SOCIETY

Miss Margaret Barden, were initiated. The bazaar held by the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church in the Red Cross room last week, was quite successful. An amusing feature was the "art gallery." This purported to be famous works of art, but was discovered on entrance to contain numbers of every-day objects, which were grouped to represent the names of masterpieces. This proved to be very profitable, and a good sum was realized from the receipts, as well as from the sale of fancy articles and refreshments.

Red Cross work day was postponed from Tuesday till Friday the past week on account of the organization of the county Red Cross association, and the council of national defense, which occurred here on Tuesday.

Miss Helen Fenville, who is teaching several miles from town, spent last week-end here.

SOUTHPORT SOCIETY AND OTHER NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Southport, Dec. 15.—The many friends of Mr. George V. Watson, who had a serious fall last week, will be glad to learn he is getting over the effects satisfactorily.

Mr. Johnnie Watson, who is spending the winter at Black Mountain, is at home for the holidays.

Mr. George Pinner, of Wilmington, spent Sunday in Southport, his old home.

Mrs. Roy E. Staton, of Hendersonville, is with Mrs. Hanson Hancock indefinitely.

Mrs. John Willis and children have moved back to their old home, Morehead City.

Mrs. J. J. Laughlin spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. James Purdue.

Dr. Moody Mintz and Miss Elizabeth Rega motored down and back from Wilmington last Sunday.

Mr. W. M. McIntyre, for some time editor of the Southport News, was greeting old friends here last Tuesday.

Mr. Robert Morse, who is with the government at Baltimore, spent last week in Southport with his family.

Mrs. James Callahan, of New York State, is here with her daughter, Elizabeth, and her husband, Mr. Callahan, who is in the army at Fort Caswell.

The Misses Mulrow, of Florence, S. C., who have been visiting Mrs. Ed Taylor for some time, returned home last week.

Mr. Lester Davis has joined the Cape Fear coast guards.

Mrs. J. A. Laughlin and children, of Columbia, S. C., are here till after Christmas. Mr. Laughlin came with them but returned. He is one of the inspectors of Camp Jackson.

WHO WILL HELP? Clara Barton Memorial Mission Will Fill Bags For Soldiers.

(Contributed) The Clara Barton Memorial mission is doing its part to spread Christmas "good cheer" to the soldiers at Fort Caswell and our boys at Camp Sevier by filling Christmas bags, made of thin material, which will enable the candy, nuts, oranges, apples, grapes, raisins, etc., to make a brighter appearance when ready for presentation.

Mrs. E. May Glenn Toon, who is giving much time to this work, will have her headquarters at the Bon Marche' on Friday, Saturday and Monday before Christmas when she will gladly receive the Christmas bags there.

Many bags have already been made and those wishing to remember the boys can have one or more simply for the asking. Miss Boney or anyone of the young ladies on the first floor of the Bon Marche' will be glad to furnish them for that purpose.

It may be that many would prefer making their own bags and by so doing would be aiding a little further. A little gift of some kind such as soap, tooth paste, comb, tooth brush, wash rags, cold cream, powder, lead pencil, handkerchiefs, etc., would be a very much appreciated gift.

Another very kind and thoughtful deed would be for all ladies who can to send a nice piece of their homemade cake wrapped in tissue paper, though wax paper is preferable. Paper from around baked bread can be used and in this way it will be unnecessary to buy it.

Let all who can help and in future years our dear sons will sound our praises and remember the good people of Wilmington.

This work is in memory of Clara Barton, born on Christmas day, and founder of the American National Red Cross. This work is a memorial with the cross of Christ for its emblem, hence its name—the Clara Barton Memorial.

FIRST SERVICE OF YEAR.—Rev. M. T. Plyler will speak of recent conference at Grace' Church.

The first services of the new church year will be held in all the Methodist churches in Wilmington today. All of the ministers were returned for another year, and consequently there will be little disruption in the work.

Rev. M. T. Plyler will speak on the recent conference at Greenville in his sermon at Grace church this morning. Mr. Plyler took a prominent part in the deliberations of that body, being one of its most influential members, and what he has to say will be of particular interest to all Methodists. He will outline briefly some things he thinks should be stressed during the present year and particularly desires
