DR. J. H. FOSTER AND FAMILY WILL ARRIVE SATURDAY. "Go Forward," publication of the First Baptist church, yesterday had the following: "Dr. J. H. Foster and family will arrive Wilmington one week from today. We give them welcome in advance. The Doctor was a hard worker while pastor of the First church, and his grace was a great help to the church and the paths of progress leading before it."

CHADBOURN SOCIAL AND OTHER NEWS OF THE WEEK. Chadbourne, N. C., July 28.—Among the most pleasant festive occasions of the past week was an entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Case at their home in West Chadbourne on last Saturday. The occasion was their annual celebration of the family reunion and much enjoyed by the unbroken circle was felt. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Case of Raleigh; Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Case (parents); Mrs. E. M. Best, of Columbia, S. C.; Mrs. C. S. Nance and family, of Clarkston; Mrs. L. E. Woolard and daughter, Chadbourne. A fine picnic dinner, with later an entree of cake and cream, was enjoyed, and after a happy well-wishing the guests departed to meet again next year at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Case.

A July party, consisting of Mrs. C. D. Koonce, Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. M. E. Lewis, Misses Isabel and Mary McKnight, Mary Tootin and the children, with Messrs. J. H. Land, J. A. Brown, A. W. Lewis, A. D. Lewis and Paul H. Brown, attended a meeting Wednesday night at Cerra Gordo for the purpose of organizing a Red Cross unit at that place. An interested crowd was assembled, and after Mr. C. C. Covington had stated briefly, the purpose of the meeting, Mr. Brown made a thrilling short address. The Rev. Mr. Land, chairman of the Chadbourne chapter, gave an instructive lecture on organization, and the work of making hospital supplies was demonstrated by Mrs. L. MacDonald. A very deep feeling was evident, and a unit was quickly formed, the class selecting their line of work. The Chadbourne chapter has granted permission—if in accordance with the Central Committee—to allow Whiteville to have their own separate chapter, as the membership is growing so rapidly, a division is necessary.

Mrs. J. A. Brown and daughter, Miss Gladys, have returned from attending a house party at Winston-Salem. Mrs. C. R. Spencer, of Whiteville, was a recent visitor. Mrs. A. G. Council is visiting relatives at Hallsboro this week. Miss Inez Wilkes is in Wilmington under medical treatment for throat trouble. Mrs. A. W. Lewis and Miss Bert Edmund are spending a few days in Wilmington. Mr. H. C. Devane, of Wilmington, was a visitor in this city this week. Returning he was accompanied by his wife and sister, Miss Lettie, who goes for medical treatment. Mr. O. L. Clark, of Clarkston, was a business visitor Monday. Mr. D. C. Clark made a business trip to Wilmington Tuesday. Mr. P. H. Mellette left Tuesday for Columbia, S. C., where he joined the National Guard. Mrs. J. J. Anderson, of Wilmington, with her little son, is spending a short while visiting relatives here. Many tobacco buyers are here now attending the big sales. It is simply wonderful the amount that is being brought in, and the average prices are more wonderful. It will be one of the staple productions hereafter.

ROOK TOURNAMENT AND OTHER SOCIAL AFFAIRS AT WARSAW. Warsaw, N. C., July 28.—The Rook tournament, given by the Red Cross chapter for the purpose of providing funds in every way, was a "scided success" evening from nine till twelve in an ivily decorated hotel, which was extensively decorated with smilax, trailing vines, and large sprays of greenery, and while large American flags and Red Cross flags formed a background. Misses Olivia Best, Brookline Hines, Mattie Owen and Lou Mitchell Faison, suitably dressed in white with the Red Cross emblems, served punch during the decorated evening from an attractive, decorated bower, to the large number present. Perfectly planned and successfully executed to the least detail, was the tournament. Receiving in the lobby were Miss Anna Pierce, president of the chapter, and Mesdames W. B. Aycock and W. O. Singletary. Miss Margaret Pierce, assisted by Miss Margaret Carr, presided over the tournament. There were fifteen tables for progress during the evening. Mrs. Chambers, diers' prize, a large hamper of luscious peaches. This was presented by Miss Margaret Pierce, who said in her presentation speech, that whereas flowers and trinkets were formerly given, that now the principle of food conservation was utilized even in the giving of card prizes. Mr. Walker Stevens, tying with Mr. Cecil East, cut the gentleman's prize, a membership in the local Red Cross chapter, this being presented by Mr. R. D. Johnson, who stressed the importance of men joining the Red Cross.

Thirty dollars was netted from the entertainment, and much appreciation was expressed for the efforts of the capable committee, who had charge of the affair. Miss Annie Lee Adkins entertained the Little Confederates chapter, C. of C., at her home on last Wednesday evening. After the monthly program had been rendered, at the business meeting following it was decided to give part of the proceeds from a play recently presented to the Red Cross work, and to use most of the remainder for the benefit of the old ladies of the Confederate Woman's Home. The vice president, Miss Bessie Barden, presided in the absence of the president, Miss Martha Best. The young hostess assisted her mother and sister, Miss Bessie Adkins, to serve an ice course and water.

Thursday evening of last week was Red Cross night of the Christian Endeavor Society. The members enjoyed an inspiring address from Mrs. Cuthbert M. Ains, of Wilmington, as well as one by Rev. A. O. Moore, of the Warsaw Baptist church, who spoke of service, and one by Mr. R. D. Johnson, who urged the necessity of patriotism. Mrs. W. B. Aycock, dressed as a Red Cross nurse, sang a song in regard to "The Children's Chapter, Daughters of Confederacy, also dressed in Red Cross costume, rendered an enjoyable vocal number. Mr. Walker Stevens was the leader of the evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Charles Carroll on last Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served. Mrs. H. Faison Pearce has returned from Washington, D. C., where she spent the week in connection with the food conservation movement, and help in her work as president of the Duplin Co-operative Conservation Club. Mrs. Pierce was one of the twenty-five women present at the drawing of the numbers of the registered men.

CLARKTON SOCIAL AND OTHER NEWS NOTES OF INTEREST. Clarkton, N. C., July 28.—The members of the three Sunday schools here, the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian, enjoyed a union picnic at Lake Waccamaw Thursday. The trip was made in automobiles. At an early hour a merry party of happy and excited crowds of small boys and girls could be seen hurrying wending their way to the various churches where each school was to assemble for the start. And perhaps no less excited were the older young people and the parents and preparations were being made for an all-day picnic. The honk-honking of the cars, mingled with the happy voices and the sound of the church bells announced that the hour for starting had arrived. Some, however, were so eager to make a long day of it, that not waiting for the appointed hour were out bright and early and were at the lake by 9 o'clock. Having made the trip to the lake without accident the first thing that attracted the attention of a majority of the picnickers was as might be supposed, the water, and in a short while, despite the broiling sun, a number were engaged in bathing, diving, swimming, or as the smaller children, wading. A bountiful lunch was spread in the pavilion and was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The afternoon passed off too quickly and at 5 o'clock the signal was given for the homeward start. It was a tired, sun-blistered but happy crowd who returned after a most delightful day.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul spent Sunday in Wilmington with relatives. One of the most unique and interesting meetings held by the Christian Endeavor Society was that on Sunday evening with Mr. Samuel E. Mearns as speaker. The topic "Applying the Golden Rule to Life," was carried out in "An Inch Meeting." Twelve members each representing an inch in the Golden Rule, spoke as follows: "Defining the Golden Rule," Miss Lula Mae Smith; "Applying the Golden Rule to Life," Miss Emma Kelly; "Applying it in Business," Mr. C. S. Clark; "Applying it in School," Miss Katie Smith; "Applying it in Christian Endeavor Society," Miss Isabel Cromartie; "The Golden Rule in Our Treatment of Strangers," Miss Mattie Lee Johnston; "In Speaking About Others," Miss Laura E. Meares; "The Golden Rule Illustrated in His Life," Miss Maude Clark; "Our Treatment of One Who Has Sinned," Mr. Elihu Meares; "The Effect It Would Have on Nations," Rev. W. H. Goodman; "On Religious Denominations," Dr. E. S. Clark; "The spirit that is in our hearts to exemplify it in our lives," Mr. E. J. Cox. Mrs. R. K. Craven very sweetly sang as a solo "Somebody Needs You." A chorus from the Junior Christian Endeavor Society sang most effectively "Jesus Loves Me."

Mr. D. G. Kelly, of Charlotte, spent Sunday in town with relatives. Miss Amelia Wooten has returned home from an extended visit to Wilmington. She was accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. G. W. Huggins who are spending some time here. A series of meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. Burney, of South Carolina, is visiting here. Mrs. Joe Burney has returned to her home in Ashboro, after spending some time with relatives near here. Mrs. J. H. Hilburn, of Bladen Springs, was in town last week. Misses Maurice and Eleanor Taylor left Monday to spend a while with friends and relatives in Kinston and Greenville. Miss Ruth Williams, of Southport, has been the attractive guest of Miss Nellie Wooten the past week on Route No. 2. Mrs. Shade Wooten, of Route 2, accompanied her little baby to Wilmington this week, where it will undergo treatment in a hospital there. Messrs. Edwin Phifer and McIlwaine Ruten and Misses Jennie and Mary were accompanied by Miss Mary Stevens to her home near Council last Sunday afternoon and Miss Jennie Stephens returned home with them. They made the trip in Mr. Phifer's "Blanche Jackson and Ethel George, of Wilmington, are guests of Misses Bertha, Mattie and Lizzie Gooden.

The quarterly meeting of the East Bladen Baptist Sunday School Association will be held with the Clarkton Baptist church next Sunday morning, beginning at 10:30 o'clock. An interesting programme has been prepared, and a series of meetings will begin at the Baptist church here next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Potat. Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Goodman expect to leave next week to spend a month in the mountains. During the absence of Mr. Goodman, there will be no prayer meetings on Wednesday evenings.

The "Johnson Engineers," Company of South Carolina, engineers, arrived Wednesday to spend a week in Marion. This company, which is composed of about one hundred men, was organized by Mr. J. M. Johnson, and the people of Marion are taking more than ordinary interest in these young soldiers and are planning numerous entertainments for their pleasure while they are in our midst. Major Johnson and his company expect to see service in France within the near future.

One of the most attractive features in connection with the Red Cross campaign in our progressive little town was the display made this week by the Whilden & Mace Drug Company. They used one entire window to exhibit the handiwork of the Columbia chapter Red Cross, who had sent samples to the ladies in Marion, in order that they might know what was wanted and how the various articles were made. They had a wounded soldier laid out on a couch, bandaged up in true hospital style. At his right sat a Red Cross nurse in her uniform, and a surgeon stood on the left, ready to administer "first aid" to the sufferer. Displayed on neat glass shelves were rolls of various kinds of bandages, towels, wash rags, etc., and hanging in the rear were to be seen the various garments needed in the Red Cross hospitals for the wounded and suffering soldiers. To make the scene more realistic, these gentlemen had placed a small table near the doctor's hand, on which was to be found open and ready for use, absorbent cotton, iodine, bandages, glass measures, etc., and to add to the attractiveness of the display, one side of the window was furnished daily with a fresh supply of cut flowers. Interested crowds were to be seen gathered around this display from early until late.

Miss Rowena Arail, of Mullins, visited friends here this week. Miss Margaret Melvin, of Fork, is the guest of Miss N. M. Rogers. Mrs. Laneau O. Lide very charmingly entertained the Pappirus Club on Thursday morning. An interesting literary programme was carried out, after which the hostess served tempting refreshments. Dr. and Mrs. Rufus Ford are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Willingham, at her summer home on Lookout Mountain, Tenn. Miss Mary Hunter is spending the week at Murrell's Inlet.

FRIDAY'S RAINS WASHED COUNTRY ROADS BADLY. Supt. R. A. Burnett Keeps All Highways Clear, However. The storm of Friday afternoon and evening with its terrific downpour of rain inflicted not a little damage on the country roads and Supt. R. A. Burnett spent half Friday night inspecting the highways and clearing the hard road and the camp. A few trees were blown across the roads, also, but last night every road was clear and safe for travel. MAJ. JOE W. LITTLE AND MR. D. J. FERGUSON MAKE WAR-TIME TALKS. The second series of war-time talks lasting four minutes were presented last night at the Grand and Bijou theatres between films by Maj. Jos. W. Little and Mr. D. J. Ferguson, whose brief, patriotic addresses were heard by large audiences and received the applause they merited. The duty of every American to do his bit, the responsibility upon every American man, woman or child, was forcefully presented, and the importance of all Americans taking part in carrying out the national plans in order to bring the war to an early and successful conclusion was shown. Americans should get on the job and do what they each one could, to "get the ox out of the ditch" before the war finally circled the globe and involved everything and everybody. It is a time to display true American courage, energy and loyalty at home and abroad, and no individual is so humble that he cannot do a bit for America. The 4-minute addresses are being delivered here under the auspices of the North Carolina Public Information Committee, in connection with the plans of the National Council of Defense, to popularize the needs and duties of the hour and make plain why America is in the war. Mr. J. Allan Taylor will formally open the speaking campaign at the Royal theatre tomorrow night, and other strong speakers will appear at this playhouse on Wednesday and Friday. Speeches will be made at the Grand and Bijou Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Owing to the fact that the usual mid-week dances are held at Lumina on Wednesday nights, Mr. L. Clayton Grant will appear at Lumina on Wednesday of this week instead of on Tuesday night, as announced previously. Other strong speakers will appear at all theatres during the coming week.

"They Also Serve" Who Stay Behind—and Work.

By Marian Bonsall Davis. "The Red Cross," said the mother of three young men who have just put on the khaki, "is my training camp. It is for me my military duty. It gives me a chance to be a soldier with my sons. 'Sometimes a company from the army or a band of boy scouts marching with life and drums passes my window. Looking at them I see in my mind all our boys at all our training camps, learning their new lessons, testing their endurance. And we mothers can't take care of them. They've gone into their man's world. 'It is glorious to be a woman. 'I take up my sewing box and sew a little red cross on the jacket of the pajamas I am making, and wonder who will wear it and what the red cross will make him think of. Curiously, even if my boys are in the hospital to which this garment goes, I want it to be worn by some other mother's boy; and I want my boys to wear the things made by some other mother. Some way it seems to me to make motherhood go deeper. 'Perhaps it will be worn by some black man or some black boy from Africa who will think it is funny; perhaps some young French officer; perhaps some Italian peasant, like my ice-man; perhaps some wounded German prisoner—and I have the privilege of giving to the soldiers of the world. 'It glorifies the material I work with. Thrillingly it glorifies money. Think! One cent buys iodine to disinfect a wound. If the iodine shouldn't be there, but it won't fail. Mothers and fathers won't let it fail, now they know."
