London, July 14 .- The political turmoil which has been convulsing Germany ever since Russia's first startling success on the resumption of her offensive has culminated for the present in the resignation of the Imperial Chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, but all indications serve to show that his resignation, far from being the last act in the drama, is but the beginning of far-reaching revelopments which are bound to affect the fabric of the German empire and have momentous consequences on the progress of the European struggle.

At the same time, the chancellor, by the declaration that Germany was defensively fighting for the freedom of her territorial possessions, evolved a formula that seemed satisfactory to both those who clamored for peace by agreement and those who demanded repudiation of the formula, "no annexations and no indemnities."

Crown Prince Intervened. In all this, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollveg. was strongly backed by the em peror. The fact that Field Marshal von Hindenburg, chief of staff, and General von Ludendorff, first quartermaster general, have been most prominent throughout these discussions and that a section of the press has been clamoring for a joint dictatorship by them hardly augurs well for the realization of the Prussian franchise reform which the Emperor has just decreed, or for the movement toward a diminution of Germany's war aims, and theremost to persuade the German emperor
