without either man winning a clean fall, the local man finally winning on a foul. Judging by this it looks like it is Aberg to win tomorrow, but then we must consider that Hudson succeeded in winning one fall from Fritz while Aberg failed to do this ruckly. Therefore, it looks like a battle where both men are equally matched, and one that should furnish all the fireworks necessary to insure a cracking battle.

Hanson went to Sumter Monday night supposedly to meet an unknown wrestler, but found no arriving that night. Kilonis was the first fall and Fritz the second, the Greek repeatedly fouling in the final, and Hanson finally winning it on a foul.

PENNY CAMPAIGN ON TODAY

National Special Aid Society Will Raise Funds For Patriotic Work—Hundreds Interested.

The patriotic penny campaign of the National Special Aid Society, which will be formally launched today, has met with the most cordial endorsement of the people of Wilmington and promises to be the means of raising a large fund for relief work during the war. It is the purpose of the organization to have every person in the city, who will join in the movement, contribute a penny a day, or more if they can, for relief work.

The practical unanimity of the block messengers of the society, who will have charge of the collecting the pennies, has been most encouraging as the fact that almost without exception those who have registered in the civic register for voluntary service, have promised to co-operate and have pledged their support of the movement, which extends from the most northern portion of the city to the utmost southern portion and from the Cape Fear river to Seagate.

Screen Star Braved Death On the Aisne

MAX LINDER COMES TO AMERICA AFTER DOING HIS BIT IN THE ANGLO-FRENCH ARMY.

Designated as Third North Carolina Division by Adjutant-General.

The Wilmington division of Naval Reserves received orders yesterday from the office of the adjutant-general stating that it had been officially designated as the Third North Carolina Division, with headquarters at Wilmington, and authorizing the commissioning of H. B. Peschau, as lieutenant, senior grade; E. C. Dickinson, lieutenant, junior grade, and E. F. Peschau, as ensign.

As soon as the equipment of the company arrives, they will probably be assigned to duty along the coast. The total war strength must be enlisted not later than Thursday, so as to perfect their permanent organization and select the petty officers. The recruiting station at Front and Princess streets will be open for the enlistment of all who desire to join for the next two days.

Tomorrow—Laf Day.

Screen Star Braved Death On the Aisne

MAX LINDER COMES TO AMERICA AFTER DOING HIS BIT IN THE ANGLO-FRENCH ARMY.

Newspapers of America are telling some stirring tales of the hard luck which befell Max Linder, the famous French screen comedian, who went through a great part of the European war and has recently come to America to make a series of big screen comedies.

Linder served as an automobile scout for eighteen months, using his own machine under special direction of General Gallieni, braving the perils of the shot-torn battlefields to deliver his orders to the front line trenches. His automobile was blown to bits by shrapnel, finally, and Max was transferred to the artillery service. In this he served until desperately wounded in the battle of the Aisne, where he was shot through the lung just above the heart. Removed to the base hospital at Contrexville, he lay on the verge of death for several months and reports spread that he was dead, and he read his own obituary in many newspapers in Paris.

Facts About Factory Sites Proposition

Noble property, northeast of Carolina Heights to be used. Property to be offered underwriters at exact cost, approximately $135 per acre.

Total development, covering period of ten years, not to exceed $160,000. Excess amount above property cost to be used for improvements.

Property has approximately 500 acres.

Has waterways on two sides, one to depth of approximately 12 feet.

Has railroad trackage already through property. Free sites proposition to be absolutely under control of trustees representing underwriters.

County of New Hanover to underwrite one-fourth; city of Wilmington to underwrite one-fourth; business men to underwrite one-fourth; Tidewater Power Company to underwrite one-fourth.

Endorsements of four interests will secure necessary money, which will be borrowed to be paid back within ten years.

No increase of city taxes will be levied, as such will not be necessary.

One-half of property will be given away for free sites. Remainder will be developed and sold later. Proceeds from land sold will be more than sufficient to cancel notes of the underwriting interests.

Every manufacturing secured must prove its success before deed to site is given.

Any prospective concern will have full privilege to locate anywhere else in the city, if desired. Site is within few hundred yards of the city.

Officers and employees of plants can rent houses in the city and be within few minutes of work.

No single interest will control the plan as each of the four underwriters will be equally represented. This will assure uncontrolled control.

Plan was given enthusiastic endorsement by majority of votes cast previously.

Proposition has been thoroughly looked into and approved by every member of City Council and endorsed by committee of 100 men, representing every line of business in the city.

Committee of 100 and, practically all real estate agents agree that the part of the tract to be sold will pay off the total indebtedness of $160,000, and interest, within allotted period of ten years. This agreement of judgment of the city of Wilmington will be only lending its credit, with endorsement of notes assuming responsibility for the one-fourth interest. The notes will be secured by borrowing from the banks as needed and not one cent from taxation.

Rotary club members will work for the proposition solely for love of Wilmington and for the good of the city. Assistance and support of every voter earnestly sought and welcomed.

No bond issue will be sought. Never contemplated.

All voters are asked to comply with the following request by signing when today.

Rotary Club, Box 194,
Wilmington, N. C.
