Published by the WILMINGTON STAB COMPANY, INC., Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT. THE MORNING STAR, the cluest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily and mailed to subscribers outside the county at $6 per year; $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months or served by carrier in the city and suburbs at 60c. per month, or, when paid in advance, $7.00 per year; $3.50 for six months, $1.75 for three months. tor three months.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1.00; are months, 50 cents; three months,

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may rest as-sured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Witmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous terri-tory in South Carolina Obstuary sketcause of a private enterwrise or a political candidate, and like planter will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a hair rate will be allowed. Anabuncaments of fairs, festivals, batis, hops, picnics excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except as many he of news cept so much thereof as may be of news value to the readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

THEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51.

Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61.
COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted, and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected, unless the real name of the author accom panies the same, not necessarily for pubcation, but as a guarantee of good faith. ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money of-ders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable and all communications should be addressed to THE WILMINGTON STAR CO.

SUNDAY, JULY 29, 1917.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

The Master's command is "Abide in And fruitless and vain will your If out of touch with your Lord

The rush in Russia is wrong end

Do your thinking for Wilmington early and often.

We must think of starting something as well as getting something.

A man with horse sense is never pigheaded enough to butt in like a goat.

All hands want an honorable peace but if it isn't so very honorable to the other side it won't make a bit of

When a negro in Union county was military service have you He replied, "I has been shot at this time when everybody judges Geor-The Columbia State suggests: "Many a Sammie will find his Sammuella on the other side." Perish the thought that

The "People's Council" of New York ion is the object of America in the first and tell all about it after busi-

The war situation is set forth in one statement today, but tomorrow it is contradicted by a contrary statement.

going to clean up the Kaiser. It is rumored that Charlotte presentthat there is horse sense a plenty in operating company. the Queen City. "Bring in another horse" at the right time.

We have been asked to represent a contributions of tobacco, cigarettes, ci- ment upon a practical basis. gars, pipes and tobacco money to be sent to the American soldiers in Europe. In spite of the fact that we quit the weed a year or so ago, we guess the boys would like some indulgence themselves while they are somewhere in front of the Germans.

license as 25 a few months ago, but swiped very much before. when he neglected to register as a a slacker he had to go back to the war Colonel Roosevelt has imagined family Bible to prove that he was 35. he would be very useful to this coun-The difference between a man and a try in another war, but an unsentimenwoman who wishes to appear younger tal War Department decided to send than usual is that a woman would sub- only trained young men to Europe to mit to being drafted before she would take care of the country and let the

WE CAN SAVE TEXAS CATTLE HERE GOOD WATER AND PLENTY OF IT.

Referring to a Star editorial of July where on this page of this morning's

In the editorial referred to we pointed to the increasing value and importance of raising live stock in the South because of the fact that cattle and exterminated by slaughter for the readestructive forces of war are hardly cities have been turned down for canless terrible on man's domestic animals are about the same, for the ravages of war sweep man to his death and along with him goes his domestic animals. the decimation of which leaves chilstarve and perish by the hundreds of thousands. Thus war claims its victims on the battle field and far back behind the lines where none seem to be able to escape deprivation, suffering and even death for human beings and their cattle, hogs and sheep.

That ought to impress us very profoundly with both the duty and the opportunity we have here in Eastern it can be done at less expense than anywhere else on earth. Unless we do, the world is bound to suffer and we will suffer with it, if, indeed, we are not already suffering in a way that each knows for himself without being told about it.

Mr. Cardwell, who takes this subject as seriously as we do, reminds us that this matter of exterminating live stock for a great live stock industry in this favored section.

and Shorthorn yearlings and two year tations. old females, ranging from $40 to $60 a head, according to age and condition. The freight on these animals to Eastern North Carolina points from Fort Worth, Texas, would not exceed $8 per head in carload lots.

Indeed, this is a splendid opportunity for us, and we beg our people to in- gether and fight the Germans. terest themselves at once in Mr. Cardwell's communication with reference to the manner of getting at this matter in

AFTER NORTH CAROLINA COAL.

"Give them Germans hell and remem- old Egypt coal fields of North Carober your ma," is the parting advice of lina, in Lee and Chatham counties, near a Union county father to his son who Sanford. The Southern Railway, it has work is proceeding with the prelimi- help things to give the farmers another water and getting the shaft in order for taking out coal some time this fall. The present greatness of North Caro-Contrary to much ignorance concern-Senators Smith and Hardwick ought ing the coal of this region, geologists to be able to judge how they stand at pronounce it of superior steaming quality and extensiveness in deposits now worn by the regular army and the gia on her own merits and not by her in two and possibly more counties cov- militia should not be designated as Express of this week makes this ina Tar Heel Sammie can not be depended on to stick to his own dear, sweet coal mine contained something like low visibility. About four years ago moving it. If all this water could be is supposed to have lower visibility war. Her object is to lick the Germans teresting to know just how long it the dye with which to process the difficulty experienced in the Egypt coal That leaves the audience in a state of of lack of capital. Mining engineers uncertainty except that the allies are and geologists have recently made exmore scientific and thorough basis than to the colors the young men of Wiled a magnificent, mettlesome mount to in the years prior to and during the a cantonment officer. Of course, this war and spasmodically once or twice, splendid showing, and of course is betdoes not indicate that Charlotte is a the last time some twenty years ago ter than Kinston's, but if all credits one-horse town, for Charlotte has other when a firedamp explosion killed many horses to be used in order to prove miners and practically bankrupted the believed that very few would be

It is said the present operators are going about the development of this North Carolina coal field with the cap- branches of the service.—The Kinston national committee which is taking ital necessary to assure its develop- News.

> The fact that North Carolina ham is Heavy Shipments of Luscious Melons selling at 33 cents a pound brings the price of meat home to us. It's better-

What an incomparable section is 24 on "The War Exterminating Live Eastern North Carolina for cantonment Stock," Mr. Guy A. Cardwell, agricul- purposes, since the sandy lands of this tural and immigration agent of the section offer none of the objections to fail to make much of a plentiful and The "Great Commoner" never had a live stock alive during the war. The liquid and make it an asset. Several than upon mankind. The consequences supply. Some of them may have enough water for their limited populations, but when it came to supplying an additional population of 40,000 or 50,000 of it at least-looks upon Major Hale they were found wanting. Better water as a sort of patriarch. He has spent and more water would be a good booster slogan for any town. After a town gets good water, sewerage facilities, good streets and good schools it is just ready to boost. Cantonments are not the only things that emphasize the necessity and value of water and a plenty of it. Has Wilmington all the good water that is needed for a growing port city-possibly a naval base?

THIS IS A SILO COUNTRY.

The Texas cattle raising industry is up against it hard this season because a prolonged drought has parched up the natural ranges and pastures. they could not afford to "antagonize" The farmers are compelled to send their | Major Hale. This has no particular refpurebred cattle to the slaughterhouses prematurely because they depended upon the ranges chiefly, only to find those who sought Democratic nominathat they failed them.

Droughts are liable to strike any country sometimes but the silo can be depended upon during most drought. Eastern North Carolina beats even in business ventures. all the silo countries we ever saw. Down here silos can be filled early and mers an opportunity to secure cattle silo cannot be filled on account of an with which to lay firmly the foundation early drought it can be filled late into cally up to the last of October. It is an his father. The paper is now about a The indications are that the drought The government not only sees the actual fact that not one but many silo hundred years of age, though it was conditions in Texas will continue to necessity of suggesting and urging it, crops can be raised for several months published as a weekly until some force large numbers of these breeding but through the bureau of animal hus- in succession, one crop following the launched. It is now in the hands of pravent this two men have already other on the same land. The silo en- the third generation of the same family, been stationed in the heart of the cat-Texas cattle for breeding purposes and land to make way for another crop or thus saving the future foundation of several different kinds of crops. Easta live stock supply for the nation as ern North Carolina will not fully dis- as a publisher, gave him an influence well as the world. The government cover itself till it discovers the wonder in his home community that might well needed. even offers a round-up of 10,000 head of the silo and its wonderful adaptaof grade Herefords, Aberdeen-Angus bilities as a silo region without limi-

> General Goetnals and Chairman Denman put up a hard fight against each other, but President Wilson seems to have concluded that he would let them get out and give up their places to a couple of men who could get to-

CURRENT COMMENT

Jacksonville's Chamber of Commerce is carrying half page display advertisements in the dailies of that city. They "Be loval to your banks, your business houses, your city, your state. Let no man speak evil of these in your Capital has been forthcoming for the presence." That is a good slogan for resumption of mining operations in the every resident of every city.-Cocoa > ed to it if it would make North Carolina the greatest State in the Union. lina is inconsistent with the public khaki. This word designates a color. "It is estimated that the Cumnock ment because of its serviceability and fifty-five million gallons of water be- it was supplemented by the olive drab fore the pumps were put to work re- in both cotton and woolen. This color turned loose in Deep river at one time than the khaki, which is lighter in it would overflow the banks and make color, and at the time of the change a good sized 'freshet.' It would be in- it was claimed to be easier to secure took that big hole in the ground to cloth. It is a fast vat dye and before fill with water. It is now being taken the war was entirely imported .- Textile they need the meat, but because they > for this was found in the fact that as caught in the selective draft. Kinston and Lenoir too have done well, and demonstrated their patriotism in the number of volunteers for the various 200 CARS OF CANTALOUPES.

Go North During Week. Nearly 200 cars of cantaloupes were better condition as to the grass than infested trritory. orle would expect to see it.

A VACATION HINT.

Just Odds and Ends

Hailing from San Jose, Costa Rica, Atlantic Coast Line, sends The Star an mud to be found at interior points in Minister E. J. Hale and Mrs. Hale are exceedingly timely and interesting most of the states. Towns in this part enjoying the ocean breezes these hot communication which appears else- of the country should take notice, how- days out at Wrightsville Beach. They ever, that the chief asset of a town for are citizens of Fayetteville, N. C., but population is good water and plenty Major Hale is American minister to of it. Eastern North Carolina has water Costa Rica, having been appointed early without limit and our cities and towns in the Wilson administration, while have only themselves to blame if they Col. W. J. Bryan was Secretary of State. sheep in European countries are being wholesome supply. There is no limit to more loyal supporter, through thick and thin, year in and year out, than good water down here and the only Major Hale. The minister came home son that the war has made feed stuffs limit on it is the money to establish a few months ago on leave of absence. so costly that it is impossible to keep the kind of waterworks to get the He and Mrs. Hale have been spending part of the summer in the upper Cape > on the upper Cape Fear-a large part ville who wields greater influence when said, "leading citizens" who were not side of the Democratic party. However, any support was sought, but in other affairs,

He was editor and publisher of the Fayetteville Observer, the city's only daily paper, and the power of the press was never more aptly illustrated than in the power that paper gave the man who controlled its policy. The Observer ment centering in the Pan Handle and had been conducted for long years by other regions of Texas. twenty years ago, when the daily was cattle on the market prematurly. To Rica. The age and prestige of the pa- grade females for breeding purposes. satisfy the ambitions of any man in that fespect.

ville some months ago to take charge tion out in circular form, through the of and run the News Reporter for Rogood home county newspaper. He has genius which many lack of being able nome folks. But what this paragraph was intended for is to say that Keziah is running a department under the caption of "What the Town Pump Says," in which he "takes off" one afstyle, and some of it is rich. Anything s rich these times that will compel people to laugh, for real, genuine laughter is at a premium. "What the real laugh producers. Here is one of that kind, though it will not so appeal to everybody, of course:

ceeding satisfactorily and the Sanford fore, a dust colored cloth, originating of the nearest waiter, he suddenly call- from Fort Worth, Texas, for example, in India. It was first worn by British | ed out at the top of his voice, 'Pigs, conditions in Holland and Switzerland, where the dairymen have been compelled to butcher their cattle, not because other feed to keep their herds alive. There exists, at the present time, a condition in this country, of which I feel you should have knowledge, knowing as I do your keen interest in bringing about a development in the raising parched the range, and will force large numbers of breeding cattle on the market prematurely. The Government and this company are interested in saving these cattle from the shambles.

shipped the past week from the sec. ing purposes, originating in tick-free or act naturally, if breath is bad, stomthat's all. Other United States hams shipped the past week from the sections and the vicinity of Calypso, Mt. range territory, can enter this State ach sour, system full of cold, throat sell for less because they have to. Olive, Faison and Dudley, but as the without the usual restrictions placed sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful However, the danger point has been season is now well advanced it is ex- upon them, on account of tuberculosis, of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a reached in the price of ham owing to pected that the shipments under re- and other communicable diseases. The few hours all the clogged-up, constipatfrigeration will drop off during this only exception to this arrangement is ed waste, sour bile and undigested food For marrying purposes, a South Car- the fact that it is likely to encourage week as much as two-thirds. It is also cattle affected with cattle tick, which will gently move out of the bowels, and olinian put his age in his marriage swiping among those who have never learned from shippers that all over must be dipped under the provisions you have a well, playful child again. Eastern North Carolina the corn crop laid down by the Bureau of Animal Inis better than it has been for years. dustry, at Washington, regulating the take this harmless "fruit laxative." Mil-The weather conditions have been fa- interstate transportation of cattle. Such lions of mothers keep it handly because military eligible and was arrested as Ever since the Spanish-American vorable and in spite of the unusual cattle must be dipped, as usual, wheth- they know its action on the stomach, amount of rain the corn crop is in far er they are entering tick-free or tick- liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

This movement is in line with the saves a sick child tomorrow.

mit to being drafted before she would take care of the country and let the pack a box of "Bobs," the final word in a court of common please.

Into your trulk of bag of a normal supply of a normal supply of a normal supply of breeding animals.

Into your trulk of bag of an ages and for grown-ups plainty pack a box of "Bobs," the final word in candy coated chewing gum. Any largely from the Southwest, the move- "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

nappy to occupy the position in his nome community that Major Hale occupies in Fayetteville. The old-new city his life there, as did his father before him. There is hardly a man in Fayettehe says goes, when he decides to speak. Often he doesn't. He leaves it to the other fellows. He has been following that course largely if not entirely since he has been sojourning in Central America. When he was at home, active in community affairs, he didn't always take an active part in every movement that anybody started, but when he did speak Fayetteville listened with both ears open, broadly speaking. Campaigners wanted Major Hale on their side. If he were on the other side, it was with him could not be induced to be actively against him, for they felt that erence to partisan political fights; as to that, he was always to be found on the tions usually considered that they had scored a two-bagger when they secured the active support of Maj. Hale. It was not only in politics that the Major's ers, and the County Demonstration Agens. Any one in this State interested in securing these grade Herefords, demonstrated the fact that he has the Aberdeen-Angus or Shorthorns for breeding purposes, can obtain informato get that "homey" flavor into the tion by writing Mr. Curtis. I recently attended a conference in Mr. Curtis' office, and afterwards confurther information I beg to advise, the whole plan of the arrangement above range cattle are practically free from tuberculosis, and thereby this State, with many others, has lifted the restriction preventing cattle from entering tuberculin test. All other cattle, with the exception of those originating on the range, will be subject to the reguar health certicfiate. Mr. Rommel's plan is to put the buyer

W. B. Keziah, the deaf product of Beef Cattle and Sheep, West Raleigh, afflicted with very pronounced cases of bashfulness, which causes him to do unexpected and surprising things. ing the Thanksgiving holidays he with a number of the high tones from the college were invited to a very swell dinner at which there were also several finely, only our young soda jerker kept very much in his own bosom. But near

Drought conditions in Texas have

Mr. R. S. Curtis, Animal Husbandman, ture, at request of Mr. George M. Rommel, of Washington, D. C., Chief of the Bureau of Animal Husbandry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, recently ad- Look, Mother! If tongue is coated dressed a letter to the press, informing the public that through a co-operative arrangement with the Bureau of Animal Industry, of Washington, D. C., the Veterinary Division of the State Department, of Raleigh, N. C., and the is a sure sign the stomach, liver and Animal Industry Division at West Ra- | bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansleigh, N. C., plans have been perfected ing at once. When your child is cross, whereby beef cattle intended for breed- peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, ear

conservation of food products, and is intended to prevent female cattle from the of "California Syrup of Figs," which going to the shambles, thereby elimi- contains directions for babies, children Into your trunk or bag be sure to nating the possibility of a normal sup- of all ages and for grown-ups plainly

Car Fare Refunded On Purchases of $2.00 or Over

SPECIAL OFFERINGS

In High White Boots and White

Canvas Pumps

White Canvas Lace Boots, high leather

High Lace Boots, plain toe, leather soles,

White Canvas Boots, kid tip, leather sale,

Growing girls' high white shoes, capped

White Canvas Plain Pump, covered Cu-

White Canvas high heel Pumps, with Co-

The Popular Department Store

Southeast where such cattle are badly

The number, grade, weight and price

n touch with the seller, when assured of the buyer's financial responsibility for shipment. They can not look after port they are in position to round up

10,000 head of grade Hereford, Aber-and two-year-old females within a very few days, at prices ranging, approximately, from $40 for the yearlings to

The freight rate on these animals to Fayetteville, Scotland Neck, Tarboro

and many other points in this territory

This looks like a splendid opportun-female cattle for breeding purposes, at what the Government officials think a clean little liver and bowels.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to

They also know a little given today

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bot-would not exceed $8.00 a head.

very reasonable price.

any orders for less than car lots.

lonial buckle, covered Cuban and lea-heels, white ivory soles, in all sizes $1.89

covered Louis heel $2.50 and $2.98

covered Louis heel $3.50 and $3.98

toe, white ivory sole and heel.....$1.89

ban heel$1.39

to give information to any one desiring same. Yours very truly, G. A. CARDWELL,

Agricultural and Immigration Agent. Wilmington, N. C., July 28, 1917. W. C .T. U. WILL PROVIDE

FOR SAILOR BOYS AT WAR To Begin Campaign For Making Comfort Bags Next Week.

In keeping with the aims of its department known as "The Department | Could Not Eat or Sleep With Any ance Union will henceforth devote its special attention to the Navy, according to an announcement made by the local president yesterday. A call has been sent out by the HAS GAINED 101/4 LBS. IN 3 WEEK! state department of the W. C. T. U. for a supply of comfort bags for the from their friends, and from the friends of the sailors, funds to make and fill these bags. It is understood says: that one dollar is all that is required to make and fill a bag. The union hopes to complete 50 of these bags during the coming week. two until I began using Ironized Paw-Any one wishing to contribute to | Paw. I believe I had the worst case of wards this fund should telephone Mrs. E. R. Clarke, No. 1353-W, who is president of the local union. A call meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the First Baptist | taking Ironized Paw-Paw and within church, to consider further plans for this work. All who are interested are urged to attend. Those who are not members of the union, but who are interested in the work are also invited to come out.

Ladies are again reminded that the drying demonstration to be given by Mrs. Annie Pretlow, will be held too'clock in the John D. Bellamy build- whatever. I am convinced that Iron ing, No. 107 1-2 South Front street. opposite the market; and cabbage, corn, okra, lima beans and perhaps beets will be dried. Tuesday at the same hours in the same place the colored people are invited to attend a similar demonstration. Friday, it is planned, the vegetables dried tomor- Paw-Paw lifts and holds you. ow will be served to ladies at the druggist probably keeps it, but Bellamy building, demonstrating the excellence of dried food.

Escape the Heat of the City ty for us to get a lot of high-grade by spending a comfortable day at Lu- promptly attended. Interstate life

White Nubuck Sport Oxfords, sizes 3 to 6; special at$3.48 Full line of Ladies' White Silk Hose, per pair 25¢ to $1.50 REHDER'S 615-617-919 North Fourth Street

White Canvas two-bar Pumps, covered

White Canvas Pumps, leather heels and

Special Value-Ladies' white Canvas

White Canvas Sport Oxfords, rubber

Strap Pumps and Oxfords; regular

$3.00 and $4.00 values; reduced to ..98¢

soles and heels; special$1.00

Louis heel, all sizes$1.89

soles, with Colonial buckles$2.39

Comfort, Would Wake Up a Night With Shortness

along with nervous headaches. I had no ambition to do anything. 1 began one morning to realize that I had sen the entire night through without awaitin three weeks and can eat and slets as well as I ever did.

"My nervous headaches and dim spells are now past. My stomach to tains all solids without any discomfort ized Paw-Paw is the peer of all other tonics and I am delighted to be able to Alcohol lifts but lets you fall; Ironire doesn't it is sold at Ervington's Dependable Drug Store.

Ironized Paw-Paw, price $1.00 For mula on every bottle. Mail order Co., Inc., New York .- Adv.

10-12 A. M. 2-5 P. M. Other Hours By Appointment. Offices: 401-402 Southern Bldg.

PHONE 838 Chiropractic is the science of healing by spinal adjustments. No drugs, surgery, or osteopathic methods.