OTTON PRICES UNSETTLED ALL GRAINS MOUNT HIGHER STOCKS RULED BY SHORTS

pemand From Brokers But Resction Later Causes Decline.

New York, July 28.-A renewed demand for October contracts by brokes identified with trade interests promoted early steadiness in the coton market today, and first prices gere 1 to 11 points net higher. Covging on rather a liberal scale took slace in the first half hour and there vas also a fair amount of buying by wire houses and for Liverpool account which produced further advanes October selling up to 23.98 and perember 23.74, representing 13 to 18 points net rise. The crop news, however, proved to too favorable for any sustained bull movement and in the final hour, the market turned weak again, Octo 23,75 and December 100er 45.27, or 4 to 5 points under the werious close, from which there was sight rally in the last few minutes the market closing steady with Migust seven points lower and other gonths unchanging to nine points

From all parts of the belt came reports of improving conditions with the ports of parts of central and southern Texas which some authorihas said were still in poor shape. At Fall River, business was reported to e quieter than at any previous week dive last January, sales aggregating 9,000 pieces, including 20,000 spots, while curtailment amounted to 90,000. ### NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, July 28.—Periods of ing were experienced in cotton here around the first call and at the 08e, but during the greater part of of the demand for shorts who wanted for over the week-end. On the opening there was a decline of 3 to 15 cattle—Weak; native beef cattle 7.60 late year, 2,370. a level 16 to 17 points over yeslerday's close. Last prices were two boints down net. Toward the close 13.25. there was a suddent sput of selling. The initial uneasiness was due in some measure to the rise in the federal War risk rate to 6 1-2 per cent, but the rains in the Atlantics and the drouth drouth through Texas soon proved a steadying influence.

Bullish comment was aroused by that quotations, which, while revised were unchanged on middling and the tos 4s, 10%c. apper grades, middling being quoted at cents a pound.
