Calls Heads of the Four Brother hoods to Meet Him in Conference Next Week

Desires That He be Not Forced to Take "Unusual Measures" to Operate Lines

Washington, Nov. 14 .- Once again President Wilson has undertaken perfour great railroad brotherhoods to meet him in conference November 22 and will insist that patriotism be put ahead of private interest; that there be no attempt to handicap the operation of a vital part of the nation's warmaking machinery.

The President is confident that nothing unpatriotic will be done, but if the necessity arises he is prepared to take the required steps to prevent a tie-up of transportation.

In announcing today the coming conference with the union chiefs, Judge William L. Chambers, chairman of the board of mediation and conciliation,
