Mr. Morrison Taylor, aged 27 years, died at his home in Wishart township Thursday morning. He had been sick two weeks with pneumonia. Mr. Taylor was a young man of sterling worth and had many friends.

Cotton Grader's Work.

To date the local government cotton grader, Mr. T. W. Trogdon, has graded 9,000 samples. Of this number 7,000 samples were graded for Robeson farmers. The office will close December 21. Last year only 4,500 samples were graded for Robeson growers. No doubt the grading has saved the farmers much money and it will mean a officers and men, was dispatched to having when they all get the that point. All water, supplies, icehabit of having their cotton graded by cream and milk are carefully investi- ing to approximately ex a government grader.

North Carolina day will be observed December 21. Addresses will be made in a number of the schools. The speakers will put special emphasis on thrift. conservation and patriotism.

The following have enlisted in the and Jas. B. Moon, of Laurinburg; G. Williams, Sam J. Clark, Jimmie B. Culbreth, Columbus county; Clifton P. Ashley, Fairmont.

The First Baptist church of Lumberton will be dedicated Sunday, De-Winston-Salem, former pastor of the veloped the fact that the sewage dischurch, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

Marriage Licenses.

License has been issued in Robeson this week for the marriage of Willie Hanchey and Katie Denton; Jno. H. West and Florida Floyd; Gregory G. Phillips and Mary Howard; Montgomery Evans and Mary Ivey; Carl N. Dunn and Emma Bell McRae; Frank A. Jones and Tula Yarborough.

Negro Breaks Jail.

Ben Hicks, colored, an escaped convict who had recently been re-arrested, broke out of jail Sunday night. Hicks was allowed to leave his cell and go out into the hall to warm and while Jailer A. H. Prevatt was eating supper he tore through the brick wall. Small shipments of sugar have slightly relieved the sugar shortage here. However, the supply was limited and many who wanted sugar have been unable to get it. One merchant sold a barrel of sugar in 28 minutes, 5 pounds to a customer.
